A substantial five bedroom end of terrace townhouse that has been refurbished and reconfigured to create a modern and sociable layout.

This property has undergone a total transformation and provides flexible accommodation that includes; on the ground floor, a guest WC and an open plan kitchen / reception room offering an ideal area for the whole family. Bi-fold doors allow for indoor-outdoor living giving direct access to a low maintenance private garden equipped with artificial grass, decking and seating area. Upstairs the 5th bedroom is currently being used as a 2nd reception room or 'snug', and there is a double bedroom and shower room with utility cupboard. The master bedroom is on the top floor along with a family bathroom and a further two good size bedrooms. Other benefits include gas central heating, recently rewired electrics and double glazing throughout. Externally, the driveway is suitable for two vehicles and there is a side gate giving side access to the rear garden.

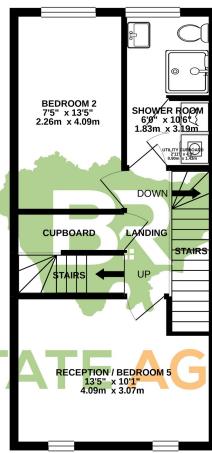

Jackson Road is located in a popular position within Bromley Common between Bromley Town Centre and the sought-after village of Locksbottom where you will find an array of amenities, from country style pubs to highly rated restaurants, local independent shops and supermarkets. There is a good choice of local primary and secondary schools and both Bromley South and Orpington Train Stations are only a bus ride away offering fast and frequent services into central London within 16 minutes.
