LIVING WITH VOLCANOES 4x52’
A stunning series to discover 40 volcanoes around the world to learn about the fire giants from people who live alongside them and from scientists who protect us from their danger. Volcanoes led to dinosaurs’ extinction and wiped entire civilizations – like the Minoans in Crete and Santorini in 1450 BCE. Today, the lives of 600 million people are threatened by 1670 active volcanoes. The entire planet is affected when Mount Pinatubo erupted in the Philippines, global temperatures fell by nearly 1°C for three years. Recent studies suggest that humankind will eventually be wiped out by a gigantic volcanic eruption…

Today, it is expertly acknowledged that “Madonna with the Yarnwinder” is an authentic Leonardo Da Vinci. But to get to this conclusion, this masterpiece has undergone multiple interpretations, including its purchase as a well-made copy by an English lord in 1809. The recent authentication by the Louvre was a long and tedious process, and the experts not only used state of the art scientific techniques, but also had to dive into Leonardo’s universe, his turbulent lifestyle and his other signature works. This film is the opportunity to rediscover Renaissance Italy to better understand who Leonardo was and why he is the considered the greatest master of all.
