

Want to play badminton against different people of varying standards?
Want to meet new people and consider signing for a new club in a different league?

Do you play badminton for fun with friends?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, why not enter the John Culshaw Tournament?

A tournament with Blackburn & District Badminton Association and Hyndburn Borough
Council

The tournament will take place on 11th March 2012 at Hyndburn Sports Centre,
Accrington, BB5 4EP from 10-4pm

It's a team event consisting of 2 men and 2 ladies per team. The tournament will operate on a round robin basis meaning plenty of games will be played throughout the day. The event is handicapped, so different abilities can play against one another and the games will be more level. Within each match, you will play a men's doubles, a ladies doubles and 2 mixed doubles. Anyone can enter, but you need to know the basic rules of badminton.

The cost of entering the tournament is £7.50 per player, so £30 per team and you can pay on the day*.

To enter the tournament, or for more details, contact Claire Edmundson on claire.edmundson@hotmail.co.uk or 07957138914. The following details are required to enter the tournament:

Team name

Players names

Which leagues you play in and the division (if applicable). Remember you do not have to play in a league and the tournament is open to everyone.

The closing date is 26th February. However, due to the popularity of the tournament in recent years, places will be offered on a first come, first served basis.

Book your place quickly!!

*If you book a place, but subsequently withdraw, you will still be eligible to pay the entry fee if an alternative team cannot be found to replace you.
