The following is the correct graph:

Example 9

Page 321, Scenario 13

The scenario paragraph should read as follows:

A newly qualified dentist has been asked to take some notes about a recent patient to one of the partners to discuss possible treatment options. As the dentist walks into the partner's office they see them putting a bottle of whisky into their office drawer. It is obvious from the smell that the partner has been drinking the whisky.

Point 1 should read as follows:

1. A very inappropriate thing to do – it is clear that there is no room at the residential for the patient to be transferred so it would be inappropriate to provide false hope that the patient will be transferred immediately.
