

Design Internship

Brand42 London, UK - Placement

Job Description

We are on the lookout for a motivated graduate with a passion for design, brimming with big ideas and willing to get stuck into all stages of design. You'll work within a fast paced studio covering a wide portfolio of clients including the likes of the MailOnline, BBC Worldwide, CNN and Euronews.

Main responsibilities and desired skills:

- Working closely with the creative project lead (designer), you will be involved in live project briefs, with tasks ranging research, concept boards & exploration, idea generation, design concepts and general assistance.
- Understanding of Adobe Creative Suite Software including Illustrator, Indesign and Photoshop.
- Motion Graphics software such as After Effects would be beneficial but not essential.
- Getting involved with our social media channels, studio life, and updating the team on upcoming events/meet-ups.
- Love of Design - discovering future trends, new websites/apps causing a storm in the tech world, exciting print/ packaging processes and materials. If something big is happening, we want to know about it.

What to Expect:

We treat all of our interns as employees and as a result, you will be involved in helping develop concepts and carry these through to design with the support of the Creative Lead. On occasion you will also be asked to help out with some of the nitty gritty around the studio, but it's a team effort, so we all pitch in.

Above all, we won't place you in a corner and forgot about you. You'll be an integral part of the team, engage with live briefs, and have regular reviews and mentoring to insure it's a valuable experience for all. We also actively recruit from of internship program, so this will be your chance to shine.

We have a very strong work ethic at Brand42, however this approach is balanced with a fantastic studio environment. Essentially that old cliché; work hard, play hard. We are a sociable bunch that enjoy a drink, or two and you will be invited to join us :)
