

Cyber Business Secure

Privacy Policy

Cyber Business Secure is an affiliate of Cyber Business Growth Ltd.

Cyber Business Growth Ltd is committed to protecting the privacy of its users and strives to provide a safe user experience. This Privacy Policy describes how we collect and use online data and by using this site, you agree to the collection, use and transfer of your data as described in this Privacy Policy.

If you do not want your information to be collected, used and transferred as described in this policy, you may revoke your consent to our Privacy Policy. To revoke your consent, please send an email with 'Revoke' in the subject line to info@cyberbusinessgrowth.com. If you revoke your consent, your account and profile information will be removed from our website. Information collected on our sites and applications is stored in the United Kingdom; therefore, your information may be subject to British law.

Scope of this Policy

This policy applies to information we collect or use on sites and applications owned or controlled by Cyber Business Growth Ltd or its affiliated companies ("Cyber Business Resource", "Cyber Business Secure"). Affiliated companies are entities that control, are controlled by or are under common control with Cyber Business Growth Ltd.

Information We Collect

We collect information about you when you use our sites. We collect information directly from you such as your contact information. We receive and store this information when you enter it on our website, send it to us or provide it to us in any other way.

We also collect information about you automatically. We automatically collect information about how you use our sites and mobile applications, the areas of our sites that you visit, as well as information about your computer or mobile device including your IP address, device ID, physical location, browser and operating system type and referring URLs. This information is necessary to provide personalised and location-based content, as well as for analysing web traffic, troubleshooting problems, preventing fraud and improving our services. We may combine this information with information in your account to help prevent fraud.

How We Use Information

We use the information we collect to provide our services, respond to you, operate and improve our sites and applications and foster a positive user experience:

- to provide personalised, targeted or location-based content, services and advertising from us and third parties;
- to contact you about feature updates, informational and service-related communications, including important security updates;
- to provide you with additional communications, information and promotions;
- to inform you of other products or services available from Cyber Business Growth Ltd or its affiliates;
- to generate internal reports about the use of our sites and applications;
- to give search engines access to public information;
- to detect, investigate and prevent activities that may violate our policies or be illegal; and
- to make suggestions and draw inferences about you. For example, we may make suggestions about people you may know or additional products or services that might be of interest to you.
- to store only the required details to be able to provide you with licensing for software products;
- to make you aware of any technical problems or loss of services;
- to send you reminders when licensing is due to expire/renew;
- to input your details into the software vendor platforms in order to set up your account;
- to pass over your contact details to software vendors that you have purchased licenses for, should they need to contact you;
- to store your contact information until the licensing period has ended;
- to communicate with you via phone call or email;
- to create your account within Cyber Business Secure;
- to use your contact email address in order to reset your password for this website.

How We Share Information

We may disclose contact information to software vendors should they wish to contact you regarding licensing you have purchased from them through Cyber Business Secure. Any information passed over to third parties is done securely.

How We Store Information

By purchasing through Cyber Business Secure we will need to obtain and store your information in order to provide these services to you. Your information is stored on an encrypted and protected web server in the UK that is only accessible by a member of Cyber Business Growth Ltd. This information never leaves the database. Upon request, this data can and will be destroyed.

If you do not renew licensing and do not make any new purchases within 6 months, your account will expire and be scheduled for removal from our database.

Access to or correction, updating or deletion of your personal information may be denied or limited by Cyber Business Growth Ltd or Cyber Business Secure Ltd if it would violate another person's rights and/or as otherwise permitted by applicable law. If you wish to delete your account information altogether, please contact us at info@cyberbusinessgrowth.com. We will send you an email to confirm that your personal information has been deleted (other than an archival copy which is not accessible by you or third parties on the internet). The archival copy is retained only for as long as needed for audit and record purposes. We will also keep logs and information that may relate to your activity on the site.

Security

Cyber Business Growth Ltd takes appropriate measures to secure your personal information from accidental loss and from unauthorised access, use, alteration or disclosure. However, the internet is an open system and we cannot guarantee that unauthorised third parties will not be able to defeat those measures or use your personal information for improper purposes.

Children

Cyber Business Secure Ltd is not intended for, nor do we knowingly collect information from, children under the age of 18.

Changes to Privacy Policy

If we decide to materially change the substance of this Privacy Policy, we will, where required, contact you via the email address that you maintain in your profile. We will also post those changes through a prominent notice on the site.

Contact Information

Your data is submitted to Cyber Business Growth and is hosted and stored in a database on servers situated in the United Kingdom.
