AUSTRALIA | NEW ZEALAND

1. PAYMENT OF FEES

A Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) will only be issued to support a student visa application process when the initial payment of tuition and non-tuition fees as set out in the invoice is made. For New Zealand courses, fees are treated as paid to EC NZ if an agent pays them into EC NZ's student fee protection mechanism under the Student Fee Protection Rules 2013 (Fee Protection Rules). If a visa application is rejected, the rejection letter and request for refund should be sent to EC at least 7 days prior to the agreed course commencement date so EC can refund any prepaid course fees minus up to the lesser amount of AU$500 or 5% of prepaid tuition fees to cover any non-refundable fees. In New Zealand the refund a student will be entitled to is set out in clause 10, below.

In Australia, for courses of study of more than 25 weeks, a schedule of dates for payment of fees will be set out on the invoice in accordance with the TPS requirements set out in the ESOS Act. The initial payment of tuition and non-tuition fees as set out in the invoice must be made prior to EC issuing a CoE to support a visa application. If the student chooses to pay in their local currency, a foreign exchange rate will apply. The applicable exchange rate can be viewed online as at the time and date of the payment. Bank charges and commission for both the sending and receiving banks should be paid by the sender of funds or they will be applied to the account of the EC Representative or if no representative, then to the account of the individual from whom EC has received the original direct payment.

2. SERVICES

Students are entitled to receive the educational instruction outlined on page 1 of the Student Offer Letter. EC reserves the right to change details of its services, including courses, facilities, schools, accommodation, and course dates, where circumstances beyond EC's control necessitate such changes or where the number of enrolments is not enough to operate a course viably. EC reserves the right to terminate the services in the Student Offer Letter should instances of serious breaches of the student code of conduct in Clause 20. Disciplinary Processes occur.

3. COURSE ENTRY LEVELS

Most courses require minimum levels of English for entry. If after the placement test, a student is found to be below the minimum level required to start the course, EC reserves the right to place the student in a class appropriate to the student's language level and/or a different curriculum. Where this results in extending the duration of a student's course, EC may need to issue a new Certificate of Enrolment. Students may be transferred to the nearest EC Centre running a lower level course. Minimum age for individual students travelling to New Zealand without adult supervision is 16 years at course start date. Note: Minimum levels of English do not apply to the EC English (New Zealand) Limited, Education organisation number: 6667, NZBN: 94290471085301 General English (Beginner-Advanced) (Training Scheme) (levels 1-6)

4. CHANGES TO ENROLMENTS

EC reserves the right to charge an Administration Fee (AUD120; NZD90) each time course or accommodation details are changed or cancelled after a place has been confirmed. Additionally, when a change request for a previously confirmed accommodation is received less than 7 days in advance of the scheduled arrival date, an equivalent week's accommodation penalty fee will be charged. These fees will not apply to upgraded or extended courses.

5. CHANGES TO AIRPORT TRANSFERS

Notification of change to airport transfers must be sent to EC Admissions* anzebookings@ecenglish.com, at least 2 full working days prior to the designated arrival time. If notice is not received EC cannot be held liable for operational errors, and an additional Transfer and/or Administration Fee may be applied.

6. ACCOMMODATION AND TRAVEL DETAILS

Accommodation and transfer confirmations* will be provided 14 days prior to course start date for all enrolments received more than 4 weeks in advance of course start date. Accommodation and transfer confirmations* will be provided no less than 4 days prior to course start date for all enrolments received less than 4 weeks in advance of course start date. If travel information is received less than 2 working days prior to the scheduled arrival date, then EC may not be in a position to provide the transfer or accommodation service for the weekend of arrival.

* Provided travel details and payment in accordance with your payment arrangement has been received.

7. ACCIDENT AND MEDICAL INSURANCE

EC advises that all students should ensure they have appropriate insurance to cover them in the case of accident or medical need.

In New Zealand, under the Education (Pastoral Care of International Students) Code of Practice 2016 (NZ Code), medical and travel insurance (which also covers costs associated with repatriation, expatriation, and funeral expense) is compulsory for all international students. That insurance cover must include the student's travel to and from their country of origin or citizenship before their course begins and after it ends (which may be outside of the enrolment period). Most international students are not entitled to publicly funded health services while in New Zealand. If a student receives medical treatment during a visit, they will be liable for the full costs of that treatment. Full details on entitlements to publicly funded health services are available through the Ministry of Health, and can be viewed on their website at www.moh.govt.nz.

In Australia, it is compulsory for those on Student Visas to take Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for the duration of the time they are in Australia. Students need to buy OSHC before coming to Australia, to cover them from when they arrive. This ensures they have adequate health care arrangements while studying in Australia. If the student chooses EC to arrange OSHC for the first course/year only of their programme, it is their responsibility to either extend or take out OSHC for the rest of their time in Australia. They must provide evidence of cover for the entire study period before a Confirmation of Enrolment will be issued. There will be no refund of OSHC Insurance post-arrival.

8. GENERAL REFUND POLICY

EC defines a full course of study as the initial enrolment period. Extensions are considered new enrolment periods.

In Australia, all refunds will be sent to the account of the EC representative/agent from whom the fees were originally paid or, if there is no representative/agent on the account, to the individual from whom EC has received the original direct payment.

In New Zealand the refund will be paid directly to the student (or their parent or legal guardian) or a person nominated in writing by the student (their parent or legal guardian) to receive refunds on their behalf or to another signatory to the NZ Code as agreed by the student (or the student's parent or legal guardian) or if directed by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA).

However, a refund will not be provided in any circumstances where the student has supplied fraudulent, forged or deliberately misleading documentation. If EC defaults (including if it ceases to deliver the course the student is enrolled in, including, in New Zealand, if it ceases to be a signatory to the NZ Code or ceases to be a registered private training establishment), the student is eligible to receive a refund of the unexpended pre-paid tuition fees which the student has paid to EC. The refund amount will be based on the portion of tuition for which the student has paid but for which tuition has not yet been received. In the unlikely event that EC is unable to deliver a course in full, the student will be offered the refund amount in accordance with the above paragraph. In Australia, the refund will be paid within 14 days of the day on which the course ceased being provided. In New Zealand, the refund will be paid within five working days from the date of the closure or cessation.

Alternatively, the student may be offered enrolment in a suitable alternative course by EC at no extra cost. The student has the right to choose whether they would prefer a full refund of course fees, or to accept a place on another course. If they choose placement on another course, EC will ask them to sign a document to indicate acceptance of the placement.

In Australia, if EC is unable to provide a refund or to place the student on an alternative course, the Australian government's Tuition Protection Service (TPS) director will provide access to a suitable alternative course. In New Zealand, student fees are protected under the student fee protection mechanism requirements under the Fee Protection Rules. www.nzqa.govt.nz/providers-partners/approval-accreditation-and-registration/student-fee-protection/

9. CANCELLATION POLICY

EC defines "cancellation" as a change occurring before the start date of the initial enrolment period. All cancellations must be made in writing to EC Admissions* anzebookings@ecenglish.com and the following refund policies apply: Enrolment Fee, Courier Fee, Accommodation Placement Fee, or Administration Fee are non-refundable.

In Australia, EC further reserves the right to withdraw or cancel an offer at any time in circumstances where evidence of nongenuine temporary entrant status is identified. In such instances, the following refund policies apply: 100% Tuition Fee, Enrolment Fee, Courier Fee, Accommodation Placement Fee, and Administration Fee. However, a refund will not be provided in any circumstances where the student has supplied fraudulent, forged or deliberately misleading documentation.

10. TUITION REFUNDS BEFORE ARRIVAL

For Student Visa Refusals

In Australia for pre-arrival Student visa refusal, the following applies: EC agrees to refund within 28 days, tuition and non-tuition fees paid where the student produces acceptable certified evidence that the application made for a student visa was rejected by a visa-issuing authority. The amount of the refund is the fees paid by or on behalf of the student, minus the lesser of the following amounts that will be retained:

- 5% of the amount of fees received (pre-paid tuition fees, non-tuition fees)
- $500.

In New Zealand, students will be refunded tuition fees in full, less the Enrolment Fee.

For Non-Student Visa Refusals

In Australia, students will be charged the enrolment fee plus 30% of total tuition fees, as well as all other sundry fees if cancelling prior to the start of their course. In New Zealand, the tuition refunds for cancellations before the start date of the first course are similar to cases of tuition refunds after arrival.

11. ACCOMMODATION REFUNDS BEFORE ARRIVAL

- Students cancelling or deferring their accommodation less than 14 days before arrival will be charged an amount equal to 1 week of accommodation.
- Students cancelling, deferring, or changing their accommodation less than 2 working days before arrival, will be charged an amount equivalent to 4 weeks of accommodation, or the full accommodation fee if the booking is less than 4 weeks in duration.

12. WITHDRAWAL POLICY

EC defines withdrawal as termination of a course after the initial enrolment period has started. Any withdrawal must be made in writing to the Centre Director of the EC school where the student is studying. Enrolment Fee, Courier Fee, Accommodation Placement Fee, Administration Fees, and any student insurance premium will not be refunded for any student terminating their course after arrival. In New Zealand the refund for all withdrawals is as set out in clause 13 "Refunds after Arrival", below.

13. TUITION REFUNDS AFTER ARRIVAL

Written notification of withdrawal must be provided as a condition for making refunds. If a student breaches the visa conditions, no refund of the tuition fees will be made. All refunds due will be made 28 days in Australia and 5 working days in New Zealand, following the date of cancellation and paid to the account from which original payment was made.

In Australia no tuition fees will be refunded to students who notify the EC Centre of their withdrawal after the commencement of their first course. When a student has enrolled in multiple locations/courses, the course start date for the purpose of this clause is that of the initial EC course.

In New Zealand

- For courses of 1 to 34 days duration, if the student withdraws within the first 2 days of the course, they will receive 50% of the Total Fees Paid*. If they withdraw after the first 2 days, no refund is made.
- For courses of 35 days to 3 months duration, if the student withdraws within the first 5 days of the course, they will receive 75% of the Total Fees Paid*. If they withdraw after the first 5 days, no refund is made.
- For courses greater than 3 months, if written notice of termination is received by the end of the tenth day of the course, the student will receive 75% of the Total Fees Paid*. Students terminating after this period will not receive a refund.

* "Total fees paid" means the sum of the cost components of all payments made by the student to EC NZ including payments for tuition fees, the Enrolment Fee, Administration Fees, Placement Fees, airport pick-ups, insurance and accommodation.  Clause 12. Withdrawal Policy states that non-tuition sundries are non-refundable

14. ACCOMMODATION REFUNDS AFTER ARRIVAL

Students leaving their accommodation must give at least 28 nights of notice in writing. In Australia and New Zealand, if a student is only leaving their accommodation or is withdrawing from their course after the period within which they are entitled to a refund under clause 13. Tuition refunds after arrival after deducting the price of accommodation used, including the required notice period charged at the standard accommodation rate, accommodation fees in excess of the accommodation period will then be refunded, less the administration fee. In New Zealand, if a student leaves their accommodation because they have withdrawn from their course within the refund period, Clause 13. Tuition refunds after arrival will apply.

15. VISAS

Students should contact their local embassy, Consulate or High Commission to ensure they are allowed to enter and study in their chosen country. If a student does not possess or maintain a valid visa status in accordance with the visa conditions then their course will be terminated without refund.

No visa support documentation will be provided until all fees have been received.

16. HOLIDAYS

EC schools will be closed on public holidays and no compensation is provided for missed days due to public holidays.

Session Breaks

Session breaks are dependent upon destination, course duration, and visa requirements and are subject to EC's session break policy, available from <http://partners.ecenglish.com/resources/session-break-policy>

Christmas Holidays 2021/2022

During this period schools will be closed for 1 week in Australia and 2 weeks in New Zealand (see the individual school price list). Students will not be charged for these days.

17. RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES

In the event of a dispute between an individual student and EC, procedures are in place to facilitate the resolution of the dispute. Any complaint should first be made to the student's EC Centre Director. Each complaint will be fully investigated provided that it is received within a month of the course ending and all fees have been paid.

If the matter is not resolved, the student should communicate in writing to EC Admissions* anzebookings@ecenglish.com who will refer the matter to the Managing Director. In Australia, students who are not satisfied with an internal appeal outcome may lodge an external appeal or complain about a decision made by EC through the Overseas Students Ombudsman. The Overseas Students Ombudsman offers a free and independent service for overseas students who have a complaint or want to lodge an external appeal about a decision made by their private education or training provider. See the Overseas Students Ombudsman website <https://www.ombudsman.gov.au/making-a-complaint/overseas-students> or phone 1300 362 072 for more information.

In New Zealand If a student remains dissatisfied with the outcome of the internal procedures regarding contractual and/or financial issues, they may contact iStudent Complaints. More information can be found at www.istudent.org.nz. If a student remains dissatisfied with the outcome of the internal procedures regarding non compliance with the code of practice, other than contractual and financial issues they may contact NZQA. More information can be found at <https://www.nzqa.govt.nz/about-us/make-a-complaint/make-a-complaint-about-a-provider/>

18. LIABILITY

EC and its staff and representatives will not be liable for loss, damage or injury to persons or property howsoever caused, except where liability is expressly imposed by law. EC reserves the right to expel or evict from accommodations and courses arranged by EC any student whose conduct is unsatisfactory at the discretion of the Centre Director. Unsatisfactory conduct includes but is not limited to; threatening behaviour, bullying, illegal activities, drug use, inappropriate alcohol use or repeated nonattendance of class. It can include conduct that occurs outside of the hours at which a student is attending their course.

EC has a zero-tolerance policy for discrimination, bullying and harassment in the workplace and the classroom. Discrimination, bullying and harassment is unacceptable, against the law and will not be tolerated.

In Australia, a student has the right to appeal against such a decision and details of that process are available from EC Australia. Students and their parents or guardians, where applicable, agree to pay the tuition fees and other charges applicable for the course on the due dates. It is understood and agreed that failure to do this may result in suspension from the programme and cancellation of the enrolment.

In New Zealand,

- The circumstances under which the student's conduct may result in disciplinary action being taken by EC NZ are the student:
 - failing to maintain 90% attendance,
 - failing to behave in a respectful manner toward school staff and fellow students,
 - behaving in a manner that may constitute bullying behaviour or sexual harassment,
 - failing to respect school property, or the property of other students,
 - wilfully damaging property,
 - bringing alcohol or any illegal substance to EC NZ's campus,
 - breaching New Zealand law (whether during or outside the time when they are attending their course) in a way that impacts on EC NZ's operations or puts in doubt the health, safety or wellbeing of students and staff, by their actions or omissions endangering the health, safety or wellbeing of any other person or, acting in a way that causes students or staff or other persons within EC NZ to fear for their personal safety, e.g. violent or threatening behaviour.
- The procedures that EC NZ will follow when taking disciplinary action against the student are set out below. For more information, please refer to the EC NZ Complaints and Appeals Policy (see website).
 - Alleged breaches of the Student Code of Conduct (see website) will be reported to the Centre Director by teaching staff, student services staff, or other students. The Centre Director will determine whether or not the alleged breach, if it occurred, would be a serious or minor breach. If the Centre Director decides that, if it occurred, the breach would only be a minor breach, the Centre Director will meet with the student, determine whether or not the alleged breach occurred and decide on what action to take. That action could be:
 - requiring the student to attend counselling
 - requiring the student to attend monitoring session or series of monitoring sessions,
 - requiring the student to obtain additional academic support,
 - Serious Breaches of the Student Code of Conduct – if the Centre Director determines that if the alleged breach occurred it could justify suspension or expulsion of the student, the Centre Director will issue a notice of intention to suspend or cancel enrolment and send it to the student by registered mail to the address on the student's file and by email to the email address on the student's file.
 - A notice of intention to suspend or cancel enrolment will clearly identify that the student receiving the notice has 20 working days to elect to use the EC NZ internal complaints and appeals process. The 20 working days will begin from a date specified in the notice which will be determined allowing a reasonable time for delivery of the notice by registered letter.

- ii. If EC NZ does not receive notice from the student that they elect to use the internal appeals process by the 18th working day following the date specified in the notice, the Centre Director or their delegate will attempt to contact the student on the 19th working day in order to provide the student with a final opportunity to lodge an internal appeal. They will attempt to contact the student by telephone and email.
- iii. Subject to clause iv below, if an appeal against a notice of intention to suspend or cancel enrolment is lodged by the student within the 20 working day period, EC NZ will maintain the student's enrolment until the internal appeals process is complete.
- iv. EC NZ reserves the right to not provide learning opportunities throughout either:
 1. the 20 working days provided to a student to make an appeal,
 2. the appeals process,
- v. Notice of suspension or cancellation: – If there is no appeal against a notice of intention to suspend or cancel enrolment, or an appeal is lodged and the outcome supports EC NZ's intention to suspend or cancel the student's enrolment, or an appeal is lodged and then withdrawn, EC NZ will issue a notice of suspension or cancellation. If a student's enrolment is cancelled and they are expelled, the Centre Director will notify Immigration New Zealand.
- vi. If a notice of intention is not upheld on appeal the Centre Director may instead take one of the actions set out in clause 20(b)a.

if there is appropriate evidence to support a decision that extenuating circumstances relating to the student's welfare or the welfare of others apply. Extenuating circumstances may include, but are not limited to, the student being missing, having medical concerns, severe depression or psychological issues which lead EC NZ to fear for the student's wellbeing or the wellbeing of others, having engaged or threatened to engage in behaviour that is reasonably believed to endanger the student or others, or being at risk of committing a criminal offence. The Centre Director is responsible for making this determination.

21. PROMOTIONAL ACTIVITY

The student (and, where applicable, his or her parent or guardian):

EC may disclose appropriate personal data, including sensitive personal data of a medical nature, to relevant EC staff and third parties where there is a legitimate need or obligation to do so and where disclosing the information and the manner of disclosing the information complies with national privacy laws. We will not share sensitive information about students with any third party, including parents, legal guardians, caregivers, next of kin, or relevant government agencies without the student's consent unless there are reasonable grounds to believe the health, safety and/or welfare of the student and/or others is at risk, if any identified special needs are affecting the student's ability to participate, learn and achieve in an EC programme and/or where the law requires us to do so. In New Zealand, if EC becomes aware that a student has breached the terms of their visa, EC will report that breach to Immigration New Zealand.

23. FURTHER INFORMATION: AUSTRALIA
