- Gudauri is a ski resort located on the south-facing plateau of The Greater Caucasus Mountain Range in Georgia. The resort is situated in the Stepantsminda District, along the Georgian Military Highway near the Cross Pass, at an elevation of 2,200 meters above sea level with skiable area enjoying maximum exposure to the sun. Gudauri lies 120 km to the north of the capital Tbilisi and two hours' drive from the Tbilisi International Airport or even a short helicopter flight from the capital. The resort offers high quality skiing opportunities. The slopes of Gudauri are completely above the tree line and are best for free-riders and are generally considered to be avalanche-safe. The ski season lasts from December to April. Heli-skiing is also available throughout the season. afterwards we can have a lunch to restore the energy and then relax in Sauna, (Banya) is one of the oldest Russian traditions. Despite the fact that this tradition is several centuries old, the sauna is popular even today. You can find saunas in large cities and small towns. Usually those Russians who have summer cottages, almost always build their own sauna there.
- On the way to Gudauri, you will see beautiful Ananuri water reservoir, also we will have some stops for a photo shoots at the Cross Pass – its top height is 2379 meter.
