DESCRIPTION

If you're searching for the ideal storage solution for your workspace, the BUNKER modular tall floor cabinet is the perfect choice. Standing at 2000mm, this tall cabinet features two spacious doors that provide ample storage and easy access to your tools and equipment. Finished in a premium matt black textured coating, it resists wear, scratches, and corrosion, ensuring long-lasting durability.

Inside this tall floor cabinet, you'll find four adjustable shelves and soft-close drawers lined with foam to protect your tools when not in use. For added security, the cabinet is equipped with an integral lock and comes with two keys for peace of mind. Assembly is required, but all necessary fittings are included for easy setup.

Whether used as a standalone tall cabinet or as part of our modular storage system, this unit is designed to elevate your workspace. Stylish and practical, it's the all-in-one solution for organising your tools and equipment. Discover our range of online stockists to get started and transform your workspace today.
