DESCRIPTION

This versatile garden aid is a comfortable kneeler for use when tending to flowerbeds, which can be flipped over to create a handy seat while pruning bushes. The frame is made from lightweight, strong tubular iron for extra stability. The comfortable pad is double-sided providing thick foam for kneeling on and a firm plastic base for sitting on. When used as a kneeler, the legs of the bench act as handles to assist when getting up and down. The frame has spring-loaded legs that can be unlocked to fold flat for easier storage and transportation.
