DESCRIPTION

This jerry can is constructed from durable mild steel and features a powder-coated finish for corrosion resistance. It is ideal for storing and transporting fuel, petrol and diesel. Filled with aluminium foil mesh, it absorbs heat and reduces explosive risk, without impact on fuel content. The leak-proof, plastic cap ensures secure closure, while the integrated plastic spout fits neatly into the handle for convenient storage and easy access. The flat design offers maximum stability to help prevent spills. Manufactured to UN specifications, it is tested and certified in the UK.
