Description: Colad Disposable Face Shield

Product description

Disposable full face protection secured with elastic headband.

Ideal during procedures that could cause splashes, fluids and dust particles to come in contact with the face. The Colad Disposable Face shield provides lightweight protection and can be worn together with glasses if necessary. The breathable foam headband is elastic, making it comfortable to wear. It increases airflow and prevents the shield from fogging.

Features and benefits:

- Full face protection
- Can be worn together with glasses
- Elastic headband fits all
- Comfortable to wear
- Does not fog up
- For single use only

Sidenote: The Colad Disposable Face Shield is designed to offer protection but is not labelled as personal protective equipment and is thus not certified as such.
