This week's Deanery meeting will be reviewing the most recent advice for safe liturgical practice & appropriate changes will be made.

From today's Gospel:

Jesus took with him Peter, & James, & his brother John, & led them up a high mountain by where they could be alone. There in their presence he was transfigured. A bright cloud covered them in shadow, & from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my Son, the beloved, he enjoys my favour. Listen to him."

Reflection:

What the voice said at Jesus' baptism is repeated on the mountain, "But at the Transfiguration we also hear the command to "...listen to him."

During Lent we might resolve to be better listeners. To observe a kind of silence before we speak so as to listen better to those who speak to us. For as the poet Gerard Manley Hopkins writes:

"for Christ plays in ten thousand places, Lovely in limbs, and lovely in eyes not his"(1)

It's not too late to make a Lenten resolution, to be attentive listeners to Christ who speaks to us in "ten thousand places."

So we ask ourselves:

How can I practice a little more silence this Lent?
Where can I go to hear Christ speak to me?
What friend or relative always speaks the truth to me?
