From today's 1st reading:

Vanity of vanities, says the preacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity.

Reflection:

Ecclesiastes is a wake up call directing our attention away from the ephemeral towards what will last.

Here is a mantra we repeat as a daily reminder to avoid greed & practice a simpler life, "I have all that I want, I have all that I need." It's a statement that can stir thanksgiving in our hearts as we offer today's Eucharist.

So we ask ourselves:

Have I placed my trust in what is passing & will not sustain me in times of difficulty?

What reordering must I do in my priorities to put more balance in my life?
