

What a Character!

Think really carefully about the character in your book. How much information does the author give you? Maybe you could use some of their ideas in your stories? Write which page you found the information on.

Name of character:
Type of character (e.g. boy, girl, dog, rhinoceros):
What do they look like:
What do they do?
What kind of mood are they in?
Who are their friends?
Who are their enemies?
What do you like about them?
What don't you like about them?