Declarations

The work you have applied for is exempt from the Rehabilitations of Offenders Act 1974, which means that all convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings on your criminal record need to be disclosed. You are not entitled to withhold information about convictions, which for other purposes may be considered spent. Only relevant convictions and other information will be taken into account so disclosure need not necessarily be a bar to obtaining work with 1st Med Ltd. Please tick:

- a) Have you ever been convicted by the courts or cautioned, reprimanded or given a warning by the Police? (Including countries outside the UK)    Yes    No
- b) Are you aware of any Police enquiries undertaken following allegations made against you, which may have a bearing on your suitability for this post? (Including countries outside the UK)    Yes    No
- c) Have you ever had a Police check in another country? If so, please provide details below and enclose a copy if held.    Yes    No

If you have answered yes to any of the above, please give details below:
