Directions From Calais

There are obviously many meandering routes to take through France. However the quickest is to take the Motorway from Calais to Paris. (follow very obvious blue signs). Once you get to Paris after about 2.5 hours there are a number of alternative routes round Paris. However we take the Motorway to the Peripherique which is the main road that goes around Paris. To get to the Peripherique take the exit off the Calais/Paris motorway signed Peripherique Ouest. The Peripherique can be very slow at rush hour but otherwise is busy but moves. Take the Peripherique around to the South of Paris until you pick up signs for the A10 and Orly airport. Take the exit from the Peripherique signed Orly airport . Then follow the signs to Orleans and the A10 motorway. You are now on the Motorway (A10 and then A20) that goes all the way to Caussade via Orleans, Chateauroux, Limoges and Cahors. The Caussade junction is number 59. Then follow directions below.

In normal conditions it takes about 4 -5 hours from Paris without much stopping. If you need to overnight, Orleans is a pleasant city on the Loire and is about half way between Calais and Caussade. At the main Orleans exit there are a number of F1 type hotels just by the exit. Alternatively there are nicer places in the city itself.

Directions From Toulouse Airport (Blagnac)

The trip from Blagnac is very easy and takes about 55 mins.

Exit Toulouse airport follow sign to Toulouse. Immediately you will see blue motorway signs for Albi and Bordeaux exiting right. Follow them. Keep following signs to Bordeaux and Paris as they take you around the Toulouse Peripherique and onto the motorway. Through peage (pick up ticket). After about 25 mins (40k) the motorway splits. Take signs to Paris. Go through Peage (pay by credit card or cash). Stay on main road which is a dual carriageway around Montauban. The signs to Paris seem to run out for a few miles and you will see green signs to Cahors. Stick with it and you will pick up signs to Paris again. The road becomes a motorway again and pick up a ticket at Peage. After about 10 mins take the next exit junction 59 signed Decazeville, Rodez, Villefranche de Rouergue and Caussade. Go through Peage.

From Caussade motorway exit (exit 59)

After Peage go to roundabout . Take green exit sign to Cahors, Rodez, Villefranche De Rouergue, and Montpezat de Quercy (N20/E9). Picture of truck on sign. At next roundabout turn left on 3rd exit on the D22 direction Auty. Follow this road for 6k to Auty.

At Auty continue on D22 through village heading towards Molières. As you leave the village pass the sign indicating you have left Auty. After about 100m the entrance to the property is the next right hand turn. You will see a small blue sign saying Dumas.
