Aims for today

- Increased knowledge about trafficking and modern slavery
- Understanding the role of a social worker
- Knowing how to recognise the signs of slavery
- Knowing what support is available to a victim
- Knowing how to refer a victim to access support
- Understanding your legal responsibilities
Working towards a world without slavery;

Supporting survivors and potential victims of slavery; by providing access to a range of specialist services, enabling them to safely recover and develop resilient independent lives

Equipping stakeholders; by providing training, advice and resources to facilitate the identification and support of potential victims of slavery

Influencing systemic changes; by using our experience and research to impact and inspire transformation across legislation, policy and society.
What is Human Trafficking and Modern Slavery?
 Trafficking is the movement of people by means such as force, fraud, coercion or deception with the aim of exploiting them.

It is modern day SLAVERY

Someone is in slavery if they are:

- forced to work - through mental or physical threat
- owned or controlled by an 'employer', usually through mental or physical abuse or the threat of abuse
- dehumanised, treated as a commodity or bought and sold as 'property'
- physically constrained or has restrictions placed on his/her freedom
Forced Labour

‘all work or service which is exacted from any person under the menace of any penalty and for which the said person has not offered himself voluntarily’

Identifying Potential Victims (PVoT)

The following people may be particularly vulnerable to the risks of modern slavery:

• unaccompanied, internally displaced children
• children accompanied by an adult who is not their relative or legal guardian
  • young girls and women
• former victims of modern slavery or trafficking
Victim Identification

- Physical Appearance
- Isolation
- Poor living conditions
- Few or no personal effects
- Restricted freedom of movement
- Unusual travel times
- Reluctance to seek help
Questions you could ask (Indicators)

• Do they have access to their passport or travel documents
• How did they get to the UK?
• Are they scared of anyone/for anyone?
• Did they choose the work they are doing?
• Do they seem worried about their immigration status in the UK?
• Did they get to choose where they lived?
• Can they leave if they want to?
Identifying Potential Victims (PVoT)

The following indicators are particularly relevant to those victims of modern slavery or trafficking withholding:

- passports
- payments
- information about rights as workers in the UK
- information about a person’s rights as visitors in the UK
The National Referral Mechanism (NRM)

- Framework used to identify victims and collate data
- Used to provide appropriate support and protection
- Grants a minimum 45-day reflection and recovery period during the process – with access to counselling, housing, finance, legal advice
- Any one can identify a potential victim but referrals into this mechanism must be made by designated police, local authority or health staff
Services PVoT can access

The Adult Care Contract (part of the NRM)

Through the NRM, if they want to leave their situation, PVoT will be able to access:

- Temporary safe accommodation
- Support worker (in accommodation or as outreach)
- Medical treatment
- Help to cope with experience
- Interpreters
- Assistant finding independent legal advice

Referral to the NRM

- Explain the process and what is on offer
  - Victim consent
- Complete NRM form with PVoT
- Ensure you detail circumstances and identify indicators of trafficking/slavery you have seen/been told about
- Follow appropriate safeguarding procedures (mental health issues/learning difficulties/capacity issues)
- Seek advice to ensure any action taken complies with statutory guidance and legislation in respect of safeguarding vulnerable adults.
Barriers victims may face

- Trauma Bonds
- Language barriers
- Cultural barriers
- Religious barriers
- Voodoo and Spiritual practices
- Threats to self
- Threats to family
- Debt bondage
- Family implicit in their exploitation
- Learning difficulties
- System not offering them assistance
- Time
- Trust
- Shame and guilt
- Immigration status
Legal Responsibilities
CARE ACT 2014

Adults at Risk (Vulnerable Adults)

(14.2) The safeguarding duties apply to an adult who:

• Has needs for care and support and;

• Is experiencing, or at risk of, abuse or neglect; and;

• As a result of those care and support needs is unable to protect themselves from either the risk of, or the experience of abuse or neglect.

Duty of Enquiry (Section 42)
Legal Responsibilities

Duty to Notify

(Modern Slavery Act 2015)

Certain frontline staff who encounter a potential victim of modern slavery are required to notify the Home Office under Section 52 of the Modern Slavery Act if an adult does not consent to referral into the NRM

Referral to services

Step 1: identify a potential victim of modern slavery
Step 2: arrange emergency medical treatment
Step 3: refer a potential victim of modern slavery to NRM
Step 4: Potential victims of human trafficking, forced or compulsory labour or slavery will have access to support in the UK.

If consent is not given – complete a Duty to Notify Form
The role of Social care

What you should do

If you suspect an adult is a potential victim of trafficking:

• Assess vulnerability and risk (pre and post NRM)
• Address any immediate needs (health)
• Explain what is available to them through the NRM
• Unpick what is concerning you
• Help them to access support based on need/immediacy and threat (via submission of the NRM or referral to other agencies if post NRM)
• Refer into NRM
• Complete a Duty to Notify form (if no consent for NRM)
• Complete a Duty of Enquiry form
• Refer to police if immediate threat or as result of NRM submission
The role of Social care
What you should do

If you suspect a child is a potential victim of trafficking

• Safeguarding is a priority
• Consent is not required for NRM referral
• If you suspect victim is under 18 – treat as a child
• Ensure you pass information on to local authority children’s services and follow normal process
• Follow normal internal processes for reporting concerns
• Get advice from other agencies – CTAC 0808 800 5000
