The screenshot shows a user interface for 'The Abyss (ABYSS)' on July 19, 2018. It features a title 'Pre-Alpha of The Abyss', a description 'Pre-alpha version of The Abyss digital distribution platform.', and two buttons: 'Proof' and 'Source'. Below these buttons is a progress bar showing 95% confidence and 140 votes. At the bottom, there are 'Real' and 'Fake' buttons, and a note stating 'Added 30 June 2018' with a link to 'Are you a representative? Click here'.

New event

The screenshot shows the 'Event Create' form in the CoinMarketCal Admin interface. The form includes the following fields and options:

- Create (button)
- Event (header)
- Category * (text input)
- Title * (text input, 25 characters max)
- Description (text area, 140 characters max)
- Source (text input)
- Date Event * (date picker with calendar icon)
- Or earlier (if it can occur before the date stated)
- Proof File (file upload area with 'Parcourir...' button, 'Aucun fichier sélectionné.', and 'max 2MB, type: .png .jpeg .jpg')
- Create and add another (green button)

- Your events are reviewed in priority
- Please make sure your upcoming events have great titles, descriptions and proofs/sources (with dates clearly visible)

The 5 main reasons why events are not validated:

- Past event
- No date in the proof/source
- Weak proof/source
- Duplicate
- ICO
