

Dutch Words

Typical Dutch words
for students

Study association ConceptT

Introduction

There are many Dutch words used by students or within ConceptT. Because these words will appear a lot and the Translation is not always clear, these words will be declared. In this list, we will give you the direct translation and an explanation.

Concept Words

Dutch word	Translation	Declaration
ConcepT-kamer	ConcepT-room	The room of our study association in the basement of the Horst.
Beneden Peil	-	The name of our drinking basement, also in the Horst.
Borrelkelder	Pub (in the basement)	A kind of pub, located in the basement of the Horst. There are two of them: Beneden Peil (for Civil Engineering & Medical studies) and Diep Zat (for Mechanical Engineering & Industrial Design).
BuLa	Trip Abroad	Our BuLa, from the Dutch word 'BuitenLandreis' is an annual trip abroad to a city somewhere in Europe.
BetonBrouwers	-	Our committee which builds our concrete canoes and joins the concrete canoe race every year.
Sjaarcie	First Year Committee	It's a committee with first year bachelor students. Sjaarcie is the Dutch abbreviation of Eerstejaarscommissie.
Kadaver	Cadaver	We use this word for people who are sitting on the couch a lot. It's a kind of positive nickname for them. Nevertheless it's not nice to say it to other people.
Snoepscherm	Candy Shop	Here you can buy some candies. You can find it in the ConceptT room

Students' words

Dutch word	Translation	Declaration
Ontgroening	-	Introduction period of a student association or a dispute.
Feut	Freshman	A first year student or a student who is the youngest one in a group.
Borrel	Drink	A drink in a pub with some beers or other drinks. People just hang around and talk to each other.
Dies	Dies	It's the annual anniversary of an association or dispute.
Lustrum	Lustrum	It's the five annually anniversary of an association of dispute.
Sjaars	First Years' Student	It's a kind of silly name for a first year bachelor student.

Studie Ontwijkend Gedrag (SOG)	Procrastination	If you have to study for an exam and you will do other things like cleaning up, searching the internet, playing games, etc. On our website we have a page with places where you can 'SOG'.
Gezelligheid	-	This typical Dutch word, that's not only used by students, means that some event or meeting were very pleasant.