Elizabeth’s Ghost
the afterlife of the Queen in Stuart England

Carole Levin
University of Nebraska
Fulbright Scholar, University of York, 2015
PER TAL. VARIAI. SON QVIX.

MOR. ANIE.

ELIZABETH A. REINA DE INGLATERRA.

PER TAL. VARIAI. SON QVIX.

MOR. ANIE.

ELIZABETH A. REINA DE INGLATERRA.
• I may have the body of a weak and feeble woman, but I have the heart and stomach of a king, and of a king of England too.
The Queen with a masculine spirit came and took a view of her Army
THE LIGHT OF BRITAYNE.

A Recorde of the honorable Originall & Antiquitie of Britaine.

AT LONDON
Printed: Anno. Domini:
1588.
To the most high and mightie Princesse, Elizabeth by the grace of God, Queen of England, Fraunce and Ireland: defender of the true, auncient, Catholique, and Apostolique faith, &c.
JACOBUS STUARTUS I.
Magna Britannia Monarcha.
Alexander Craig

• “Cease loving Subjects, cease my death for to deplore.”
Strange Apparitions,
OR
The Ghost of King James,

With a late conference between the ghost of that good King, the Marquessa Hamiltons, and George Eglisham, Doctor of Physick, unto which appeared the Ghost of the late Duke of Buckingham concerning the death and poisoning of King James and the rest.

London printed for J. Aston, 1642.
If you know not me,
You know no body.
OR,
The troubles of Queene ELIZABETH.
• If I miscarry in this enterprise,
• and aske you why,
• A Virgine and a Martyr both I dy.
The Whore of Babylon
He stole, and here imagine still he stands,
Thrusting his silver lock into your hands.
There hold it but two hours: it shall from graves
• Raise up the dead. . . .
THE SECOND PART OF Vox Populi.

Of Gomorom appearing in the likenes of Matchansell in a Spaniah Parliament.

Translated out of the Spanish Coypie by a well willing to Engeland and Holland.

Gentis Hispaniae decus

Painted at Gericum by Albeius Lamb.
Vox Coeli,

OR

NEWES FROM HEAVEN.

Of a Consultation there held by the high and mighty Princes, King Hen. 8. King Edw. 6. Prince Henry, Queene Mary, Queene Elizabeth, and Queene Anne, wherein Spaines ambition and trecheries to most Kingdoms and free Estates of Europe, are unmaske[d] and truly represented, but more particularly towards England, and now more especially under the pretended match of Prince Charles, with the Infanta Dona Maria.

Wherunto is annexed two Letters written by Queene Mary from Heauen, the one to Count Gondomar, the Ambassadour of Spaine, the other to all the Roman Catholiques of England.

Written by S. R. N. J.

Printed in Elisium. 1624.
He even went so far as to say, that, in Scotland, long before the death of that princess, he had directed her whole council, and governed all her ministers, by whom he had been better served and obeyed than herself.
that immortall Mayden Queene . . . whose heart ever loved England, as her soule did Heaven Dextra Excelsi secit salutem.
Gunpowder plot
“O my ships, my ships”
A BRIEFE AND TRUE RELATION OF THE MVRTHR
of Mr. THOMAS SCOTT
Preacher of Gods Word and Butchelor of Diuinitie.

Committed by JOHN LAMBERT SOULDIER of the Garrison of VRICKE, the 18.
of June. 1626.

With his Examination, Confession, and Execution.

LONDON,
A True Narrative of the Horrid Hellish Popish-Plot.
The Solemn Mock Procession of the POPE, Cardinalls, Jesuits, Fryers, etc., through the City of London, November 9, 1679.

The Explanation

Solemn Mock Procession of the Pope, Cardinalls, Jesuits, Fryers, etc., through the City of London, November 9, 1679.

1. Papal Bell rung, with the Pope and Bishop Dymond, the Arch-Bishops, and their Cardinals, in the following Order:

- I. Placed the Hanger on the Pope, with the Bishop and Arch-Bishop in the front, and the rest following.
- II. Placed the Hanger on the Bishop, with the Arch-Bishop and the rest following.
- III. Placed the Hanger on the Arch-Bishop, with the rest following.
- IV. Placed the Hanger on the rest, with the Pope and Bishop Dymond in the front, and the rest following.

2. The Proclamation was made, setting forth the reasonable grounds for the Mock Procession, and the necessity of Enforcing the Catholic Doctrine.

This having been the breathing spring of some time with Igniting Fire-works, and a volley returned, the Mock Procession was arrested, and the Pope and Bishop Dymond were placed in the front, with the Arch-Bishop and the rest following.

Upon the 17th of November, 1679, the Bells began to ring, and the Mock Procession proceeded northwards, through the City of London, to the Great Fire, placed before the Lord Mayor's House.
A PRAYER of Queen Elizabeth upon her steps from being taken by the Sea, to a Fire Borne through the proud Walls of her Chambers, during her imprisonment at Greenwich.

O gracious Lord, I humbly pray that this day may be for me a day of mercy, and that you will put an end to my misfortunes. For too long have I been in the midst of trials and tribulations. Grant me peace and tranquility, and may my soul be at rest. Amen.

And if more Friends cannot come the Whore,
Whose madness consumes the sacred seat;\nWhat makes God, who of God made man.
Then is he, by the spirit of the holy Ghost,\nIn all his holy and infinite powers full:
For he is all power and might.
Drink, then, the Whore of Babylon, and see
That her wealth is such a sign of God.

And the Species of the real Presence of Christ, with some Prayers and Thanksgivings composed by her Imminent Danger.

During the Reign of Q. Mary, the Lady Elizabeth being a Prisoner in Woodstock, a Poetical Psalm came to her mind, and she composed the following Ode, and sent it to her Sister, the Queen, as a token of her complaint. It is inserted here in a slightly altered form, and as an appendix to the book.

And if more Friends cannot come the Whore,
Whose madness consumes the sacred seat.

The Species of the real Presence of Christ, with some Prayers and Thanksgivings composed by her Imminent Danger.

During the Reign of Q. Mary, the Lady Elizabeth being a Prisoner in Woodstock, a Poetical Psalm came to her mind, and she composed the following Ode, and sent it to her Sister, the Queen, as a token of her complaint. It is inserted here in a slightly altered form, and as an appendix to the book.
THE HISTORY OF THE
Most Renowned and Victorious
PRINCESS ELIZABETH,
Late QUEEN of ENGLAND;
CONTAINING
All the most Important and Remarkable Passages of STATE, both at Home and Abroad (so far as they were linked with English Affairs) during her Long and Prosperous REIGN.

Written by WILLIAM CAMDEN,
Clarenceux King at Arms.

The Fourth Edition,
Revised and compared with the Original, whereby many gross Faults are amended, several Passages before omitted are added in their due places, and the English Phrase much altered, more conformable to the Mind of the Author.
With a new Alphabetical INDEX of all the Principal things contained in the HISTORY.

LONDON,
Printed by M. Fiegner, for R. Bentley at the Post-Office in Covent-Garden. 1688.
• “I know what is due to me, and expect to have it from you.”

• “I am the Queen and I will be obeyed”
“the Princess discoursing her sufferings often made a parallel between her self and Queen Elizabeth.”
• As threatening Spain did to Eliza bow
• So France and Spain shall do to Anna now
“the Blest ELIZABETH”
Elizabeth in her last Hours.