Cork Weekend call

Mark your diaries for May 8 - 10, get your glad rags out, and make your way to Cork: it'll soon be time for the Women's Fun Weekend! For the past number of years, an ever-changing group of dedicated women have put together a programme of events that brings dykes from around the country and across the water. This year's programme is well under way – see April's GCN for details – but there's something, r someone, they still need. If you think you're the funniest thing since Rhona Cameron, (or depending on tase, much funnier), the organising committee would like to hear from you. They're looking for a comedienne/comediennes for the weekend's opening extravaganza. If you think you fit the bill, call (021) 314354 and let them know you're out there.
