CORK AIDS ALLIANCE LTD.

16A PETER STREET, CORK.

Cork aids alliance is a voluntary organisation,set up in 1987 with the following aims:

*To ensure that support is available for those effected by AIDS/HIV.

* To combat the spread of AIDS and to counteract misconceptions and prejudice regarding AIDS and HIV Infection.

*Take action to oppose discrimination against those affected particularly in the areas of housing ,education, employment,and medical treatment .

* To lobby the statutory sector for effective action to be taken in education ,prevention and health care programmes to fight AIDS

The Alliance is in constant need of volunteers and provides ongoing training courses in each area of its work. If you are interested in knowing more about this work then please contact us.

CORK AIDS ALLIANCE LTD.

16A PETER STREET, CORK

10th June 1992

On behalf of Cork Aids Alliance I would like to thank you for supporting this evenings fundraising event and hope you have a good time.

Most of us here tonight probably have a strong awareness of the basic issues surrounding AIDS/HIV, however information to date on the general situation does not make for comfortable reading. Overall response has more often been misinformed under resourced uncoordinated and too late. Emigration again,has provided us with the carpet under which we have swept with abandon.

The money raised tonight will be for the practical care and support of those effected. At present there is no hospice care available in any form in our area despite definite needs.

AIDS presents a challenge to us all,unfortunately the time is not far off when the reality of AIDS will be truly out of the shadow and will have direct affect on all our lives.

We would like to thank all those who sponsored this event, the numerous supporters, and particularly the core group. Fiona, Paul, Lorna, Decki, Joy and Keeling ($2\frac{1}{2}$) for staying out of the way (sometimes).

Best wishes,

Anita Whooley.

Irish Problem - Real Solution

CONDOM SENSE!

PROMOTING PLANNING AND PROTECTION

CONDOM SENSE! is a national group, whose members are working against the spread of HIV/AIDS, other sexually transmitted diseases and unwanted pregnances.

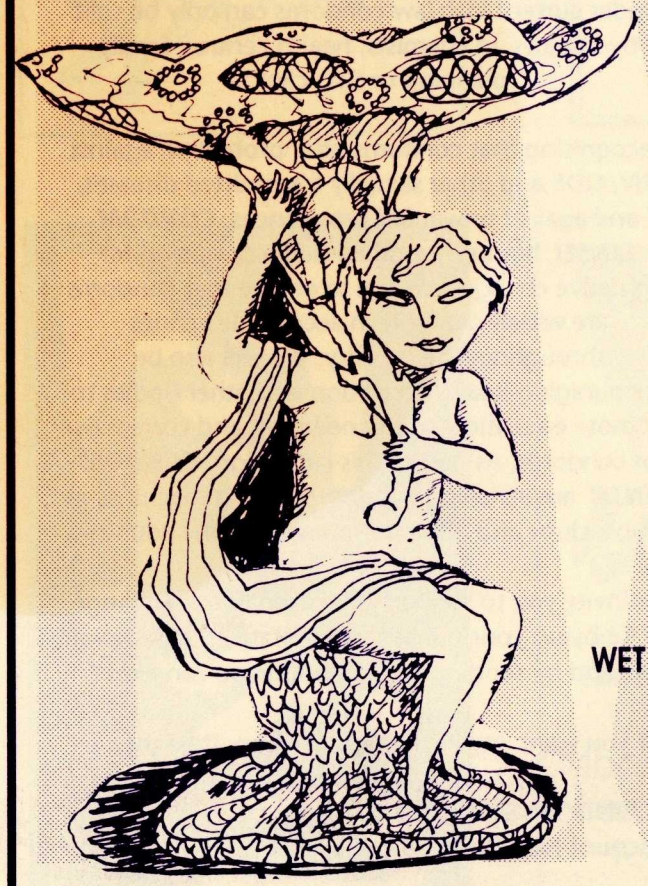

Under current Irish law condoms can only be sold by doctors, in chemists, health centres, family planning or STD clinics.

Recognising that condoms offer protection against HIV/AIDS and other sexually transmitted diseases, and against unwanted pregnances, CONDOM SENSE! has been established to campaign for legislative change. We aim to ensure that condoms are widely available in accessable venues throughout the country. We will also be encouraging health education and other bodies to promote education on the need for, and correct use of condoms. As part of this campaign, CONDOM SENSE! are installing condom vending machines in pubs, clubs and other outlets around the country.

We invite you to support this campaign for change, by lobbying your public representative, trade union etc,and by sending any donation you can afford.

If you want any further information then please contact us
