"Marriage may be contracted in accordance with law by two persons without distinction as to their sex"

- This referendum is about real people, your friends, your family, your children and your grandchildren.
- Marriage is a secure foundation for loving committed relationships.
- The constitutional status of marriage will remain unchanged.
- Marriage is protected under our constitution, civil partnership is not.
- All major children's charities including Barnardos, ISPCC, Foróige & Children's Rights Alliance are advocating a Yes vote.
- This referendum is only about the right to marry.
- This referendum will enhance the status of all children.
- This referendum will strengthen the institution of marriage.
