Cork Gay News

What's New??
An update of what's happening in the Cork Gay and Bi-sexual Community.

January 2002.

Panto Success!

The pantomime this year got off to a shaky start with Cinderella not being available on opening night. However this was a blessing in disguise as our own real Cinderella a/k/a David Roche (Arthur and Martin O'Sullivan being the mean sisters) stepped into the role with great gusto. With full houses nearly every show the new look café/theatre was a big hit and the audience were treated to a mix of bawd and abuse from a cast who obviously enjoyed every minute of the performance. Let us hope that the high standard of this show will be the benchmark for all future productions from Rainbow Theatre.
Don't forget that Rainbow are always looking for new members as well as new ideas for the coming year. Well done again to all those involved. Direction, David Gordon. Writer and narration, Tony Doherty. The cast, Bridie, Steve, Jonathon, Tony, Dave.

On Yer Bike!.

On Sunday next the 3rd Of February there will be a gay men's bicycle outing. As this is the first one this year I'm sure (at least hope) the pace will be gentle. The group are meeting at the Gingerbread House @ 12noon. I have been promised that for total beginners, or those of you who have had a Saturday night at The Other Place, someone will be more than understanding and look after you. For details speak to Arthur at the club.

Pride 2002.

Well a new year is upon us again and as the spring loom ever closer the planning of Pride is about to start. There has been a proposal that some events could be organised by all the gay venues in the city this year. With this in mind there will be an open meeting so that all those interested can put forward their ideas and maybe get involved in Pride 2002. Remember that pride belongs to you and not just the project so come along. The first meeting will be held at the Other place Café on Monday 25th February @ 7pm at the Other Place Café. If anyone can't come please feel free to ring the project with your suggestions in advance and they will be tabled for you.

The group have discussions about issues that affect their lives and arrange social events. The small core group that make up Unite are looking for anyone interested in joining the group to contact the project @ 021 4278470/1. It is hoped that this group would arrange film nights, outings and get involved in Pride 2002.
