Women's Fun Weekend

Dykes, girls, women, lesbians, are you ready? May 15th-17th - Cork Fun Weekend - the 9th one.
Time for around 200 women from all over Ireland and the rest of the world to meet together and celebrate, discuss, play, plan and sing.

This year will have a similar format to the previous ones but, as usual, with something a little different. Friday night there'll be a session in the Windsor Hotel in McCurtain Street from 8pm till closing and a chance to register for any of the weekend's events.

The pancake breakfast starts off Saturday around 11am. Then there's workshops (so far including set-dancing, drama, lesbian safer sex, astrology, tarot, lesbians and philosophy, plus...plus...) and various sports, soccer certainly and others depending; then an evening of cabaret and disco.

Sunday we'll be picnicing and playing on the Mardyke pitches till the pub quiz in 'Loafers' at 4.30 pm and a disco that evening in 'The Other Place'.

Further details of the weekend can be got from 3, Harrington Row, St. Luke's, Cork, or by phoning 021 503514/314354 or at the Windsor on the Friday night.

If you have a burning desire to provide a workshop on Saturday or if you want some microphone/stage space on Friday night now is the time to let us know.

We can provide accommodation but space is limited. If you can afford it there's lots of good hostels and B & B's. Otherwise try to arrive to get a place.

We provide a creche for Saturday (12-5pm) and for Friday and Saturday nights. Please let us know in advance so that we can make arrangements.

The costs of the weekend are kept to a minimum but we have to cover our expenses. The price for the full weekend is £6 Unwaged and £9 Waged.
All there's left to do is turn up, get involved and have a wild weekend.
See you there.
