5th Irish
Lesbian and Gay

film festival

In association with the 40th International Cork Film Festival

FÁS Foras Áiseanna Saothair

Welcome to the 5th Irish Lesbian & Gay Film Festival. This festival has always been about celebration and reflection of lesbian and gay lifestyles and, as a community, our experiences with each other and the rest of the world. The films which have been chosen for this year are highlighting the visibility and identity of lesbians and gay men and also acknowledging the wealth of talent that exists in our community.

Weekend organised by:

WHEN NIGHT IS FALLING Patricia Rozema

Cork Opera House Wednesday 4th 6pm £2.50 / £2

Faced with the choice of the man she has loved and the woman she wants, Camille, a Christian academic must make a decision; her vaguely unhappy life with Martin or something new. When the outrageous Petra ,of a struggling alternative circus enters her life, emerging emotions and the safety of her childhood sweetheart conflict to create an atmosphere where she realizes the only true duty of the soul is desire.

THE SUM OF US Kevin Dowling

Firkin Crane Centre Friday 6th 9pm £4 / £3.50

The pursuit of love for Jeff doesn't go smoothly. His over enthusiastic farther, Harry, has an unfortunate tendency to scare off potential boyfriends. When Harry falls suddenly ill Jeff abandons all hope of finding his true love. Or so he believes. Based on the successful Australian, this is a film about familiar relationships and meeting the dream lover. A film to bring your loved ones to.

THIN ICE Fiona Cunningham

Firkin Crane Centre Sat 7th 9pm £4 / £3.50

A lesbian love story on ice. When Steffi's skating partner for the New York Gay Games abandons her the ensuing relationship between Steffi and her new partner, Natalie evoles both professionally and sexually until such time as Steffis alterior motives become apparent. This all adds up to a Lesbian Feel Good movie, without the clichés.

ECLIPSE Kevin Dowling & Geoff Burton

Cork Opera House Sun 8th 6pm £2.50 / £2

As carnival atmosphere pervades Toronto prior to a total eclipse of the sun ten people come together in a shifting round of love and desire using their sexual liaisons to break the personal isolation each feels. This sophisticated feature captures, coolly and decidedly the frissions of lust, guilt and regrets as the carousel flesh turns.
