☆☆ BOOKS ☆☆

OUT FOR OURSELVES. By Dublin Lesbian and Gay Collectives.

THE PROBLEM in reviewing this book lies in the fact that it is diff-icult to sing it's praises effectiv effectively enough to impress the hard-headed Potential Punter, det-ermined to hang on to his or her £4.95 come hell or high water.

'Historic', one is tempted to say, "A landmark in publishing'. "A must', Essential reading' and 'Magnificent' all spring to mind as the reviewer makes strenous efforts of unreserved recommendation.

But will all this adjectival effort be in vain? "Hmmm", we here at Quar-Times Towers can almost hear the cynical PP say, "another mag-nificent historic landmark,eh?" before proceeding to blow their £4.9 £4.95 intoxicating liqours, chocolat chocolate biscuits or the like.

The fact is that Out For Ourselves really is essential reading., not least for the clarity and anger which the many and varied con-tributors express themselves. This is one book that really can't be recommended to highly. Hurry while stocks last.

OUT FOR OURSELVES is published by the Women's Community Press, and is available from: Quay Co-op bookshop, 24 Sullivan's Quay, Cork. Add 80p if ordering by post.

QUARE TIMES is back! You may not have known it was ever here in the first place, but three issues bearing this illustrious title were produced a couple of years back in Dublin and Cork. We've decided to gloss over this fact, and so welcome to Issue Number One of the new series.

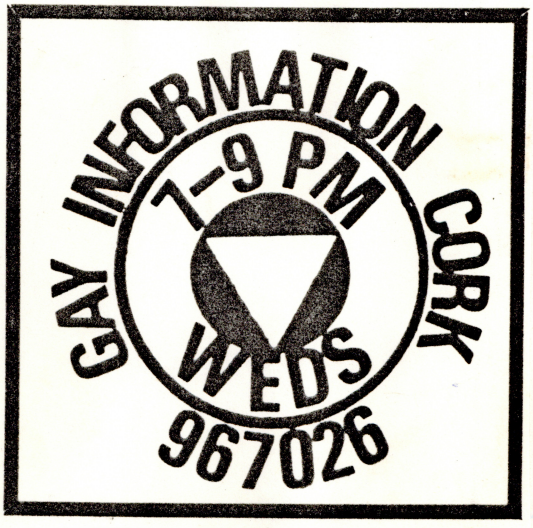

The paper will be produced monthly by the Cork Gay Collective, and articles, letters, suggestions, complaints, cartoons and ads all all very welcome.

This issue will be distributed mainly through the Quay Co-op bookshop, but we urgently need more outlets. If you can distribute any, call into the Co-op and pick some up.

More paid display advertising will enable us to increase our print-run and expand the number of pages. Potential advertisers should ring 967660 weekday afternoons (except Weds) between 2-6pm.

OCTOBER EVENTS. All meetings take place at the Quay Co-op at 7pm.

OCT 8. SOCIAL. Cheese,wine,snacks. Video: 'My Beautiful Laundrette' Cover charge £1/50p unwaged.
OCT 15. 'What's Happening?'. Discuss Discussion on future events,outings.
OCT 22. 'Safe Sex'. Video and discussion
OCT 28. 'Moving Out'. Discussion on emigration, leaving for the City,etc

2017.21.2.1329