NEW DIRECTIONS? Cairde Corcai Review Day

Sat. 15th April, 2 - 5 pm, 34 Princes St. [2nd floor, upstairs through double doors just after Ristorante Rossini]

- At the end of Year 1, we are holding an open forum session to discuss progress to date, and to make decisions about future action. Part of this will involve the election of a new committee.
- If you want to contribute to the kind of lesbian community centre you would use in Cork, come along and participate! The centre will only be as good as the group of people involved in it, and using it regularly.
- The Review Day is open to everyone in the Cork Lesbian community, and the agenda for discussion will be fixed by the group who attend on the day. Groups will be facilitated by Ronnie Dorney and Siobhan O'Dowd.

REVIEW DAY POSTPONED TO SAT. 6TH MAY

- Due to delays in our move to the new premises, we have decided to postpone the Review Day organised for this Saturday. Instead, it will be held on Sat. 6th May at 34 Princes St. (2nd Floor, through green doors beside Ristorante Rossini).
- As planned, we intend to hold an open forum session to discuss decisions about the future of the group and the centre. Part of this will involve the election of a new committee.
- The Review Day is open to everyone in the Cork Lesbian community, and the agenda for discussion will be fixed by the group who attend on the day. We apologise for this change in arrangements and hope to see you there on the 6th.
