Yes, it's rapidly approaching the time for friends, fun and fancy to come together. The 10th Cork Women's Fun Weekend promises to be host to all that and more. The traditional format for the weekend will be retained, bursting at the seams, of course, for the occasion of the big 10.

A change of venue from the Windsor to Moore's Hotel on Friday night is hoped to make for a more comfortable evening. A night of craic agus carnival is in store, not to mention the arrival of 200- plus lesbians- who could ask for more?

As for the rest, the Fun Weekend Collective are brain-storming at an incredible rate, so between now and then a full and fun weekend can be assured.

More detailed information will be available in print as of April, but for any specific inquiries prior to that time contact The Cork Women's Fun Weekend Collective, 3 Harrington Row, St. Lukes, Cork. Tel (021) 314354 or 503514.

Dykes just want to have fun!
