The GIGA German Institute of Global and Area Studies / Leibniz-Institut für Globale und Regionale Studien is an independent social-science research institute based in Hamburg. It analyses political, social and economic developments in Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Middle East and combines this analysis with innovative comparative research on international relations, development and globalisation, violence and security, and political systems. The GIGA seeks to appoint a

Research Fellow

Applications are invited for a 50% position, with a contract of 24 months, starting 1 December 2015. The salary is commensurate with TV-AVH / TVöD EG 13.

The successful candidate will
- work in the research project “The Syrian War in Jordan”, funded by the German Peace Foundation (DSF)
- analyse local transformation in the neighbourhood of wars
- undertake substantial field research in the cities of Irbid, Mafraq and Ramtha

Your qualifications:
- MA (or equivalent degree) in Anthropology, Middle Eastern Studies, Political Science or Sociology
- experience with qualitative research in conflict contexts
- broad expertise on states and societies in the Middle East
- at least good command of Arabic

The GIGA encourages concurrent work on a doctoral degree.

The reconciliation of work and family life is of great importance to the institute. The GIGA promotes gender equality and actively encourages applications from women. Among equally qualified applicants, women will receive preferential consideration in those areas in which they are underrepresented.

Please fill out the GIGA application form (found at www.giga-hamburg.de/en/vacancies) and send it with your full application (Ref.-No. GIGA-15-07) including relevant supporting documentation (cover letter, CV incl. two references, credentials/diplomas/certificates, one work sample) to:
