

Women in Industrial Research and Engineering

Draft programme

Location: University of Óbuda, Budapest, Bécsi út 96/b, Hungary

Room F09

Date: April 25, 2012

8:30-9:00	Registration
Session chair: László Nádai, Vice Rector of University of Óbuda
9:00-9:20 (20')	Opening remarks	Krisztina Szentkirályi-Szász , Deputy State Secretary, Ministry of Public Administration and Justice Imre Rudas , Rector University of Óbuda
9:20-9:45 (25')	European initiatives to support women in industrial research and engineering (WIR and WIST Expert groups, GENDERA project)	Pierre Bizmuth , Schlumberger Consulting Dóra Groó , Hungarian Science and Technology Foundation
9:45-10:00 (15')	Gender diversity in industrial research institutions	Dagmar Caganova, Jana Sujanova , Slovak University of Technology
10:00-11:20 (80')	Gender and diversity policy of companies	Zoltán Vámos , GE Lighting Ildikó Herenyik , GE Healthcare Dea Csuba , Kürt Kft. Bernadette Bohács , Ericsson Orsolya Tóth , Robert Bosch Kft. Márta Berzsenyi , Microsoft
11:20-11:40	Coffee break
Session chair: Zsuzsa Szentgyörgyi
11:40-12:20 (40')	The Value of Gender in Research - The Project "Gendered Innovations" Excellence in research and innovation through gender equality and diversity	Katharina Hochfeld , Fraunhofer-Gesellschaft, Germany Paula Wennberg Lulea University of Technology, Sweden
12:20-12:30	Discussion
12:30-12:40 (10')	Gender aspects in the EUREKA programme	Sándor Erdő , Hungarian EUREKA Chair, Ministry of National Economics
12:40-13:00 (20')	Women in industrial research in Hungary – results of the pilot study by the Association of Hungarian Women in Science	Mária Schadt , University of Pécs
13:00-13:20 (20')	"Girls Day" and other tools to increase awareness for choosing science, engineering and technology (SET) careers	Erzsébet Takács Krolify Institute Lilla Vicsek Corvinus University of Budapest
13:20-13:30 (10')	Opening of the first Hungarian "Girls Day"	László Kollár , Vice President, Section of Engineering Sciences, Hungarian Academy of Sciences
13:30-14:30	Buffet lunch

Sponsored by:

BOSCH PORSCHE
HUNGARIA

GE Healthcare
imagination at work

GE
Lighting

NETWORKED SOCIETY
A connected world is just the beginning. Click to explore.