RUSSIA DUAL RETURN FUND

LONG ONLY USD DENOMINATED RUSSIA & CIS EQUITIES

December 2012

Fund Description

Russia Dual Return Ltd is an investment fund registered in the British Virgin Islands. It is a Professional Fund as defined by the Securities and Investment Business Act, 2010 (SIBA).

The investment objective is to achieve capital appreciation in US dollar terms by investing primarily in US dollar-denominated equities of Russian companies (both locally traded and in the form of depositary receipts) and to a lesser extent in companies of CIS countries. The Fund aims to outperform the benchmark index (the RTS Index) in the long term.

The Fund uses a “long only” actively managed strategy, deriving returns from growth and value investing as well as arbitrage and short-term speculative strategies.

Manager Commentary

Markets touched bottom in mid-November began to recover by December. Growth of prices for Russian equities accelerated through December despite concerns over the US fiscal cliff, and positive momentum continued in January after key US budget decisions were postponed till the spring. We held a relatively small cash position in December and early January, anticipating constructive decisions in the US. We expect the Russian market to go further north in January, until investors refocus on the fiscal cliff in February-March. The manager expects privatizations to continue in Russia in 2013, a relatively strong ruble, financial infrastructure developments and overall improvement of sentiment for global equities.

In December we sold Novatek shares, halved our position in Sberbank (as the fiscal cliff loomed), and speculated with shares of Globaltrans.
