

PRICE BANDS

We work with comedians who deliver a high standard of quality. Depending on their profile and experience we categorise our acts as Bronze, Silver, Gold, Platinum and Diamond. Whichever you choose you will get the absolute best value for your budget.

We only provide the best experiences for our audiences!

Band:	Price:
Bronze Newer, emerging comedians , who regularly perform at open mic events and support slots for other more established comedians.	£250 - £1,500
Silver Established comedians where comedy is their full-time profession, and they headline comedy events nationally. They may not yet be a household name, but they are hugely talented and potential stars of the future, and many already have radio and TV credits.	£1,500 - £2,500
Gold Acts with significant experience who are in high demand. Skilled at delivering their shows to varied audiences, they have headlined their own tours on a national level and will often have performed internationally. They have significant broadcast credits and will deliver a great show whatever the event.	£2,500 - £5,000
Platinum Highly seasoned performers. For larger and more established events, Platinum level acts are just the ticket. they are well known and recognised nationally. With diverse media experience and the ability to repeatedly sell out large venues, they have a widespread appeal and are a top draw to your event.	£5,000 - £10,000
Diamond Mainstream presence and profile! With regular exposure on streaming services, national TV, or movies - they have the ultimate WOW factor! Diamond acts are the cream of entertainment talent, bringing their brilliant comic minds and performances to make your event one your audience will talk about!	£10,000