Figure S3. Cumulative incidence of ipsilateral breast tumor recurrence (IBTR) in the Sjöström and Servant cohorts depending on Immunescore and Proliferative Index

The tumor-intrinsic model, Proliferative Index, could predict the prognostic effect from the immunological model, Immunescore. With high Proliferative Index values, Immunescore was strongly prognostic. However, with low Proliferative Index values, trends toward the opposite were observed.