

Women's Head Coach

An exciting opportunity exists to appoint a new women's Head Coach at Newbury RFC.

Established since 1998, women's rugby at Newbury is integral to the club. The women's section has a fantastic history of success and an ethos of development; getting girls and women into this amazing game.

Our 1st XV play in Championship South West 2, narrowly missing promotion this year. There is also a social side which play development games for old and new players! Combined, we boast a playing membership of over 40 players and a growing Girl's section, catering for U13, U15, U18. We train every Tuesday and Thursday with games on Sundays.

This is a great opportunity for the right person, not only to build upon our successes of the 1st XV but to develop the whole section into a cohesive sustainable group. You will be responsible for co-ordinating and delivering pre/in-season training sessions, squad selection, pre-match preparation and managing a team of assistant coaches and a manager.

Ideally successful candidates will have:

- a Level 2 coaching qualification (min)
- Experience as a head coach or leading a coaching team
- Experience of coaching women's rugby
- Experience transitioning youth players into a senior squad
- Enthusiasm to support the team's development and progression

Newbury is a community club with an ethos of getting women and girls playing our sport. We have ambition, a great sense of fun and committed players.

If you think you can deliver what we want, then we would like to hear from you. In return we offer a remuneration of £2,000 per annum (01 July 2019 – 30 April 2020).
