Club kit

Club kit is supplied by Macron, with information about kit available on our website.

Codes of Conduct

All members are respectfully asked to read and adhere to the relevant Codes of Conduct. As a club we adhere to the World Rugby Code of Conduct and we expect all members to be familiar with the content and abide by the rules set by World Rugby.

Club Code of Conduct

In line with World Rugby and Scottish Rugby policy, we at Madras Rugby should strive to:

- Ensure the game is played in such a way to maintain the principles of sporting
- behaviour, and upholding the laws of the game
- Accept and respect the decisions of match officials and disciplinary bodies, and
- support their work
- Accept and respect handling and management of disciplinary matters by relevant
- governing bodies
- Act with integrity and good character in all aspects of rugby-related matters,
- irrespective of event or location, representing Madras Rugby in the best possible
- manner
- Shall not breach doping, betting, or corruption regulations
- Demonstrate and promote the best possible behaviours and values, and as such
- presenting the best version of themselves in all circumstances
- Be inclusive and demonstrate a growth mindset, acting to support all individuals and
- provide a duty of care
- Abide by all rules, regulations, and codes of conduct and policy, including child

- protection and care for vulnerable individuals, concussion protocols, and payment
- policy

Coaches' Code of Conduct

Coaches are an integral part of the rugby club, providing invaluable learning and social experiences for our players. Each coach should:

- Foster an appropriate environment – safe and fun
- Be respectful in their behaviours – no discrimination
- Promote welfare and empower the athlete – be aware of individual needs
- Be fair and honest – uphold spirit of the game and the standards of the club – display exceptional personal qualities
- Be organised
- Motivate
- Support match officials – the game doesn't happen without them
- Demonstrate a growth mindset
- Be reflective in your work – put the athlete first
- Have an awareness of child protection policies

Players' Code of Conduct (including "Affiliate" playing members)

Each player should feel proud to represent Madras Rugby, we are wanting each individual wearing the shirt to:

- Be positive
- Be committed
- Relish challenges
- Display excellent personal qualities – appearance, timekeeping, behaviour
- Be proud of who you play for
- Be the best you can be
- Uphold the standards of the club

Parents' Code of Conduct

Parents are the glue holding the club together, sacrificing significant amounts of their time to help with the operations at the club. As such, we would like our parents to:

- Promote enjoyment
- Promote engagement
- Be positive
- Be encouraging
- Be respectful
- Let them play
- Let them learn
- Be welcoming and friendly – make Madras a community to be proud of
- Be a parent - support and enjoy the rugby
- Be a volunteer – where possible get involved and help give back to our great club

Code of Conduct for Volunteers

The essence of good conduct and practice is summarised below. All volunteers must:

- Complete a Disclosure Form and return it to the Club Child Protection Officer
- Consider the wellbeing and safety of participants before the development of performance.
- Develop an appropriate working relationship with performers, based on mutual trust and respect.
- Make sure all activities are appropriate to the age, ability and experience of those taking part.
- Promote the positive aspects of the sport (e.g. fair play)
- Display consistently high standards of behaviour and appearance
- Follow all guidelines laid down by Scottish Rugby and Madras Rugby Club
- Never condone rule violations, foul play or the use of prohibitive substances
- Encourage performers to value their performances and not just results
- Treat all participants with respect including players, referees and spectators
