As always we offer a warm welcome to our match officials today. It's possible you won't agree with every decision they make during the course of the game, but please remember this is Rugby Union, not Association Football – if you're the type who enjoys berating or even abusing officials, I would respectfully suggest this is not the place for you.

Please respect the match officials.

President's Welcome...

It is a pleasure to welcome Michael Procter, Otleigh RUFC's President, as well as other officials of the club, the players and spectators to Hare Lane today. Last Saturday both our sides suffered defeats and with only three points separating us in mid table I'm sure today's game will be a very competitive one, with both sides looking to secure maximum points.

Earlier in the season Otleigh secured a narrow win at Cross Green by just a single point. With the VPs adding their vocal support, let's hope for a home win today. Congratulations to Chester skipper Colin Campbell who played his 100th game at Hull. Since joining us from Birkenhead Park Colin has been an ever present fixture in our front row and the team are lucky to have his quiet authority and leadership.

Not a good weekend for the senior sides last weekend with, as well as the 1st team's loss, the 2nds went down 8-24 away at Grasshoppers on Friday evening and the 3rds were on the wrong side of a 8-38 score-line at Kirkby Lonsdale.

The major rugby story this week is, of course, the relegation of Saracens from the Premiership. Whatever anyone thinks about the salary cap and whether or not they have 'cheated' for the last few seasons, there seems little or no reason why the complete findings of Lord Dyson's report cannot be publicly released. At the moment nobody really knows the extent of their misdemeanours and why the penalty has been so swingeing.

In the meantime dear old Eddie has announced his squad for the Six Nations and, as expected, it's 'same old, same old'. This is only an old second row talking so forgive me if you disagree, but are Ben Youngs and Willi Heinz really the best two scrum-halves in the country? And with big Billy out with yet another broken arm, I can't see that he's picked another No.8....Sam Simmons? Ben Morgan? Having said all that, England will probably go to Paris next Sunday and win by 30 points. We'll see.

Enjoy the afternoon everybody.

Mike Dangerfield

At a glance...

President Michael Procter

Secretary Bev Rice

Director of Rugby Charlie Maunder

Otley can claim many achievements, but Rugby Union's history books will always note that their Cross Green ground played host to the North's 21-9 victory over the All Blacks in 1979. Even Bill Beaumont, a captain of England and the Lions, described it as the greatest 80 minutes he had on a rugby field.

Formed in 1865, Otley have had some fine 80 minutes themselves, including nine Yorkshire Challenge Cup triumphs, most recently in 1993. The Yorkshire club also won the National League 2 in 2008.

Their most renowned former player is Nigel Melville, who captained England on his debut, won 13 caps and was a replacement on the 1983 British Lions' tour of New Zealand. In 2016 Melville was appointed Director of Professional Rugby for England's Rugby Football Union.

Trivia fact

Otley broke away from rugby union in 1900 to become a rugby league club. They disbanded in 1906 and reformed as a rugby union club a year later.

League Update

National 2 North

Caldy's march towards National One continued in Round 19 as the league leaders swept aside Luctonians in Herefordshire.

Nick Royle, Adam Aigbokhae, Lewis Barker and Gavin Roberts crossed in a 31-3 win and Gareth Davies' side remain 13 points clear of second placed Fylde, with a game in hand.

The aforementioned Fylde were able to react immediately from their recent loss to Huddersfield as Warren Spragg's charges thrashed Tynedale 50-10 at Woodlands. Tom Carleton ran in four of Fylde's eight tries with Ben Gregory, Connor Wilkinson, Chris Briers and Tom Grimes also dotting down.

Tyne had beaten promotion candidates Sedgley Park in Round 18 and the Tigers looked as though they were heading to back to back defeats last Saturday, but Scott Barrow's men produced a roaring comeback to claim a thrilling 30-28 victory against Stourbridge.

The Midlands club had led 21-3 at the break, but the sublime kicking of Steve Collins, plus tries from Elliot Crowe, Will Lees and Adam Cheshire, helped Sedge completely turn things around at Park Lane.

Sedge are now four points off Fylde as things stand, but with crucial fixtures just around the corner for the top three, February will go a long way to deciding the promotion race this term.

As for the relegation battle, Huddersfield were able to jump out of the bottom three following a 28-17 win over Scunthorpe.

Gareth Lewis' side were able to build on their excellent win over Fylde and the Yorkshire outfit's excellent recent displays have seen them move above the trapdoor ahead of a crucial fixture with Preston Grasshoppers this weekend.

In terms of Preston, they had to settle for a 36-36 draw with Wharfedale and the two points for Paul Arnold's men means they are now 11 points adrift of safety.

Elsewhere, Loughborough Students beat Sheffield Tigers 36-24 and Hinckley battled to maintain their purple patch of form with a 19-14 win away at Otley.

Did You Know?

League Minutiae

Today's Opponents

Otley have won four matches away and four at home, but their try bonus points have come on their travels, at Tynedale and Scunthorpe.

Overall they have scored 49 tries, converted 31 of these and have 20 successful penalties to their account.

They have featured in a 0-0 draw against Preston Grasshoppers and a 34-34 draw against Tynedale which in itself must be close to being a record points differential for drawn matches.

Elliott Morgan and Henry Roberts are ever present as starting players with George Burkinshaw being named in every match day squad – he was named as a replacement in six fixtures. Jack Scott-Paul has also been named in every match day squad with two appearances from the bench.

Alex Beaumont is their leading try scorer with seven tries and Ben Smith is their deadliest kicker and leading points scorer with 27 conversions and 16 penalties for his 102 points.

League Statistics

After the award of two penalty tries against Chester, Hull now lead the table with four penalty tries awarded for them. There have been a total of 15 awarded all season across the league.

There have now been 977 tries scored in this league to date.

The two outstanding matches have both been re arranged for February 22nd (Chester v Scunthorpe and Sedgley Park v Caldý).

Sedgley Park again found the knack of the drop goal with Steve Collins snatching a game-winning score in their 30-28 victory against Stourbridge. This was Sedgley's second successful drop goal – they are still the only team to record this form of score this season.
