Great Woking Rovers are a members club run by a members committee and Trustees

Welcome To Burroughs Park

Good afternoon and welcome to Burroughs Park for this FA Cup match between Great Woking Rovers and Brantham Athletic FC.

We would like to wish our visiting players, Management, Committee Members and Supporters a very warm welcome and hope they enjoy the facilities on offer.

We would also like to extend a warm welcome to our Match Officials visiting us today. In the middle we are pleased to have Neil West and his Assistants Kirk Edwards & Daniel Ripton, we hope you enjoy your short stay with us.

Brantham Athletic come into today's game off the back of a penalty win at home to Benfleet FC.

For Rovers this is the first competitive game of the season, Rovers will be coming in to the game off the back of a 2-0 loss to Isthmian Premier side Potters Bar Town. There is a couple of new faces for Rovers this season and some of the old faces still about, but for me I am glad to see Josh Wiggins back at Burroughs Park after that nasty injury he suffered last year.

Josh is now part of the management team so you will be seeing him about for a while.

The last time the 2 sides met was back in 2015 in The FA Cup and we all know how that went (GWR 0-2 Brantham)

Let's hope today's game is as entertaining as always and you all enjoy the game.

Club Secretary

THEY say age is just a number but in football it's one that can increasingly count against you – especially as it increases!

So let's show our appreciation for some Golden Oldies, who are doing their bit to show if you're good enough, you're young enough also rings true.

After all, it was only a few years ago that Chris Swailes became the oldest scorer at Wembley when he notched for Morpeth Town in their 4-1 FA Vase final win over Hereford.

Swailes was 45 years old when he turned the ball into the net to silence the mass of Hereford fans who had made the trip.

Not bad for a defender who has had a long, career that took in plenty of stops in the Football League.

Non-League is always good for an evergreen footballer, particularly the strikers. Paul Brayson has been a regular scorer for Newcastle Benfield in recent years and he is still knocking them in aged 42.

Perhaps it's something about those genuine goalscorers that, while the legs might not be as quick as they used to be, the minds is just as sharp. That gets them into the right goalscoring positions and then, when the ball is at their feet or the cross is in the right place, they just know how to stick the ball into the back of the net.

Jamie Cureton has scored at every level from the Premier League down. At 44 he isn't just on the back nine of his career, he's strolling up the 18th.

But he's still one of the leading scorers in the Isthmian Premier Division and despite a surprise departure from Bishop's Stortford last week – the club couldn't guarantee his continuing role as player-manager next season – he has already found the net for new club Hornchurch.

I caught up with his new manager, Mark Stimson, last week and he spoke to Cureton's desire to get in behind the back four burning as bright as ever.

Stimson describes Cureton as a "clever" player and he's sure the youngsters in their squad will take plenty on board from the former Norwich City man.

Cureton himself says it is all about diet and re-fuelling the right way after matches. When I spoke to Cureton last year as he reached his 1,000th game, he said he genuinely felt like he could do a job in the League still. And while you're feeling good, why not keep playing?

Back in the FA Vase, there was a familiar name on the scoresheet in Wroxham's win over Stowmarket Town.

Grant Holt, another former Norwich striker, turns out regularly for the Thurlow Nunn Premier Division Yachtsmen. He hit a penalty in the 2-0 win that has put them in the last eight of the competition. A final hurrah at Wembley Stadium for Holt?

Although aged 38, he could have far more opportunities yet. Just ask Swailes!

This week's NLP Programme Column was penned by Matt Badcock.

Today's Visitors

The Club was founded in 1887 and the original team were known as “Brantham Works” and played their home games at the ‘Recreation Ground’ where the club remains to this day. Branthams’ first match was on Saturday 28th January 1888 vs St Clements Institute, Ipswich as recorded in the Daily Journal dated two days later. They lost 3-0. Brantham played the return game on the 10th March 1888, the 3-2 win is found in the ‘The Star of the East’ newspaper dated two days later on the 12th March 1888. The founder members of the team were from the local British Xylonite factory built a few years earlier adjacent to the ground. The company were fundamental in the setting up of “Brantham Athletic Association” as they were later known. The Football Club were original members of the affiliated Ipswich & District League, winning Division Two of the league in 1898. The club adopted the name Brantham Crown for some time and returned to Division One of the Ipswich & District League in 1905. In 1906 they reverted to their original name, and the following year left the Ipswich & District League again to join Division Two of the South East Anglian League. They returned to Division One of the Ipswich & District League for the 1908–09 season, but left again in 1910 to join the Harwich & District League. After playing in it for a single season they joined the Essex & Suffolk Border League, before switching back to Division Two of the Ipswich & District League in 1912, also playing in Division Two of the (now renamed) East Anglian League, winning both in 1913–14.

After World War I the club played in the Ipswich & District League from 1919 until 1925, the year in which they reached the final of the Suffolk Senior Cup, losing 1–0 to Kirkley. That year they also switched back to the Essex & Suffolk Border League. The club won the Senior Cup in 1927 with a 3–0 win over Lowestoft Town. After finishing bottom of the Essex & Suffolk Border League in 1931–32 they returned to the Ipswich & District League. After World War II they rejoined the Essex & Suffolk Border League, although they also played in the Ipswich & District League between 1947 and 1950. They won the Essex & Suffolk Border League League Cup in 1948–49, beating Colchester United 4–0 in the final. The club won the Senior Cup for a second time in 1959–60, defeating Christchurch Athletic 3–2. In 1972–73 they won the Essex & Suffolk Border League and retained the title the following season. In 1975–76 they won the league again, also winning the League Cup (with a 1–0 win against Wivenhoe Town after extra time) and the Senior Cup. A league and League Cup double was repeated the following season, with Brantham beating Wivenhoe 2–0 in the cup final.

The club applied to join the Eastern Counties League in 1977, but were rejected as the ECL secretary claimed that they wouldn’t “attract people to watch them in other parts of the region”. However, the following year they were successful and were admitted to the league. They achieved their highest-ever finish of fourth in 1982–83, the same season in which they reached the fifth round of the FA Vase, losing 1–0 at home to VS Rugby in front of a then-record crowd of 594. The following season they won the Suffolk Premier Cup, beating Lowestoft Town 2–0. When the league gained a second tier in 1988, the club was placed in the Premier Division. However, they were relegated to Division One in 1992–93 after finishing second from bottom.

Two years later they were relegated to the Suffolk & Ipswich League after finishing eighteenth out of 19 clubs. Suffering from financial problems, the club merged with SIL club Stutton to become Brantham & Stutton United. After winning the League Cup in 1997, the club reverted to its old name in 1998. They were relegated to Division One in 1999–2000, and despite making an immediate return to the Senior Division, they were relegated again the following season. They were promoted to the Senior Division after finishing second in 2004–05. They won the title in 2007–08, and were promoted back to the Eastern Counties League. After finishing third in 2009–10, the club were promoted to the Premier Division.

The club's former Sunday league team, the successful Brantham Colts played in the Ipswich Sunday League and reached the FA Sunday Cup semi-final in 2008.

Brantham Athletic under the management of Michael Brothers and Matt

Carmichael most recently reached the final of the League Challenge Cup in May 2018 winning the match 4-2 vs Thetford Town to become cup winners.

Meet some of the boys

Andrew Plummer

Andrew is an experienced Goal Keeper who comes in to the squad for the 2020/21 season having impressed during an extended period of one to one training by our GK Coach John Watkins.

Alfie Owen Jones

Alfie came through our youth teams and as an U18 he made the seamless transition to the 1st team. OJ has excellent defensive attributes and at the young age of 18 and he has a great future ahead of him.

Steff Mallardo

Stef joined during the 2019/20 season. He is a big strong centre half and confident in possession. Stef learnt his trade at AFC Sudbury. Stef quickly established himself in the Brantham team and helped to push the club forward last season

Will Crisell

A product of the Needham academy who has first team appearances and experience at both Needham and Sudbury FC. The clubs vice-captain is a natural defender and has ability to dictate play from the back or from more advanced roles. A willing runner who leads by example in any position he plays. He is a key figure in the squad.

Jack Sibbons

Sibbo is an experienced old-fashioned centre half, who's no nonsense style of play has been ever present in Brantham's defensive line. A loyal member of the squad who is playing in his 11th season with the club. Jack is also a member of the management team as a first team coach whilst being a popular face around the ground.

Patrick Brothers

Having started his senior career at the Imps it was never going to be long until a bigger club came knocking. Patch then spent 9 successful years at Leiston achieving over 350 appearances at steps 3-5. Patch will bring these experiences and qualities to the side both on and off the pitch. He will be looking to add goals to his extremely impressive attributes, and will also be looking to improve his skills off the pitch as he assists his brother.

Adam Dunnage

Adam joins during pre season from Whitton Utd. He's a product of the Sudbury Academy and joins with high hopes from the management team. Adam will be looking to hit the ground running. Adam is a young talented defender who has previously impressed Brothers when he played him in the past.

Kieran Lawler

Keg - Kieran is an Imp legend who has returned to the club, this time in a coaching role. Kieran brings his ever improving coaching qualities to the training pitch and looks to improve the side and bring success.....his boots will always be by his side.....

Michael Shaikly

Michael "Shakes" is an intelligent ball playing central midfielder who arrived at Brantham at the beginning of the 2020/2021 season.

Regan Pellin

Reggie has been at the club since last year and having been tracked last season by the previous manager, Bruvs managed to get his signature in pre season. Rapid and lively winger with undoubted quality in the final third, surprisingly relaxed for such a tiny little man, his intellect keeps the changing room a happy place.

WHEN YOU SEE RED, ARE YOU SURE IT'S NOT GREEN, OR BLACK?

NORMAL VISION

COLOUR-BLIND SIMULATION (PROTANOPIA)

Approximately one in 12 men inherit colour blindness. It's carried on the X-chromosome, so only one in 200 women inherit the condition.

It can be a real issue in football, whether you're watching, playing, managing or officiating. Imagine not being able to tell the difference between kit colours and how that would affect you, your teammate or your child.

There are three types of colour blindness – and myriad colour combinations which cause problems. The common perception that colour-blind people only confuse reds and greens is a myth.

The FA has been working closely with UEFA and specialist organisation Colour Blind Awareness to highlight the issue. The intention is to positively influence decision-makers at every level of the game and improve the experience of colour-blind people – whatever their involvement in football.

This work has seen the production of a comprehensive guidance booklet. You can read and download it at www.TheFA.com/colourblindness

And please visit the Colour Blind Awareness website: colourblindawareness.org for ways you can help maximise awareness.

Together, let's make sure football's future is FOR ALL.

ON THIS DAY

Event	1885–86 Scottish Cup
	Arbroath	Bon Accord
	36	0
Date	12 September 1885
Venue	Arbroath
Referee	Dave Stormont

The Highest score (35) recorded in any 1st-class soccer match is set

Arbroath 36–0 Bon Accord is the result of a football match between Arbroath and Bon Accord which took place on 12 September 1885.

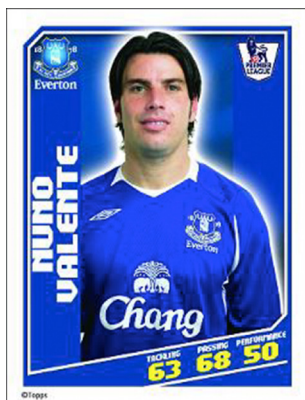

It held the largest margin of victory in professional football until the 31 October 2002 match between

AS Adema and SO l'Emyrne, but this was a thrown game; this match therefore remains, as of 2020, the largest victory margin in a legitimate game. Bon Accord are said to have arrived for the match without any form of standard football kit, a portent of what was to follow. With the teams being so mismatched, it was likely that Arbroath would win easily, but even in those days when high scoring games were common the result was unprecedented.

Arbroath were 15–0 up by half time, and scored another 21 goals in the second half. The Scottish Athletic Journal at the time wrote The leather was landed between the posts 41 times, but five of the times were disallowed. Here and there, enthusiasts would be seen scoring sheet and pencil in hand, taking note of the goals as one would score runs at a cricket match.” Referee Dave Stormont later claimed that had he taken a harder line with the Aberdeen team, Arbroath could have won 43–0. Stormont said: My only regret was that I chalked off seven goals, for while they may have looked doubtful from an offside point of view, so quickly did the Maroons carry the ball from midfield, and so close and rapid was their passing, that it was very doubtful whether they could be offside. It was claimed that Arbroath goalkeeper Jim Milne Sr did not touch the ball in the entire game and spent some of the match sheltering from the rain under a spectator’s umbrella.

The 18-year-old John Petrie scored 13 goals, still the record for most goals scored in a senior tournament, although it was equalled by Archie Thompson when Australia beat American Samoa 31–0 on 11 April 2001 in a qualifier for the 2002 World Cup.

The unfortunate Bon Accord goal keeper on the day was Andrew Lornie.

Nuno Jorge Pereira da Silva Valente, (born 12 September 1974) is a Portuguese former footballer who played as a left back, and a manager.

He played professionally in Portugal and England for Sporting, Portimonense, Marítimo, União de Leiria, Porto and Everton.

Valente represented Portugal at international level, participating at Euro 2004 (where he was a runner-up) and the 2006 World Cup.

Early years / Porto

Born in Lisbon, Valente began his career at second division club Portimonense SC, loaned by hometown's Sporting CP. However, he found first-team chances limited at the former side and, despite success in helping win the Portuguese Cup in 1995, he was loaned for the 1996–97 season to C.S. Marítimo also in the Primeira Liga.

A young José Mourinho recognized Valente's talent and brought him to U.D. Leiria in the summer of 1999, and he spent three years there always as an undisputed starter. In 2002, when the manager left to join FC Porto, he and teammate Derlei were the first signings, and the former repaid the coach's faith with some good displays as the northerners romped to victory in the national championship and won the UEFA Cup against Celtic (3–2)

Coaching

Valente kickstarted his coaching career on 11 October 2017, replacing Fernando Mira at the helm of C.D. Trofense in the Portuguese third division. Less than two months later, after six official matches and five losses, he was fired.

International career

A full Portugal international since after the 2002 FIFA World Cup, Valente was first-choice for the national side during the runner-up campaign at UEFA Euro 2004, played in home soil. During 2005 he suffered a thigh strain, but recovered in time to play in the 2006 World Cup, again playing a key part in their eventual fourth-place finish; in the quarter-final match against England he appeared to handball a David Beckham cross, but Horacio Elizondo did not to award a penalty and his team eventually advanced after a shootout.

After playing only once during the Euro 2008 qualifiers, Valente retired from international football in September 2008.

From The Gaffa

Afternoon everyone,

Welcome to Burroughs Park for our opening fixture of the 20/21 season. Firstly a warm welcome to Brantham and especially manager Michael Brothers. A old team mate of mine.

It's been a strange few months and I'm just glad we can get some normality back in our lives with the game we love most.

We have lost a few boys over the summer to a few of the big boys in our league but I'm more than happy with the squad we have at the minute and look forward to building on what would of been a fantastic season for us last year. Let's get behind the boys today and fingers crossed we will still be the hat for the next round come 5pm Saturday.

When We Last Meet

GREAT Wakering Rovers are out of the FA Cup after they were upended by lower league side Brantham Athletic.

A goal midway through the second-half from Sean Gunn and a late strike from Oliver Mann handed Brantham a deserved victory, as Rovers toiled in their worst performance of the season so far.

Rovers were the favourites ahead of the tie, against the side from the Thurlow Nunn Premier Division, but they started the match slowly. Twenty minutes into the game, neither side were able to get control of the ball, with Rovers striker Jay Nash's swing-and-a-miss the closest either had come.

James Pugsley had sent a corner crashing back off the top of the crossbar, while Mann was looking the brightest spark for Brantham. The lone striker forced Adam Seal into a flying save with 30 minutes on the clock, having robbed stand-in centre-half Dan Trenkel of the ball.

Seal denied Mann once again with his legs, although Rovers were stopped following a swift counter-attack. Tom Strickland blasted at goal but James Bradbrook was equal to it in the Athletic goal.

This came either side of two Tom Ranger efforts. The first saw him volley wide when well placed and, 10 minutes before the break, his long range effort was spectacularly tipped aside by Bradbrook.

Into the second-half, Rovers needed a spark and it was almost provided by Jay Nash, but he was denied by the goalkeeper, who then spread himself well to keep out Ranger.

But Brantham were looking more lively with each passing attack. Sean Gunn led a quick counter-attack and was only denied by Seal, who was going the wrong way before getting down to make the block.

But when the opening goal did come it was for the underdogs. A neat ball through found the run of Gunn and he finished coolly past Seal, despite loud calls for offside. Rovers were still struggling for rhythm, and should have fallen further behind when Mann raced in down the left, only for his bobbling effort to wrong-foot Seal before drifting narrowly wide of the post.

The same man shot wide soon after, with Jamie Cole shooting side seconds after coming on.

But Mann had the final laugh as he got the goal his play deserved with a comfortable finish past Seal in injury time.

But Rovers were unable to find a way past Bradbrook and it will be Brantham who go on to play Biggleswade Town.
