Welcome To Burroughs Park

Good afternoon and welcome to Burroughs Park for today's Bostik North match between Great Woking Rovers and Romford FC.

We would like to wish our visiting players, Management, Committee Members and Supporters a very warm welcome and hope they enjoy the facilities on offer.

We would also like to extend a warm welcome to our Match Officials visiting us this today. In the middle we are pleased to have Richard Carter and his Assistants Dean Markwick & Ashley Butler, we hope you enjoy your short stay with us.

Both teams come in to today's game needing all 3 points as we are both where we don't want to be.

If both teams play like they played each other at the start of the season we are in for a great game.

Again we hope you enjoy the programme and if there is something you think is missing or would like to see please drop me an email on danielellis@hotmail.co.uk

Also next weekend Rovers are away to Felixstowe & Walton and will be having a coach to go there, if you would like to join us please email our secretary Dan Ellis to book a place. (danielellis@hotmail.co.uk)

Hope you Enjoy the game.

Last Weeks Round Up In The Bostik North

North Division

It was normal service in the North Division, as four of our top five won. There are now seven points separating fifth and sixth as the leading clubs win whilst the rest take points from each other- but there are eight points between first and fifth, too. Bowers & Pitsea remain our leaders, and they recorded what was, in the end, a comfortable victory over AFC Sudbury, second half goals from Martyn Stokes, Bradley Warner and James Thomas doing the damage.

Heybridge Swifts went to bottom side Dereham Town and went behind, Joe Gating opening the scoring in the seventh minute- and it was a lead the magpies held until midway through the second half, but when the floodgates opened they remained open, Kreshnic Krasniqi, Matthew Price and Luke Wilson finding the net for Swifts in twenty second half minutes to keep Swifts within three points of the leaders. Aveley are two points further back, albeit with two matches in hand, and they also had to come from behind at home to Felixstowe and Walton United. Tom Richardson gave the Millers the lead only for the Seaside to turn the game on its head before the break, Rhys Henry and Jack Ainsley finding the net; but it was normal service resumed in the second half, Firmin Ngandu and Andrew Freeman turning the match in favour of the home side. There were four goals as Maldon & Tiptree hosted Grays Athletic, three of them in the first twenty six minutes, as the Jammers came from behind to lead. Charlie Allen put Athletic ahead, only for Laste Dombaxe and Stephane Ngamvoulou to turn the game on its head- but the home faithful weren't able to celebrate three points as Kieran Bishop got a second half leveller. Nnamdi Nwachuku, Michael Gyasi and George Cocklin gave fifth place Coggeshall Town a comfortable victory over Soham Town Rangers.

Tilbury's fabulous form continued, as boss Marc Harrison went back to his former club Basildon United and saw his new charges score three goals without reply, George Sykes and a Lewis Smith double doing the damage as the Bees continue a winless run that goes back to September. Bury Town and Canvey Island sit behind the Dockers in ninth and tenth, and yesterday got a point each as Kyran Clements for the Ram Meadow outfit and Josh Hutchinson for the Gulls cancelled each other out.

Brentwood Town are up to eleventh, a 3-2 win over Great Wakering Rovers courtesy of a Ernest Okoh double and a goal from Alfie Hilton continuing their good form. Shomari Barnwell opened the scoring for Rovers, and Jake Gordon made it interesting after Brentwood replied with three, but the away side couldn't find an equaliser. Witham Town's fabulous run came to an end at Mildenhall Town, but the away side managed to score both of Mildenhall's goals in a 2-0 defeat, and finally neither Romford or Barking could find the net at East Thurrock.

Tonbridge Angels couldn't do it. Lewes and Dorking Wanderers tried and failed. Kingstonian, Folkestone Invicta, Bishop's Stortford, Worthing and Carshalton Athletic came up wanting. AFC Hornchurch, Potters Bar Town, Wingate and Finchley and Whitehawk were also despatched. Merstham tried hard but couldn't quite manage it. But finally- finally- somebody has managed to beat Haringey Borough- and that somebody was relegation-threatened Harlow Town.

The Hawks scored in the second minute of the first half and the second minute of the second, Tom Hitchcock sweeping in from a corner for the first and Emile Acquah knocking in a rebound for the second, and although Ralston Gabriel was able to pull a goal back that was all that Borough had to show for their efforts. The one piece of good news for Haringey is that most of the other sides who started the day in the top five were also unable to win. The exception were Lewes, who move up to second place after picking up three points in a seven goal thriller at Woodside Road.

Twice this season Worthing and Lewes have met, and twice there have been seven goals and a victory for the away side. The Rooks got revenge for their October defeat, but they had to work hard for it- despite Worthing ending the match with only nine men.

Indeed the first significant action of the match was a red card- a straight red for Ricky Aguair- and within four minutes of his dismissal Lewes took advantage in style, James Hammond scoring from the half way line! The lead lasted only four minutes more, Ollie Pearce equalising with a fine free kick, but Lewes were ahead once more by half time, Charlie Coppola firing home with help from a deflection. Luke Blewden made it 3-1 after the break, but the ten-men Mackerel Men weren't going to be shaken off, and defender Jalen Jones scored his second goal in two games since arriving at Woodside Road to reduce the arrears. Callum Overton seemed to make the points safe when making it 4-2 in the last minute, but even then Ollie Pearce cut the arrears from the spot- before Darren Budd picked up a second yellow. The Rooks are second; one of three clubs on 41 points, eight behind Haringey.

Kingstonian are third, but despite coming back from two goals down at Tonbridge Angels they left Longmead with nothing to show for their efforts. Alex Read and Joe Turner had given Angels the advantage but, with the half time whistle about to blow, goals from Dean Inman and Shaun McAuley got the K's level and left the home side shellshocked. At that point you'd probably have put your money on Leigh Dynan's side, but Angels rallied and twenty minutes from time Chinedu McKenzie was able to find a winner.

Dorking Wanderers are fourth, but they got only a point at bottom side Whitehawk, coming from behind after a Nat Pinney goal had put the Hawks ahead. Niall McManus got the equaliser two minutes later, but our former leaders have now won only two of their last six.

Bognor Regis Town seem to have been suffering from a continual injury crisis this season, but they are coping well and yesterday climbed to fifth with victory in our second Sussex derby of the day, at Burgess Hill Town. Jimmy Muitt got both their goals, the second deep into added time- and the Rocks also had keeper Dan Lincoln to thank for their victory, as he was forced to make a number of late saves as the Hillians looked to take something from the match.

Folkestone Invicta continued their magnificent form with a fifth win in six matches which have seen them pick up sixteen points from eighteen- and how they did it, walloping AFC Hornchurch 5-0 at the Fullicks Stadium. Roadworks on the M20 caused Kentish travel chaos yesterday, and the Urchins must have been left wishing they were still stuck in traffic as goals from Alfie Paxman (2), Johan Ter Horst, Ian Draycott and Adam Yusuff left them chasing shadows.

Merstham are unbeaten in seven matches, and yesterday moved to within a point of the playoff places as Walter Figueira's thirteenth minute goal was enough to defeat Enfield Town- who are now one of three sides, with the Moatsiders and Worthing, on thirty eight points. Brightlingsea Regent are only three points further back, and they've been in magnificent form too, yesterday travelling to Potters Bar Town are recording a seventh victory in their last nine matches- a period during which they've picked up twenty two points and gone from relegation candidates to playoff hopefuls. Billy Hunt got both their goals in the second half at the Pakex.

We've only one Premier Division match to go, and that came at King George's Field, where Corinthian-Casuals came from behind to defeat Leatherhead. Jazz Wallace provided a musical start to the match as he forced the ball home for Leatherhead in the seventh minute, but Gabriel Odunaike equalised just after the half hour and then found a winner half an hour later. Casuals leapfrog the Tanners into thirteenth.

Romford

A Brief History

THIS IS the third Romford Football Club, both their predecessors having competed at some point in the Southern League, and each time having been defunct for fourteen years before the name was revived.

All three versions have had their moments, although the present model has yet to emulate previous achievements on the national stage. The original club was founded in 1876 and reached the last six of the F A Cup. After some success at local level the club folded during the First World War.

For a while there was no senior football at all in Romford, but the situation was addressed in 1929 when local figure Tom Macpherson, later to become M P for the area, took charge of re-forming the Club after a public meeting at the Corn Exchange, which was so well attended that the crowd spilled on to the street outside, to the annoyance of the police. The new Club moved into the local Brooklands stadium, which was bought by the Club when it became a limited company in the mid-1930s, possibly the first Amateur club to do so. After two seasons in the London League, Romford joined the Athenian League in 1931 and between 1935 and 1938 won two championships and twice reached the semi-finals of the F A Amateur Cup.

After the Second World War the Club competed in the Isthmian League and finished third in each of their first two seasons. The highlight of this era was reaching the Final of the F A Amateur Cup in 1949, losing 1-0 to Bromley in front of 95 000 spectators in the first Final to be held at Wembley.

However fortunes then plummeted and after finishing in the bottom three five times in a row, Romford took the bold move of turning professional and joined the Southern League in 1959. Promotion was achieved at the first attempt and, after a near miss in 1963-64 when Boro finished fifth the enormous Championship shield came to Brooklands in 1967. Romford were perennial (and unsuccessful) applicants for membership of the Football League but, apart from third place in 1970-71, never looked like repeating their title success and eventually were relegated in 1975.

Boro's failure to make it into the Football League had left huge debts, but only when the ground was sold did the extent of the Clubs problems come to light. 90% of the proceeds of the sale of Brooklands were eaten up in debt repayments and tax, leaving barely £60 000 to finance a new stadium, and the 1977-78 season was spent playing home matches at borrowed grounds - indeed the last match, at home to Folkestone & Shepway, was eventually played at Folkestone. Romford Football Club closed down in 1978 and the site of the unfinished stadium in Oldchurch Park became Romford Ice Rink. Appropriately, it was at the Ice Rink that the first meeting took place in February 1992 to gauge interest in reviving the Club. Over 150 people attended to hear the ideas of Dave Howie, and very soon the Club was formed, a ground-share arranged with Hornchurch and senior status granted from the Essex F A. To have achieved so much so soon owed much to what had gone before, and in view of the importance and significance of such a heritage to the success of the new club, it was inevitable that it would adopt the traditional blue and gold colours and Boro nickname, despite the local council having since become the London Borough of Havering.

The Club took their place in the Essex Senior League and with Lyndon Lynch at the helm, finished in ninth place. This was followed by fourth place in 1993-94 and third the season after. The highlight of this third season was the Clubs first entry into the F A Cup, when Boro made national headlines by beating Grays Athletic and Hayes, and almost took St Albans City to a replay before going down 1-0 at Clarence Park in a match that was featured on Grandstand. The summer of 1995 was all change, as Dave Howie stepped down and Lyndon Lynch chose to move on. With an almost entirely new committee and considerably improved financial backing, Boro started again from scratch, moving in with Essex Senior League rivals Ford United and appointing as joint managers the local dream ticket of Donal McGovern and Alan Marson, a partnership with a quite phenomenal record at this level and higher. They brought several of the squad with whom they had won the previous seasons Isthmian League Division Three championship at Collier Row, and proceeded to win the Essex Senior League with a record total of 91 goals from just 28 games. This was accompanied by success in the League Cup, beating Southend Manor 2-0 in the Final at Burnham Ramblers F C, and another run to the Third Qualifying Round of the F A Cup, again losing at St Albans by 3-1 after leading at half-time. There was another period of upheaval for Romford in 1996, as the agreement with Ford was terminated and Boro finished the season sharing with Collier Row at Sungate. A merger was arranged between the two clubs and the new club, known as Collier Row & Romford, took Rows place in Division Two of the Isthmian League. A run to the last sixteen of the F A Vase contributed to a fixture backlog that meant Boro fell so far behind that they had to play exactly half their league fixtures in March and April. However promotion was secured with three games to play and Boro overtook Leatherhead at the top of the table for the first time going into the final match, where a 3-0 win at home to Hungerford Town brought the championship to Sungate. Boro finished the League season unbeaten away from home, went 29 games without defeat and lost only twice. With McGovern and Marson moving on, former reserve team manager Les Whitton was promoted to become first team manager in the summer of 1997. The Club reverted to its original title and the following season the name of Romford appeared in the Fourth Qualifying Round of the F A Cup for the first time since 1975-76. Boro also reached the quarter-finals of the League Cup and won the East Anglian Cup, recovering from 2-0 down to beat Aveley 3-2 at Sungate in the Final. Boro finished seventh in Division One, top scorers with 92 goals. The tail end of the season had been largely overshadowed by concern over the Clubs future, and the eventual defeat of a takeover bid resulted in the departure of several Club personnel and the entire first team management, leaving a committee almost entirely hand-picked from the terraces, while Dave Howie returned after three years away. Reserve team manager Steve Wheeler took over the first team and managed to keep the side in the top half of the table on a reduced budget, but at the end of January chairman John Goodwin left to take over at Bishops Stortford, taking Wheeler and several players with him.

First team coach Amin Levitt was immediately appointed manager, and plenty of fresh blood was quickly recruited with reserve and youth team players also being promoted.

Romford

The response was magnificent and the team remained unbeaten in the league for several weeks, however just when things were settling down again another bombshell came when the Sungate ground was closed by the League, due to the deterioration of the pitch and other facilities. Romford's last six home games had to be played at other grounds, including Chesham and Hendon, and even had to play three nights running in the final week of the season as Boro finished a creditable tenth. Some consolation was found in the reserve and youth sides, the latter making Romford the only non-League club to reach the Third Round proper of the F A Youth Cup. The Club also won the Umbro Fair Play Award for Division One. Following a number of delays, Sungate B grading was finally re-instated on the opening day of the 1999-2000 season. The return to Sungate had a profound effect on the team as they won ten of their next thirteen games and reached the Fourth Qualifying Round of the F A Cup, a 6-0 win over Congleton Town earning Non-League Team of the Week honours in The Sun. However the Club soon found itself fighting relegation and Sungate went through another period of closure while urgent electrical work was carried out, requiring another three games to be played elsewhere. The relegation threat was finally put to rest with three matches remaining, and Boro were more than happy with a final position of nineteenth. Still the summer was not without its problems as the clubhouse suffered major fire damage, and complications arising from that and the subsequent delay to the completion of other rebuilding works prevented any matches from taking place at Sungate for a long time. The constant uncertainty finally took its toll and Amin Levitt resigned in October to be replaced by John Bennett, but after a brief revival came a further shock in December as Boro were suspended by the Ryman League with no return to Sungate in sight - Bennett left and Romford were left with no option but to release the entire first team squad. The Club were finally able to return to Sungate in mid-January, and former reserve team manager Paul Withey was appointed to the first team. Early results were encouraging as the side posted three wins in four games, but as the fixture backlog increased with the continued wet weather the task of keeping the Club in Division One proved to be beyond everybody, with Boro having to play eighteen games in the final 33 days of the season. Sadly, despite an injection of fresh blood the poor run of form continued into the 2001-02 season and Withey was replaced as manager by Paul Joynes at the end of August. Although performances improved considerably, Boro still finished the season well adrift at the bottom of Division Two. Meanwhile several issues at Sungate were never satisfactorily resolved and the Club moved out mid-season, once again playing out the season on borrowed grounds and reluctantly forwarding its resignation from the Ryman League. A return to familiar territory in the Essex Senior League and back at Rush

Green Road saw a strong recovery after the struggles of recent years, and Boro stayed on the edge of the leading pack all season, finishing fifth with a late-season run of form breaking several Club records. Paul Joynes took up an offer to return to the Ryman League with Tilbury and popular former Boro player Mark Reed stepped in to replace him, emulating the previous season's fifth-place finish after leading the table for two months, reaching the semi-final of the Essex Thames-side Trophy and adding the Gordon Brasted Memorial Trophy.

In season 2006-07 Mark Reed lead us to our best season since rejoining the Essex Senior League as we finished runner-up to Brentwood Town, Boro were also runners up to the same team in the League Cup when we lost on penalties. Then during the 2007-08 season Mark Reed stepped down for personal reasons and the then reserve team manager, Paul Martin was promoted to the job with Mark Lord as his assistant. Romford moved up the table to finish in 5th place. The following season Romford had to leave Rush Green when Fords sold the ground to West Ham United. A ground share agreement was drawn up with Aveley FC and Romford were able to carry on. In Paul's first full season in charge Romford took the Essex Senior League by storm, winning the title with 71 points and losing just one game, and with it promotion to the Ryman League Division 1 North. With consolidation and avoiding the drop straight back to the Essex Senior a priority Boro got off to a good start, winning two of their opening four games. Then a lean spell came along when they found points hard to come by. Some changes to the playing staff saw a revival in fortunes and the team rose to finish in 13th place with 15 wins under their belt. Kurt Smith finished top goal scorer with 15 goals. So a satisfactory first season for Paul Martin and his squad. The start of the 2011-12 season saw Romford get off to a flying start in the league and added good runs in both national cup competitions. They stayed in the first five positions up until the freeze during that year's cold snap. When the grounds thawed out it seemed lady luck had departed for pastures new. Despite the odd good performance Romford slowly dropped down the table to finish 12th. But it was still a one place improvement on the previous season. Season 2012-13 saw a strong finish and Romford finally end up in 8th position, their best performance since gaining promotion to the Ryman League.

In the 2013-14 season Romford finished 11th with 69 points from 46 games, winning 21.

Special mention must go to Chairman Steve Gardener (He's been with us since 1992) and Vice Chairman Colin Ewenson for their tireless work to try and get our dream of our own ground up and running.

The 2014-15 season started with a good F.A. Cup run which ended in a narrow defeat in extra time at Kingstonian. The rest of the season was a bit of a struggle with relegation worries that were ended when we won our last three matches. Last season proved to be a bit nerve wracking as our safety went down to the last day. We were 10 minutes from relegation in our last but one game until our relegation rivals succumbed at Heybridge Swifts. We had to win our last game and hope that Norwich United didn't. With many of the supporters following the other game on their mobiles the tension was enormous, we beat Maldon & Tiptree 4-2 and then heard that Cheshunt had won 6-3 at home to Norwich. Safe for another season. After several very enjoyable seasons at Ship Lane Thurrock we had to move on again when Tommy South decided to sell the ground and retire. So here we are at another new home ground at East Thurrock. Our dream of going home to Romford is still in the hands of various organisations. Steve Gardner and Colin Ewenson are still working hard to make that dream come true. We live in hope!

Stephen Staunton
(born 19 January 1969)

Stephen Staunton is an Irish association football manager and former professional footballer who played as a defender. He earned 102 caps for the Republic of Ireland national football team, captained his team to the knock-out stage of the 2002 FIFA World Cup and earned his place in the FIFA Century Club.

Staunton enjoyed a distinguished club career with Aston Villa and Liverpool.

After retiring, he served as Republic of Ireland national team coach prior to Giovanni Trapattoni. He also spent five months as manager of Darlington in Football League Two.

Pre-Liverpool

Born in Drogheda, County Louth, Staunton was an accomplished all-round sportsman. He lived in Dundalk, County Louth, and attended the De La Salle College in the town. As well as playing soccer for his home club of Dundalk, he played Gaelic football, appearing for Louth's U-16 team and winning a Louth Senior Championship medal with Clan na Gael. He also played for his local team St. Dominic's at underage level.

Walsall

Staunton decided not to renew his contract once it had expired, and instead joined Black Country club Walsall on 2 August 2005. He played just 10 times for the Bescot club and also held the post of assistant coach until 16 January 2006, when he was appointed manager of the Republic of Ireland senior international side. He was captain of the Walsall side that defeated Blackpool 2–0 on New Year's Eve 2005, in what was his final game as a professional footballer at the end of a 20-year career.

Luis Óscar “Lucho” González (born 19 January 1981) is an Argentine professional footballer who plays for Brazilian club Clube Atlético Paranaense. A versatile midfielder who is able to play in different positions but mainly in the centre, he is well known for his fierce shot, passing skills and hardworking style, being affectionately known as El Comandante (the commander) due to his leadership skills. After starting with Huracán and River Plate, he signed for Porto in 2005, going on to have two separate spells at the club and appear in more than 200 official games, winning nine major titles. He also played in France with Marseille.

An Argentine international on 45 occasions, González represented his country in the 2006 World Cup and two Copa América tournaments.

Asier del Horno Cosgaya (born 19 January 1981) is a Spanish retired footballer who played as a left back. After solid displays with Athletic Bilbao, for which he appeared in 126 official games in five years scoring 17 goals, he moved to Chelsea in England, where he won the Premier League in the 2005–06 season. Subsequently, del Horno – who missed the 2006 World Cup with Spain due to a last-minute injury – returned to his country with Valencia, who loaned him to several clubs for the duration of his contract.

He dealt with several physical problems in the latter part of his career, amassing La Liga totals of 187 matches and 15 goals.

WHEN YOU SEE RED, ARE YOU SURE IT'S NOT GREEN, OR BLACK?

NORMAL VISION

COLOUR-BLIND SIMULATION (PROTANOPIA)

Approximately one in 12 men inherit colour blindness. It's carried on the X-chromosome, so only one in 200 women inherit the condition.

It can be a real issue in football, whether you're watching, playing, managing or officiating. Imagine not being able to tell the difference between kit colours and how that would affect you, your teammate or your child.

There are three types of colour blindness – and myriad colour combinations which cause problems. The common perception that colour-blind people only confuse reds and greens is a myth.

The FA has been working closely with UEFA and specialist organisation Colour Blind Awareness to highlight the issue. The intention is to positively influence decision-makers at every level of the game and improve the experience of colour-blind people – whatever their involvement in football.

This work has seen the production of a comprehensive guidance booklet. You can read and download it at www.TheFA.com/colourblindness

And please visit the Colour Blind Awareness website: colourblindawareness.org for ways you can help maximise awareness.

Together, let's make sure football's future is FOR ALL.
