North Division

We had only one match in the North Division, and AFC Sudbury took the points as they defeated Basildon United. It was goalless at half time, but a red card for the Bees Joseph Turpin just after the break made all the difference, the ten men behind a moment later. Callum Harrison got the first from the spot, Baris Altintop had soon added a second, and Reece Harris made the game safe with the third for the yellows.

FA Trophy

We had a number of all-Isthmian ties, and we start at Larges Lane, where highly-fancied Bracknell Town took on highly-fancied Coggeshall Town. Neither side have quite had the start to the season they might have expected- although it isn't as if seventh v fourth is a disaster- but both came into this match on the back of crushing Velocity Trophy wins in midweek, so we expected a close one- and that's exactly what we got. The Robins took the honours, despite playing the last fifteen minutes with ten men after goalkeeper Mark Scott received his marching orders. Mitchell Parker and Dan Carr put Bracknell two goals up, and although Nnamdi Nwachuku got the Seed Growers back into the game with eleven minutes to go, the equaliser wouldn't come.

Chalfont St Peter welcomed South East Whitstable Town, and it was the Oysterboys who triumphed, John Ufuah getting the only goal of the game for the visitors.

Chichester City played their first ever FA Trophy match- at home to Three Bridges. The hosts were looking for some speedy revenge, as it was only eleven days since Bridges arrived in the cathedral city and left with three points after a 1-0 league win. Chi got their own back, winning two-one; Matt Axell and Lloyd Rowlatt getting early goals which Bridges couldn't claw back, despite Andre McCollin narrowing the gap after the break.

Dereham Town hosted Halesowen Town- and expected a test, as their visitors are in third place in Southern Division One Central and had won three of their last four. The Magpies took the lead through Thomas Matthews after only six minutes; but sadly the visitors were soon level and got the winner after the break. Our headline image shows Dereham celebrations after opening the scoring- and we'll have a link to the rest of Alan Palmer's shots as soon as they are available.

Faversham Town hosted FA Vase holders Chertsey Town, and the visitors continued their great cup record with a three-one victory. Samuel Murphy got a quick opener for the Curfews, and although James Miles equalised the home side weren't level for long- Jonathan Hippolyte restored the lead three minutes later and Quincy Rowe made sure of victory after the break.

Two of our South Central high-flyers met as Harlow Town hosted Hanwell Town. When the two met in the league back in August it was the Geordies who took the plaudits, but it was close- and it was close again yesterday, indeed there was no way to part them, as they drew one-one. Gareth Chendlik put Hanwell ahead after only two minutes, but in the second half Ozzy Adeniji got the equaliser.

Heybridge Swifts hosted Hertford Town. Swifts have blown hot and cold this season, but their visitors have just blown cold, without a victory since August Bank Holiday Monday. Well the Swifts were certainly hot on this occasion, and fired in four goals- Alex Teniola, Evans Kouassi, Jack Adlington-Pile and Matthew Price with them, the first three before the break. Town warmed up for just a moment, Kevin Zola getting one back just before the end.

Hullbridge Sports hosted Barton Rovers- and they should have been confident, having lost only one of their last six. Sadly it was two in seven by full time, the visitors running out four-two winners despite goals from Yemi Ogunfunmilade and Bertie Brayley.

Bury Town travel to Lincoln, where they took on Northern South East Division One side Lincoln United. The hosts walloped Sheffield 5-1 on Monday night, but Town wouldn't have been worried as they hadn't lost a match since August 24th- and that record remained intact as goals from Cemal Ramadan, Ryan Horne and Jarid Robson gave them a three-one win.

Maldon & Tiptree haven't lost a match all season- and indeed they haven't even drawn one, they've won the lot! The Jammers hosted a Felixstowe and Walton United side who they defeated as recently as Tuesday night, and they did it again- only even more emphatically, the Seasiders crushed five-nil. Danny Parish got a hat trick, whilst Charlee Hughes (68') Jorome Slew got the other two.

We had an all South-East clash between Ramsgate and Haywards Heath Town- and we'll have another one shortly as the two sides left with a two-two draw. Trevor McCreadie gave the visitors an early lead only for the Rams to turn the tables, Tom Wynter and Rory Smith finding the net. The lead lasted only two minutes, however, as Callum Saunders equalised for Heath.

Finally, Canvey Island- cup heroes in midweek- travelled to Welwyn Garden City for the first time ever today- and were cup heroes once more, doubles from George Purcell and Jason Hallet giving them a four-one victory.

ILFORD FC -HISTORY

Not only were Ilford one of the most famous names in amateur football for almost a century, but from 1904 to 1977 they played at one of its most celebrated venues. As well as being on hand to witness Ilford's many successes, the 18,000 capacity Lynn Road ground at Newbury Park staged Olympic Games matches, Amateur Internationals, an FA Amateur Cup Final, plus countless other cup finals and representatives matches.

Formed in 1881, Ilford were founder members of both the Isthmian and Southern Leagues, the latter from which they resigned to be replaced by an emergent Tottenham Hotspur.

Ilford secured four-acres of initially undeveloped land at Lynn Road in 1904 and huge crowds by today's standards necessitated developments which transformed the site into one of the best stadium in the country.

Over the next five decades Ilford FC was comfortably one of the amateur game's most successful clubs. Captain, Joe Dines, along with Ilford teammates William Martin and Leonard Dawe returned from the Stockholm Olympics with gold medals. Dines was duly signed by Liverpool.....After winning consecutive championships in 1920/21 and 1921/22, the club embarked on its famed European tours, competing against FC Barcelona on four occasions (drawing twice) and beating Ajax 3-1, in Amsterdam. Back-to-back Amateur Cup triumphs confirmed this reputation. Four and even five-figure crowds were witnessed at Lynn Road during the period.

By 1951 nearly all of the banking around the ground had been concreted, giving Newbury Park an 18,000 capacity with 1,400 seats, while in 1957 the covered accommodation was extended further still when a roof was erected over the terracing at the Ley Street end. But for the installation of floodlights in 1962, the ground remained unchanged for the remainder of its existence, even retaining its splendid white wicket fencing that spanned the four sides of the ground.

Further Wembley finals in 1958 and 1972 could not disguise the declining allure of the old amateur game. With increasing overheads, the old ground was put up for sale in 1977. Fans were seduced by the promise of a new, purpose-built stadium one mile away at Fairlop. This failed to materialise, following a tax bill which to this day is shrouded in mystery. A succession of ill-conceived mergers from which only today's Dagenham and Redbridge FC emerged the winner, tragically sealed Ilford's fate.....(but not quite)!

Supporters and officials of the old club managed to reform Ilford FC against all the odds, in 1987. After a protracted 8-year campaign with Redbridge Council, agreement was reached over the use of Cricklefield Stadium in the High Road (curiously a venue coveted by the club when doubts about their tenure at Lynn Road first emerged in the 1960s).

Successive developments have seen the pitch extended, the ground fully enclosed and £1m was raised to support the building of the clubhouse in 2002. As well as being a fine stadium, Cricklefield also provides a link to the old ground in the form of the Sir Herbert Dunnico Memorial Gates -presently awaiting restoration as part of a recent Heritage Lottery Grant, awarded to enable the club to extend its work in the local community.

WHEN YOU SEE RED, ARE YOU SURE IT'S NOT GREEN, OR BLACK?

NORMAL VISION

Approximately one in 12 men inherit colour blindness. It's carried on the X-chromosome, so only one in 200 women inherit the condition.

It can be a real issue in football, whether you're watching, playing, managing or officiating. Imagine not being able to tell the difference between kit colours and how that would affect you, your teammate or your child.

There are three types of colour blindness – and myriad colour combinations which cause problems. The common perception that colour-blind people only confuse reds and greens is a myth.

The FA has been working closely with UEFA and specialist organisation Colour Blind Awareness to highlight the issue. The intention is to positively influence decision-makers at every level of the game and improve the experience of colour-blind people – whatever their involvement in football.

This work has seen the production of a comprehensive guidance booklet. You can read and download it at www.TheFA.com/colourblindness

And please visit the Colour Blind Awareness website: colourblindawareness.org for ways you can help maximise awareness.

Together, let's make sure football's future is FOR ALL.

ON THIS DAY

Júlio César Clemente Baptista (born 1 October 1981) is a former Brazilian professional footballer who played as an attacking midfielder or a forward. He is nicknamed “The Beast” due to his size and physical presence on the football field.

Baptista began his career as a defensive midfielder, and after a series of impressive performances for his hometown squad São Paulo FC, Baptista signed for Sevilla FC in 2003. Upon signing for Sevilla, he was converted into a forward, and in his two seasons, he scored 50 goals, leading to his 2005 transfer to Spanish giants Real Madrid. After two unsuccessful seasons at Real Madrid with a loan spell at Arsenal sandwiched in between, Baptista transferred to Roma in Italy. In January 2011 he returned to Spain by signing for Málaga, and two years later went back to Brazil with Cruzeiro.

On 25 July 2005, Real Madrid confirmed the signing of the long-time Arsenal target for a fee of £13.8 million (€20 million), rising to £16.9 million (€24.5 million); Baptista signed a five-year deal. Baptista said he had chosen to remain in Spain at least one more year, as transferring to Real Madrid would allow him to gain dual citizenship (in Spain as well as Brazil), which would enable him to travel across Europe freely. He also explained he did not want to move to England at this time. Upon his arrival at Real Madrid, Baptista was awarded the No.8 jersey.

The season looked very promising for Real Madrid; the big-money signings of Robinho from Santos FC, Baptista, and Sergio Ramos from Sevilla meant that Real Madrid were tipped to end their trophy drought. It was not to be, however. At Real, Baptista was often played out of position as a left-winger to accommodate the likes of Zinedine Zidane and Guti in the Spanish side's attacking line-up. For this reason, he was unable to find the form that led many of Europe's top clubs to want to sign him. He managed to score just eight league goals throughout the 2006 league campaign. The season ended in disappointment as Real Madrid yet again ended the season without a trophy. Baptista insisted that Arsenal were still in pursuit of him, but he made it clear he wanted to fulfill his contract with Real Madrid.

Mirko Vučinić (born 1 October 1983) is a Montenegrin retired professional footballer who played as a forward. Having caught the attention of Pantaleo Corvino, the sporting director of the Italian club Lecce, he transferred there in the summer of 2000. He played for Lecce as they moved between Serie A and B. His highest-scoring season was 2004–05, with 19 goals in 28 games in Serie A. In 2006, he joined Roma, where he won the Coppa Italia twice; he later moved on to Juventus in 2011, where he won three consecutive Serie A titles. In July 2014, he moved to Al Jazira on an undisclosed fee.

On the international stage, Vučinić played for the Serbia and Montenegro under-21 team. Due to injury, he was unable to represent Serbia and Montenegro at the FIFA World Cup in 2006. Following the split of Serbia and Montenegro in the spring of 2006, Vučinić chose to represent his native Montenegro. Quick, versatile, and physically strong, Vučinić was known for his creativity, technique, and intelligence as a footballer, as well as his powerful striking ability from distance. In 2018, he began a golf career as a member of the Princess Milica Golf Club based in Tivat.
