Tuesday Night's Round Up In The Bostik North

North Division

Bowers and Pitsea are once more three points clear at the top, but they had to work hard for those points at the Len Salmon last night, as Grays Athletic restricted them to only one goal. Lewis Manor got it, in the 56th minute.

Aveley sit three points behind Bowers, with Maldon & Tiptree three points further back- and the Jammers have been joined on fifty points by local rivals Heybridge Swifts, who staged a second half comeback to defeat Basildon United. Stuart Zanone and Rhys Fatt put the Bees two goals up at the break, but they had to head back to the Ha-Ha Stadium with nothing to laugh about as Luke Wilson, Matthew Price and Kreshnic Krasniqi came up trumps.

Bury Town closed the gap on the playoff places- and specifically Coggeshall Town- with a 5-2 thumping of Witham Town at Ram Meadow. Cemal Ramadan took only two minutes to open the scoring, and by half time it was three-nil as Ryan Horne and Ollie Hughes added to the haul. Toby Aromolaran grabbed two consolation goals in the second half but they were cancelled out by the home side, as Kyran Clements managed two of his own.

We had two five-two scorelines, and the second went in favour of Dereham Town. The Magpies seem to have turned their form around dramatically, and dumped opponents Mildenhall Town deeper into trouble despite giving them a two goal head start! Thomas Debenham and Abouhadje Kouassi took only thirteen minutes to get Hall's goals, but by half time Adam Hipperson (2) and Jay Eastoe-Smith had turned the match in Dereham's favour, and after the break Joe Gatting and Rhys Logan made it safe.

Tilbury and Barking drew 0-0, the Dockers ending the game with ten men after Kris Newby saw red.

Finally, at Julius Martin Lane Soham Town Rangers picked up cards like confetti, ending their match with nine men and with four others on a caution as they lost 2-0 to Felixstowe and Walton United. Jack Ainsley and Henry Barley got the Seasiders goals, the second of them in the last minute. Will Gardner and Lee Chaffey were the men to walk for Rangers.

After Saturday's game with Barking was postponed Great Wakering Rovers were back in action at Burroughs Park on Tuesday night against local rivals Canvey Island.

With Stephen Butterworth and Simon Glover at the helm Rovers were seeking a much needed 3pts in this south Essex derby to ease the pressure from the relegation zone, Canvey Island named an unchanged side from their game at the weekend which included ex Rovers striker Adam Vyse.

Rovers took the lead in the seventh minute when Billy Johnson sent in a delightful freekick to find the head of defender Gorbell to put the hosts in front
However it only took the visitors six minutes to find the equalizer, Adam Vyse found himself on the edge of the box with Goalkeeper Harry Seeden off his line, Vyse exquisitely lobed the stopper to level the score, Seeden was again called into action later in the second half pushing a low free kick onto the post.

With 35 minutes on the clock rovers were awarded a free kick on the edge of the D, free kick specialist Billy Johnson stepped up to take the kick superbly curling it into top corner to take the hosts in front at half time.

Half time Great Wakering 2 Canvey Island 1

The second half started brightly with early chances for both teams, the Gulls pressing for the leveller to try and improve their playoff hopes, but it was the Greenboys who looked more likely to get a third with Johnson impressing again going forward hitting the inside of the post to narrowly be denied his second and then again as he squared the ball perfectly into the box for the incoming Tony Martin who couldn't find the back of the net.

A few more chances came and went for both sides but Rovers defence stood strong to earn a massive 3pts to steer the Greenboys away from danger.

Grays Athletic

A Brief History

The roots of the modern day Grays Athletic can be traced back as far as 1888, although 1890 has become the de facto established formation date. The reasons for this disparity are almost certainly lost in the mists of time. Grays Athletic therefore celebrated its centenary in 1990, played at The Recreation Ground, Bridge Road from 1906 to 2010, and became members of the Athenian League in 1912.

Grays became very strong after the Second World War, winning the Essex Senior Cup in 1945 and winning the Corinthian League and Cup in 1946. They rejoined the Athenian League in 1958 where they remained until 1983.

In 1981 the Club Patron Mr Ron Billings purchased the ground and the Club was reformed as a Limited Company in 1982 under the guidance of Jeff and Fred Saxton. In 1983 a fire destroyed the 400-seater stand that included the dressing and kit rooms. Ron Billings came to the rescue by building the Ball Court Complex that included dressing rooms, club room and bar. Grays went on to become Division 2 Champions in 1985.

The 1987/88 season saw the Club promoted to the then Vauxhall Opel Premier League after amassing 100 points. They then won the Essex Senior Cup and the Essex Thameside Trophy. A great FA Cup run in 1988/89 ended in the First Round proper, losing 2-0 away at Bath City. Grays won the League Cup, defeating Enfield in 1991/92.

In 1993/94 and 1994/95 the Club won the Essex Senior Cup by defeating Billericay Town on both occasions.

Relegated to Division One in 1997, they returned to the Premier Division in 1999/00. The FA Cup campaign in 2000/01 ended with defeat in the First Round proper for the third time, losing 4-0 away at Reading. This signalled the start of major changes with Mike Woodward installed as Director of Football, Craig Edwards as Manager and the departure of Jeff and Fred Saxton after 25 years of loyal service. Season 2002/03 started poorly and saw Edwards depart, being replaced by Mark Stimson as player manager who appointed Scott Barrett as his assistant. Ahead of the 2003/04 season, the Club made the bold decision to turn most of the players into full time professionals, with the majority of players in their early twenties.

Despite being knocked out of the FA Cup in the second qualifying round, 2004/05 became the most successful in the Club's history. Stimson and his players won a number of manager and player of the month awards, with three players being called into the England National XI squad: Stuart Thurgood, Mitchell Cole and Dennis Oli. The ultimate success being crowned League Champions of the Nationwide Conference South and winning the FA Trophy; beating Hucknall Town on penalties at Villa Park. Additionally, the Recreation Ground had been upgraded sufficiently to allow for promotion into the Nationwide Conference for season 2005/06.

Mark Stimson's philosophy of entertaining the crowds proved to be very successful with a blend of youthful exuberance and the outstanding quality of the more experienced players. Having equalled the Conference record of Kettering Town and going unbeaten in the first 15 fixtures of the season, both manager and players alike won several monthly awards. A contentious 3-0 defeat at the hands of Mansfield Town in the FA Cup was put to one side as the team turned their attention to the FA Trophy and the league. The Club's first season in the top flight of non-league ended in disappointment as they finished 3rd in the league, and went on to lose 5-4 on aggregate to Halifax Town in the playoffs. The team put the loss behind them as they won a second successive FA Trophy, this time winning 2-0 against Woking at Upton Park in front of more than 8,000 of their own fans.

Following Mark Stimson's resignation, the Club appointed former European Cup winner Frank Gray to manage the side in the summer of 2006. Despite the pre-season expectations, Gray only lasted 18 matches before both Jamie Stuart and Mick Woodward had short spells in charge of the first team. Andy King was appointed manager, but his spell was short-lived and he left shortly afterwards, taking control of just seven matches. Justin Edinburgh was the club's 4th manager of the season, and under his leadership the Club reached the FA Trophy semi-finals where they lost to eventual winners Stevenage Borough. Survival in the League went to the last day of the season and despite losing 1-0 to Morecambe, the club stayed up courtesy of other results going their way. An extremely indifferent 2007/08 campaign ultimately led to the Edinburgh's departure, before once again Mick Woodward took the reins with Gary Phillips as his assistant. With only three defeats in the final 17 games, Grays only ended 11 points outside the playoffs. The management led the side into the following season, but Mick Woodward stepped down, and replaced himself with Wayne Burnett who stayed in the job for four months before leaving the Club. Gary Phillips was promoted from assistant manager for the remainder of the season and the club finished in 19th position.

2009/10 turned out to be the fifth and final in the Conference Premier as both John Moncur (Chairman) and Andy Swallow (Chief Executive) joined the Club. Julian Dicks was brought in to replace Gary Phillips in September 2009, and Kenny Brown was soon appointed his assistant after resigning from his position as manager of CD Javea in Spain.

The team struggled throughout the season, winning just five league matches and losing in their opening rounds of both the FA Cup and FA Trophy. The Blues did however manage to end the season on a high, winning two of their final three fixtures – the first of those away at AFC Wimbledon. In doing so, they recorded their first away league win for 16 months.

The final day of the season was a sad affair for the Club, as we said farewell to the Recreation Ground after 114 years. Both the team and the fans did their part, as the team came back to beat Forest Green Rovers 2-1 with Allseny Cissoko scoring the last goal at the ground. Following relegation, the Club resigned from the Conference, deciding they would be unable to field a competitive team in the Conference South due to budget constraints. Following talks with both the FA and the Ryman League, the Club were eventually placed in the Ryman League Division One North.

The end of that season saw the expiry of the lease at the Recreation Ground, and without a home, the Club agreed a two-year deal to play at Rookery Hill, home of near neighbours East Thurrock United. The 2011/12 season was our first at this level for ten years, and despite having a solid start to the league campaign, a lack of consistency was evident throughout the remainder of the season which meant the team came up short in several matches, finally finishing in tenth position.

Following the disappointing campaign Julian Dicks and Kenny Brown left the club by mutual consent, and the one-time Football League player and ex-Thurrock manager Hakan Hayrettin was appointed as manager with his assistant Hassan Oktay. With Hakan appointed, the remit was to challenge for a playoff place. Despite a few below par performances, the Club secured their playoff place on the penultimate weekend, meeting Enfield Town in the semi-final. Trailing 2-0 with ten minutes left, the team managed to force extra time with two late penalties. Unfortunately, with the match still level after extra time it was decided on penalties, with Grays losing 3-1.

The 2012/13 season was a very successful one for the Club. It started with a move to another temporary home, in Rush Green, Romford in partnership with West Ham United, the ground and its facilities were improved, with the Premier League side responsible for the maintenance of the pitch.

With just 4 league defeats and a run of form in the second half of the season which brought with it 18 successive league wins, the Club won the league with three matches to spare, finishing with a club record of 102 points. Two days after the title was secured, the side had the chance to complete the double, however they fell just short in the Essex Senior Cup final, losing 2-1 to Conference South side, AFC Hornchurch.

The summer of 2013 saw two big changes for the Club in a few short weeks. The stay at Rush Green was brought to an abrupt end, with near-neighbours Aveley stepping in with an offer of a ground share at the last minute. Everyone at the club is grateful to the Aveley Board for this. A short time after it was announced that Hakan Hayrettin would be leaving to join Luton Town. Experienced central defender Ryan Kirby took on the role, assisted by his father Steve Kirby and club captain Lee Flynn.

Season 2013/14 started with a great run of four straight victories including two against highly fancied teams and we led the League at the end of August. A solid start, but we all knew that to stay in that position would be a tough ask and so it proved, with only four wins in the next nine games. Joao Carlos and Jack West were scoring freely but the team was leaking goals and by the end of September we were lying in mid-table. A return to the team of fans' favourite Danny Bunce lifted the spirits of the supporters but the results still kept slipping away. A run of only five wins from October to the end of February saw Grays slip towards the relegation zone and a run of postponements due to heavy rain saw the mood within the camp at a low ebb. Even a run to the semi-finals of the League Cup couldn't lift the gloom. Everything changed when prolific scorer Leroy Griffiths returned to the Club almost ten years since leaving. His enthusiasm and character changed the Club's fortunes and with several other new signings the team found their confidence and fought their way back up the table with wins at regular intervals with Carlos, Dagenham & Redbridge loanee Joel Nouble and new signing Chris Benjamin scoring plenty of goals.

It took until the middle of April to catch up with the fixture backlog and the team had to play two or even three games a week, within which time they settled into a mid-table position - very commendable when you consider players have jobs outside football. The last game of the season saw the team lying in a safe position with a trip to high-flying Maidstone. Two coach loads of supporters and many more going by car meant that 150 fans travelled to Kent to cheer on the Blues. Although we lost a competitive game 2-1, everybody enjoyed the trip and gave the players a standing ovation at the final whistle, a great tribute to the thirty-odd players who had pulled on the shirt for our first season back in the Ryman Premier League in 10 years.

By the time the players got together for their first training session for the 2014/15 season on 28 June, we already had another new manager in place.

A few days earlier Ryan Kirby had announced his resignation with family and business reasons leading to his decision. It shows once again the time required to manage a Club at our level. The Club acted quickly to interview candidates for his replacement and selected 35 year-old Jody Brown, who had stepped into the breach at Heybridge Swifts in December 2013 when their management duo left to take over at Chelmsford City. Jody moved quickly to assess the strength of the squad at his disposal and introduce a number of new players to assist the club in its plans to improve on and off the field.

At the end of December 2014 Jody Brown departed to take over the manager's role at Conference National side Welling FC. Player Mark Bentley was installed as assistant manager to Andy Swallow, before taking over the role of caretaker manager in January 2015. In February 2015 the Club announced that Mark had been appointed permanent manager for the remainder of the 2014/15 season.

The season culminated in a superb run of results for the Club - including an unbeaten run of thirteen matches - which saw the team miss out on the playoffs as a result of a 94th minute goal elsewhere on the final day of the season.

The 2015/16 season was a real see-saw affair. A great start saw us top of the League after 10 games and a good FA Cup run took the Blues to the final qualifying round, but we lost in a replay to National League side, Welling United. As we approached Christmas, there was unrest within the squad as a number of players were being encouraged by agents to look further afield in their careers. By the end of the season, 20 registered players had left the club, as owner, Andy Swallow, decided it was time to reduce his financial support for the Club. A run of ten straight defeats saw us finish in 15th place in the League, with many youngsters filling the gaps in the squad left by the departed players.

After Andy Swallow announced that he was stepping back from the day to day running of the Club to concentrate his efforts on the long term plan to relocate the Club back to Grays, a group of supporters set about creating a new Supporter Owned Club. A successful community share offer was launched at the end of June to demonstrate the club's financial viability for the 2016/17 season. This gave the Club the confidence to apply to the FA and the Ryman League for permission to transfer its membership from the company that ran the Club to a new organisation - "Grays Athletic Community Football Club". In November 2016 Grays Athletic Community Football Club received official confirmation from the FA and League that the transfer of ownership had been approved.

The 2016/17 season was always going to be one of transition with the club moving from private to supporter ownership. On the field, former playing legend, Jamie Stuart returned as player/manager, but he had to start from scratch with a new squad of players. 60 players attended pre-season trials and a squad was eventually chosen to represent the Club in the Ryman Premier Division. It proved to be a difficult season, with the team spending most of the season at the bottom of the table. Relegation was confirmed with a 1-0 away defeat at Wingate and Finchley on 1 April 2017. Off the field, the Club was pleased with the galvanising effect supporter ownership was having, despite the prospect of a return to Isthmian Division One North football after four seasons in the Premier Division.

2017/18 was very disappointing even though Jamie Stuart brought three experienced former Grays' players – midfielder, Barry Cogan and forwards, Dennis Oli and Jamie Slabber, into the fold in pre-season and later recruited former defenders, Richard Halle and Joe Bruce. We spent most of the season hovering around the top ten without really threatening the leading pack. By the end of March, we were on course to finish in the top half of the table, but a run of five consecutive defeats in April, saw us finish 16th out of 24. The Club is progressing its plans to "Bring Grays Athletic back to Grays". We are working closely with Thurrock Council on their long-term sports and leisure strategy and with the William Edwards School who have been given Government approval to build a new secondary school under the "free school programme" in Grays. We are running 32 teams this season, including 25 youth teams (two of which are girls' teams) and three walking football teams. Our age range runs from five to seventy-five! Our objective is to have a new community stadium in Grays, with provision for additional youth and training pitches and an educational base for sport-related qualifications. In the meantime, we continue to groundshare with Aveyley FC at their superbly appointed Parkside Stadium.

Tommy originally joined us from Hertford Town and scored in the 87th minute of his debut against Maldon on 10 February 2018, helping us salvaging a point in the 2-2 draw. Last season, he made twelve appearances and scored six goals, endearing himself to our supporters with his battling displays. He returned to Hertford in the summer, but moved on to Cheshunt for a very short spell. In October 2018, Tommy decided to accept Jamie Stuart's offer to return to The Blues.

Born On This Day

9th February

Cyrille Regis, MBE
(9 February 1958 – 14 January 2018)

Cryille was an English international footballer who played as a forward. His professional playing career spanned 19 years, where he made 614 league appearances and scored 158 league goals, most prolifically at West Bromwich Albion and Coventry City. Regis also won five caps with the England national team.

Non-League

The 1975–76 season saw Regis move to Athenian League club Molesey, for whom he scored around 25 goals during his one campaign for the club. He was then approached by Boreham Wood, but did not join them. Instead he went on to join semi-professional Hayes of the Isthmian League, signing on 7 July 1976.

Regis was spotted by West Bromwich Albion's chief scout Ronnie Allen, who recommended that the First Division club should sign him. With the Albion directors unsure of paying a four-figure fee for such a young, unproven player, Allen offered to fund any initial payment from his own pocket, so sure was he that Regis would make it in the top tier of English football. The transfer took place in May 1977, for an up-front fee of £5,000, plus another £5,000 after 20 appearances. Regis's dual French and British nationality made him eligible to play for either the English or French national sides, but it was England that he chose to represent. He made his England under-21 debut on 19 September 1978, in a 2–1 victory over the Denmark under-21s in Hvidovre. His first England B game was a 1–0 win against Czechoslovakia B in Prague on 28 November 1978. He played in two further matches for the B team in 1980. He scored his first goal for the England under-21s on 5 June 1979, in a 3–1 away win against Bulgaria. The result helped England reach the latter stages of the 1980 European Championship, although it was the only one out of six qualifying matches in which Regis participated. He played in the away legs of both the quarter-final and semi-final, where England lost to East Germany. In all he played six times for the under-21s, scoring three goals.

Despite winning five caps for the full England side, Regis never played the full 90 minutes for his country at senior level; he played as a substitute three times and was himself substituted twice. He made his international debut on 23 February 1982 in a 4–0 win over Northern Ireland in the Home International Championship at Wembley. Regis came on as a substitute for Trevor Francis in the 65th minute. His final international appearance for England was in 1987 against Turkey at Wembley, which ended in an 8–0 win for the home side, where he came on for the last 20 minutes. He was the third black player to be capped by England at the highest level after Viv Anderson and Laurie Cunningham.

Gordon David Strachan OBE

(9 February 1957)

Gordon is a Scottish football manager and former player, who was the manager of the Scotland national team. Strachan played for Dundee, Aberdeen, Manchester United, Leeds United and Coventry City, as well as the Scotland national team. He has managed Coventry City, Southampton, Celtic and Middlesbrough. In club football, he played 635 league games, scoring a total of 138 goals, playing 21 of 25 career seasons in either the English or Scottish top-flight. In international football Strachan earned 50 caps, scoring five goals and playing in two FIFA World Cup final tournaments, Spain 82 and Mexico 86. Strachan retired from playing in 1997 at age 40, setting a Premier League record for an outfield player.

Born and raised in Muirhouse, Edinburgh, Strachan supported Hibernian as a boy. His father, Jim, worked as a scaffolder, and his mother, Catherine, worked at a whisky distillery. At age 15, he damaged his vision playing football on the school playground when a pen in his pocket became lodged in his right eye; the pen came within "a thousandth of an inch" of permanently costing him the vision in his eye. He was offered a contract by Hibernian manager Eddie Turnbull, but his father decided against the offer after stating the club did not pay sufficient expenses for footwear.

Darren Ferguson

(born 9 February 1972)

Darren is a Scottish professional football manager and former player, who is currently the manager of League One club Peterborough United. Between his first and third stints with Peterborough, he also managed Preston North End and Doncaster Rovers. As a player, Ferguson was managed at Manchester United by his father, Sir Alex Ferguson. He won a Premier League title and the FA Charity Shield in 1993 with the club before going on to spend most of his career at Wolverhampton Wanderers and Wrexham in the lower divisions of English football.

Ferguson's first managerial appointment was as player-manager of League Two Peterborough United in January 2007. After two successive promotions, and guiding the club to the second-tier of English football for the first time in 17 seasons, Ferguson was relieved of his duties on 9 November 2009, with Peterborough United at the foot of The Championship.

Ferguson was appointed Preston North End manager on 6 January 2010. He was dismissed on 29 December 2010 after a string of poor results. On 12 January 2011, he was again appointed as the manager of Peterborough United, where he took the club to the League One play-off Final at Old Trafford, and in this match won promotion to the Football League Championship, the club's third promotion in four years, with a 3–0 victory over Huddersfield Town.

Peterborough United spent two seasons in the Championship after winning promotion. On 4 May 2013, Ferguson's side were relegated to League One after losing to Crystal Palace 3–2 on the final match of the season.

V A BLOODY R.

For years the debate around technology raged. Should football have it? Should it not? Will it help? Will it take away the spontaneity and disrupt the flow of the game?

The answers still aren't all that clear. In last year's Russian World Cup there were some decisions where its use made absolute sense. There were others times that left everyone scratching their heads.

Essentially it is used in four scenarios. Goals and whether there was a violation in the build-up like an offside or foul. The next is for penalty decisions – general fouls aren't reviewable unless it is a direct red card. And the final option is for cases of mistaken identity when yellow or red cards are issued.

The system is something everyone is clearly getting used to – referees, players and fans. That is a big part of the problem. Having held off for so long, it's like to football powers were so desperate to use it that the process has been completely rushed.

Supporters inside the stadium and at home watching on TV don't fully know what is happening.

In cricket and rugby, we at least hear the conversation between the officials. In American Football, decisions are literally announced to the crowd.

But football too often treats its fans - customers - like a school child with a box of matches. The lack of transparency that masks many areas of the game is the same here. Eventually showing a replay doesn't really cut it. Clips should be shown inside stadiums and we should hear the officials arrive at their verdict.

Instead fans in the ground wait for a man with his finger in his ear to make an arm signal.

VAR is not something Non-League clubs are going to be worrying about any time soon, if ever.

Apart from when it comes to the FA Cup. The system was introduced during last year's competition.

Let's be clear. If correct decisions are being reached because of it, then all well and good.

But surely there has to be a level playing field. The fact is, not all grounds have it.

Take the other weekend, for example. Championship side Sheffield Wednesday were awarded a penalty at Chelsea. VAR was in operation, the decision was looked at and the Chelsea defender clearly won the ball. Penalty overturned and on we go – although Wednesday would have felt they should instead have been awarded a corner rather than the drop ball that restarted the game.

Last Monday night, Barnet had Brentford on the ropes. Having fallen behind, Darren Currie's side swung the tie back their way with two quick goals from Shaq Coulthirst.

But just seven minutes later, Brentford were thrown a lifeline. Referee Andy Madley adjudged David Tutonda to have fouled Ollie Watkins in the box. Replays clearly show there was no contact. It's not even up for debate. Watkins, probably expecting contact, went down untouched. He's since apologised.

Despite the game being shown live on BT Sport and replays within seconds showing a clear angle, there was nothing that could be done because VAR was having the night off.

Brentford scored, went on to take the lead before Dan Sparkes' wonderful free-kick made it 3-3 and booked a replay.

It's all Sliding Doors, but who's to say if VAR had been deployed that Barnet wouldn't have gone on to win the game 2-1 and proceed to the fifth round, banking £180,000 while they're at it?

There has to be parity across the competition to keep its integrity. VAR should only come into operation from a certain stage, say, the quarter-finals. Where it is likely most clubs will be in the Premier League and able to cope with what is needed or arrangements can be made.

It can't be one set of rules for the fortunate big boys and another for the so-called minnows.

WHEN YOU SEE RED, ARE YOU SURE IT'S NOT GREEN, OR BLACK?

NORMAL VISION

COLOUR-BLIND SIMULATION (PROTANOPIA)

Approximately one in 12 men inherit colour blindness. It's carried on the X-chromosome, so only one in 200 women inherit the condition.

It can be a real issue in football, whether you're watching, playing, managing or officiating. Imagine not being able to tell the difference between kit colours and how that would affect you, your teammate or your child.

There are three types of colour blindness – and myriad colour combinations which cause problems. The common perception that colour-blind people only confuse reds and greens is a myth.

The FA has been working closely with UEFA and specialist organisation Colour Blind Awareness to highlight the issue. The intention is to positively influence decision-makers at every level of the game and improve the experience of colour-blind people – whatever their involvement in football.

This work has seen the production of a comprehensive guidance booklet. You can read and download it at www.TheFA.com/colourblindness

And please visit the Colour Blind Awareness website: colourblindawareness.org for ways you can help maximise awareness.

Together, let's make sure football's future is FOR ALL.
