

PEACEHAVEN FOOTBALLERS' FIRST ANNUAL DINNER

Seventy lusty good sportsmen and true thoroughly enjoyed themselves in the spacious dining-room at the Hotel Peacehaven, on Friday, May 30th, on the occasion of the first Annual Dinner of the Peacehaven Football Club.

In the unavoidable absence of the President (Mr. C. W. Neville, Founder of Peacehaven), Mr. Wallace Sangster (Vice-President) occupied the Chair, and was supported by Mr. W. Turner, Mr. A. F. Whitefield (Hon. Secretary and Treasurer), Mr. Frank Thornton (Captain), Mr. H. Sanders (Vice-Captain), Mr. Felix Powell and others. Letters regretting inability to be present were read from Mr. C. W. Neville and Mr. M. Blakeney Pizzey (Vice-President).

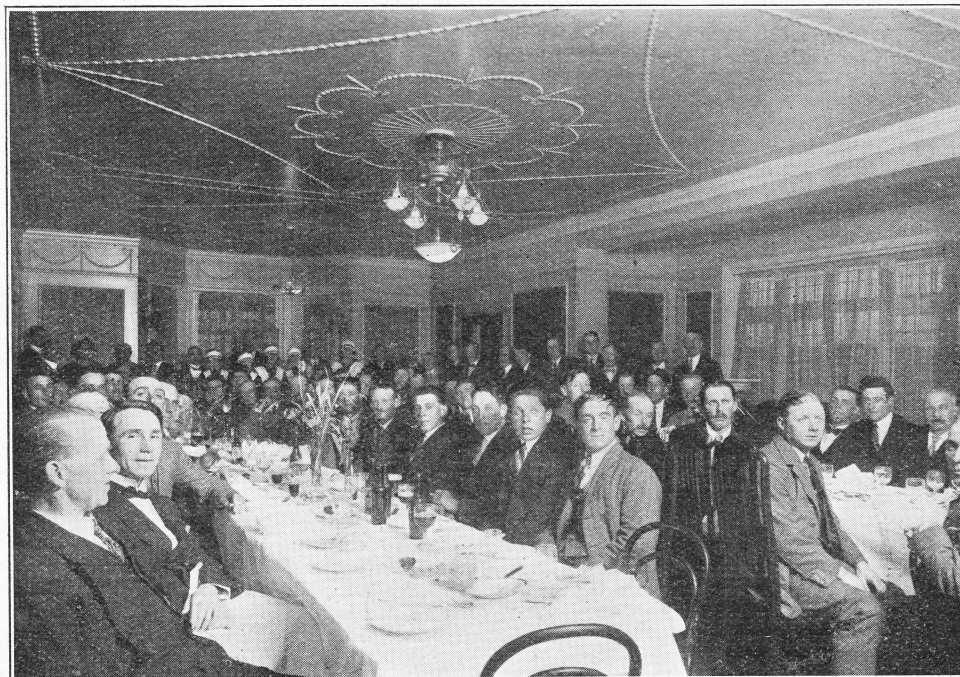

The Club's splendid record during the past season (details of which appeared in the June Post) was referred to by Mr. W. Turner in glowing terms, who observed that that success was due to the clean and keen sportsmanship of their players and to the work of the Committee, particularly that of Mr. Whitefield, their Secretary and Treasurer. (Applause.) Thanks were also due to Mr. Neville for the loan of the Peacehaven char-à-banc, without which the Club would not have been able to fulfil all its engagements. (Hear, hear!) Next season the Club hoped to be in the Brighton League, and they looked forward to that season with every confidence. The speaker had much pleasure in proposing the health of Mr. Whitefield. (Applause.)

Mr. Whitefield's motto is: "Deeds, not words." His reply was brief. He thanked Mr. Turner for his remarks, and the President and Vice-Presidents for all they had done to further the interests of the Club, and concluded with a word for THE DOWNLAND POST for publicity given the team.

The health of the Captain, Mr. Frank Thornton, proposed by the Chairman, was accorded musical honours, while thanks were also tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Morris (Manager and Manageress of the Hotel Peacehaven) for the splendid catering arrangements.

A capital musical programme was sustained by the Countess Sparabier, Mrs. Morris, Mr. Avas, Mr. J. Howarth, Mr. G. Buck, Mr. Dudley Sangster, Mr. G. Taylor, Mr. Felix Powell, Mr. E. Schofield and Dick Eveleigh's popular dance band.

This flashlight photo, taken by Messrs. Allens, Peacehaven, conveys an excellent impression of the pleasing interior of the Dining Room of the Hotel Peacehaven.
