

RFU

ALL SCHOOLS COACH WANTED

Responsibilities:

Deliver high quality coaching to groups, and in environments, as directed by the Rugby Development Officer

Support teachers and other adults in schools to introduce the game to students and to improve the quality of rugby experience and provision

Contribute to the growth of the numbers playing rugby and transitioning into rugby clubs and/or those who are regularly playing rugby in other environments

Maintain high professional standards and the promotion of these standards in the schools you coach in.

Report activity and output as required

Act as an ambassador for, and promote the best interests of the RFU at all times, including the promotion of the RFU Core Values.

Skills & Personal Attributes:

Able to communicate effectively and to present a highly professional image when representing the RFU

Able to establish positive working relationships with voluntary and professional staff in schools

Able to balance a determined application of the role with a sense of fun and enjoyment

Demonstrate a thorough approach to delivery and be able to organise themselves and others effectively

A strong empathy with those becoming involved in Rugby for the first time

Proven time management and prioritisation skills

Hold a current driving license and have a car available for work

Good I.T. skills and be competent in the use of e-mail and Microsoft Office applications - Word, Excel and PowerPoint

Hold an RFU England Rugby Coaching Award (Level 2)

Additional Information:

All Role Holders must maintain an appropriate standard of confidentiality. Any disclosures of confidential information (including personal information kept on computer or other media) made unlawfully outside the proper course of duty will be treated as a serious disciplinary offence.

Role Holders must be willing to be observed whilst coaching and contribute in a process of self-reflection and personal improvement in relation to their coaching.

The role description, person specification, role grade and role title may be subject to change at the discretion of the RFU and in accordance with business developments. Any changes will be communicated to the role holder as appropriate.

