

particularly for the Colts teams.

Just before the roundabout, opposite the pond at the Sanderstead end of the Limpsfield Road, is the entrance to a well hidden secret in Sanderstead. The sign says "Old Saw Mill" but in reality it is the home of Sanderstead Cricket and Hockey Clubs.

The Clubhouse is friendly and inviting and fully equipped with a cosy bar. The Club stage several social events each year including a Summer BBQ, Race Nights and Quiz Nights.

On a competitive level the Club has enjoyed great success in recent years and has earned a healthy respect in the local leagues they play in.
