Good Afternoon and welcome to the SRD Stadium for this evenings league game against AFC Rushden & Diamonds.

To Andy Peaks, his team, officials and fans of AFC Rushden & Diamonds, I hope you had a pleasant journey over to Aylesbury this evening.

We come into todays game on the back of two defeats, one where we played AFC Dunstable who are themselves chasing for promotion and on saturday where we lost out to Chalfont St Peter, on a day where we certainly weren't our best. Whereas the game was close for much of the afternoon, we weren't as clinical as we should have been in front of the goal, which allowed Chalfont to get their second and take all three points, so this evening we will be looking for a much improved performance for the fans.

Today we face probably our toughest challenge of the season, Rushden are very much in form and at the time of writing this, they sit top of the league. Rushden will bring tremendous support and we will need to be at the top of our game and dig in on a challenging surface if we want to get all three points today.

I would like to give a special mention to one of our sponsors and supporters, GymFit4Less. The squad have been training in the gym the last couple of weeks and we really appreciate being able to use the fantastic equipment on offer. Charlie and the team are brilliant and I can highly recommend the gym to anyone reading my notes looking to get fit.

As always I would like to thank the fans, volunteers and committee. All your support and efforts are appreciated by players and management team alike, today we hope you enjoy the game.

Alan Penman

Today we welcome officials, players and supporters of AFC Rushden & Diamonds, who are currently flying high in the League. I know they have always had a good travelling away support so that should create a lively atmosphere today.

I can remember taking my sons to watch Rushden & Diamonds in their previous incarnation when they played Carlisle in League 2 with an attendance of more than 6,000 in that beautiful new stadium. They have suffered some hard time since but now appear to be back on the up, moving back this year to Rushden in a groundshare with Rushden & Higham United.

How times have changed though and it is a reminder that football clubs need a solid financial foundation and that sudden injections of cash can normally not be maintained.

Recently there have been rumours circulating about a potential merger with Aylesbury United and a lot of speculation on social media suggesting the same, I can confirm this is not on the agenda at this point, BUT we must explore all options to ensure we will continue to enjoy football at Haywood Way and that is something I will continue to do over the next few months.

Enjoy the game today and see you in the bar after the game.

Introducing AFC Rushden & Diamonds

After reaching the play-offs again last season in the Northern League Division One South, AFC Rushden and Diamonds are flying high in the league so far.

Diamonds are forever as the song goes. Well for FC Diamonds are forever causing us a headache! After knocking us off of top spot in the Cambridge City Chippy League, FC look for revenge today against an AFC Rushden & Diamonds side in fine form.

2 victories from 2 meetings in the 2015/16 season when AFC Rushden won promotion to the Southern League, they couldn't quite push on for another promotion that year, losing out to St Ives in the play-off final. A move to the Northern League Division One South the following season ended in similar fashion falling out in the play-off semi final to Witton

Albion 1-0.

Back in the Southern League for another season, AFC Rushden and Diamonds will be looking to take advantage of the 2nd automatic spot becoming available to finally move up into Step 3 of the Non League pyramid, and have certainly made a good start to the season.

Diamonds have been winning game after game, being clinical in front of goal and miserly in defence. Having conceded only the once to Kempston recently, which was their first goal conceded in the league since November 11th.

LAST TIME WE MET

A look back to two seasons ago when the Moles and Diamonds faced off against each other in the league.

September 19th 2015

FC took time to settle and an early Diamonds corner bamboozled the whole FC defence before going to safety. Tom Lorraine forced James Weatherill into a smart save soon afterwards with the only goal of the game arriving a couple of minutes' later. Diamonds' Brad Harris had his shot blocked in the box and Lorraine was the most alert man on the field as he hit the rebound past FC's Weatherill.

FC's final chance fell to Brian Haule. As the powerful striker bore down on goal, an outstretched defender's boot blocked his route and the chance went begging. FULL TIME 1-0 Diamonds

January 23rd 2016

The Diamonds did though take the lead on 23 minutes, Andy Hall's shot from the edge of the box appeared at first glance to be tipped around the post by the FC Keeper but the immediate reaction of the away side soon indicated to everyone that the ball had in fact gone through a hole in the net. After some deliberation between the officials a goal was awarded.

The away side who extended their lead on 35 minutes when Jon Stevenson picked the ball up on the edge of the box and fired past the right hand of Weatherill. Soon after the ball fell to Rudd 25 yards out after a clearance and he smashed it into the top corner to reduce the arrears.

Diamonds restored their two goal lead on 51 minutes when James Dobson failed to clear the ball and it fell Shawn Richards 8 yards out and he fired home with his left foot.

On 89 minute the Aylesbury pressure paid off, A Rushden defender was robbed off the ball just outside the box by Lynton Goss who crossed for Brian Haule to prod home. Diamonds nerves were settled though when into injury time a poor back pass by Jeanmal Prosper was intercepted by substitute Claudie Hoban who scored easily to restore the two goal advantage.

FULL TIME 4-2 Diamonds

JOOLS THOMAS

WRITTEN IN 2009

Just how cool were those guys? It must have been 1982 and I was still a little 12 year old in East Manchester. The lads: Adj, Rick and Paul all dressed in their full Sergio Tacchini and Fila tracksuits wearing Adidas Rom, Adidas Jeans and Diadora Borg Elites. Their clothes seemed to dazzle and then I looked at myself. I was wearing a pair of drainpipe jeans, Slazenger sweater and black Gola pumps.

Shopping for me was Mossley Sports or Ron Hill in Stalybridge. Clothes were a birthday or a christmas treat. Fun trips to the swimming baths in Oldham would involve a diversion to Romida Sports to gaze along with the multitudes at the Fila, Ellesse and Lacoste gear all locked in glass cabinets like jewellery (I later learned this was to deter gangs of 'steamers'.) Legends arose of infamous lightning raids of Moss side and Hulme gangs on Hurley's Sports in Picadilly.

At school, kids would turn up with the additions of Pringle sweaters, Farah trousers, Kickers or Pods. School trips became mini fashion shows. I remember being about 14 and turning up for a trip to an old coal mine in Longton dressed in a Cerruti sweater, Lois jumbo cords and a pair of lovely tan Adidas slip-on golf shoes.

Even though I looked the business, I wasn't going to league football regularly. My mum was scared because of the bad reputation of the game and I was always interested in the football rather than the bother. I preferred going to the Non-League; it was cheaper, a lot of my friends - and my dad - went and I could always have a cheeky beer in the clubhouse without anyone being too bothered. My team was, and still is, Mossley AFC, my hometown club.

Whilst the early eighties saw trouble at league grounds, non-league had the reputations as a 'bit of a one man and his dog' pasttime. And to an extent, that was and still is true. The only exceptions were cup matches, local derbies and games in dodgy towns. An FA Trophy quarter final at Bangor City in 1981 attended by some 2,500 saw running battles in the North Wales town, before and after the game. Also as the train pulled away from the station after the game the bricks came flying through the windows. An easter derby against local rivals Hyde United resulted in large scale fisticuffs once too. The other place where trouble was always guaranteed was South Liverpool FC, based in Garston, a tough old dockers area of Merseyside. Little wonder the club went out of business after vandals burnt down the clubhouse and trashed the rest of the place.

The high - or low - point was the Northern Premier League Cup final in 1989. The game was played at Maine Road, just days after the Hillsborough disaster and attracted a good non-league crowd of 2000. The plan was to split the main stand between Mossley and Fleetwood Town fans a couple of friendly bobbies to oversee events. Those two officers were quickly on their radios calling for backup as gangs of opposing fans faced off against each others and began rushing backwards and forwards throughout the game. ack up was called for from a United vs City reserves game. Those fans ejected continued the battles in the Moss Side streets. The result and goings on were front page of the Manchester Evening News the next day, and Manchester City were banned from holding Non-League finals at Maine Road. A ban which has continued over to Eastlands, where the new stadium will never see a repeat of Mossleys 2-1 triumph that day.

My choice of clothes had changed by then. Favourite shops in Manchester were DeGuy and Voi in and around the royal exchange. Brands were C17, Radio, Ciao and Sonnetti. I also loved the Manchester music scene with the band t-shirts, Go Vicinity flares and multi-coloured Kickers.

A return to my home town some three years ago after an absence has seen me renew my interest in football and in Mossley AFC. I've gone from a few games when I first returned, to most games home and away - my interest has been rekindled in my home town team. Ironically, there are a few lads my age who for various reasons don't go to City or United anymore; so you spot a few labels around Seel Park. The sight of Lacoste jackets, Fjallraven coats, and a vast number of Adidas eighties'-style is not uncommon amongst other brands. And a few nods are exchanged at the match when you see lads in similar garb from visiting teams.

The clothes are now back to the early eighties look of Fila trackies, Lyle & Scott polos, Levi's 501's and Adidas Stan Smith trainers for the younger element too.

A look at the Non-League scene still sees a very homely, some would say nerdy, view of football. Again this is not an unfair view, there are quite a few rather square chaps at games. That not to say there isn't trouble. Chalfont St Peter versus Glossop North End in the 2009 FA Vase Semi Final witnessed trouble. Though this was certainly due to drunken excesses, as opposed to any organised activities. Our old friends at Fleetwood Town have a reputation when travelling away and reading on the many non-league forums their reputation goes before them. FC United of Manchester, the breakaway club from the Glazer owned Manchester United, have attracted many hangers-on and I've witnessed personally local Mossley youths face off with their so-called support after a league game in 2008. For a regular game, there are no distractions from the football; although an away game at FC Halifax Town or an FA Cup game at Curzon Ashton can have you looking over your shoulder.

Forward wind to 2009 when I moved to Aylesbury for work. I looked up FC on Google maps and eventually found myself to Haywood Way and knowing no one, took my spot in the stand. As it always the case, you get talking to folk. Mike, Mr Fish and Danny of course made me feel welcome. 10-0 and 9-0 wins in those first few games certainly meant I had timed my initial visits to the club well as the club won the Spartan League and promotion to the Southern League.

The next season, Danny "volunteered" me to write the match reports and I've been doing it ever since. Sometimes, it's a pleasure to write, other times you don't know what you're going to say. Whatever the outcome, I'm always grateful to FC for being so welcoming. Long may those days continue.

The truth being, there is not enough people to develop a scene as such. Not that I'd want a return to bygone days. Average crowds at Mossley are around the 200 mark and we are one of the better supported teams in our division, the Northern Premier League Division One North. Only I would rather watch non-league than any other form of football nowadays.

League roundup

The top three in the Evo-Stik League South East all won on Saturday, so it's as you were, with AFC Rushden & Diamonds holding a two-point lead over AFC Dunstable and three over Beaconsfield Town.

Diamonds extended their unbeaten run in the league to thirteen games as they won 4-0 at Calthorpe Park against Fleet Town. Diamonds took an early 6th minute lead when Ben Farrell curled home a 20-yard effort. The visitors doubled their advantage 2 minutes before the break when the appropriately-named Ben Diamond headed home Luke Fairlamb's cross. And two goals in the space of 6 second half minutes around the hour-mark from Joel Gyasi and Fairlamb with a free-kick wrapped up a comfortable win for the visitors.

AFC Dunstable were 3-1 winners at tenth-placed Ashford Town (Middx), taking a 37th minute lead through BJ Christie. But Max Herbert's 64th minute equaliser looked like earning the Ash Trees a point, until Jermaine Hall popped up with a brace in the final 8 minutes to seal the away win.

Beaconsfield enjoyed a good best-of-five goal win against fellow top six contenders, Cambridge City. Star of the show for the hosts was Aaron Minhas, who netted a hat-trick in the 51st, 81st and 86th minutes – Ryan Sharman on 56 minutes and James Hall on 76 minutes replying for City.

City dropped to fifth as Hayes & Yeading United moved above them following a 1-0 win at Thame United. Ismael Ehui's goal 5 minutes into the second half proved decisive.

Moneyfields cling on to sixth spot but were beaten 3-0 at lower mid-table Marlow. The hosts led at the break, thanks to a 33rd minute Kelvin Bossman effort. Kamaron English added a second 20 minutes from time, with an 81st minute Junaid Bell goal killing the game off as a contest.

Hartley Wintney moved to within three points of Moneys with three games in hand after winning 4-1 at second-bottom Hanwell Town. Hanwell led 1-0 through Harvey Killeen's 16th minute effort and 2-1 with a second for Killeen on the half-hour mark after Rowan Vine had equalised a minute earlier. But goals from Paul Hodges just before the break, Liam Eagle on 74 minutes and Jake Baxter 7 minutes from time sealed the Hampshire side's win.

Chalfont St Peter are level on points with Hartley Wintney after recording a 2-0 win at Aylesbury FC. The Moles fell behind to a 38th minute George Beattie goal and Mahlondo Martin added a second 19 minutes from the end.

And Kempston Rovers are just a point further back in ninth after an emphatic 4-1 win at Hillgrounds against mid-table Uxbridge. Josh Crawley bagged a brace for the Walnut Boys in the 35th and 67th minutes, with Jake Newman sandwiching those on the hour-mark and Luke Heneghan adding the other on 88 minutes, just before a Kevin Warner consolation for the Reds.

A late goal secured three points for Bedford Town at the New Eyrie against Egham Town. Bedford went in front via a James Peters header on 26 minutes. Egham equalised in the 64th minute when Brendan Matthews scored from 5 yards out. The home fans had to wait until the 86th minute to celebrate the winning goal when sub Jemale McKenzie-Lowe fired in a screamer from the edge of the box.

Arlesey Town are looking in deep trouble now after a 3-1 defeat at managerless Northwood left them ten points adrift at the bottom. Harry Newman opened the Wood scoring after 27 minutes and then a Mesach Williams brace on 32 and 61 minutes sealed victory, despite Tashriq Andrews' reply.

Barton Rovers dropped to third-bottom again after losing 2-0 at Sharpenhoe Road to the team who were below them before kick-off and now above them, Aylesbury United. Jack Wood just before the break and Sonny French 2 minutes from time were the Ducks on target.

FAN'S FOCUS!

NAME: MIKE FARQUHARSON
AGE: 54

FIRST FC GAME ATTENDED?

Langford Away FA Cup 2009 - Won 6-0 in 30 degree heat FC wearing a striking Italian style all Blue AWAY Kit.

BEST MATCH SEEN AND WHY?

First "El Quackico" Aug 2013 in the FA Cup on Bank Holiday Monday, everyone was so nervous the week leading up to the game but we needn't have worried with Hauley and Pricey netting for a 3-1 win.

BEST FC GOAL SEEN?

Any Pricey goal, and there have been a few, where he cuts in from the left and curls the ball into the far top corner from outside the edge of the box.

WORST MATCH?

The playoff defeat at home to Bedworth who we'd easily beaten in the league game 3-0 only a few weeks before.

WORST GROUND?

Arlesey, newish ground but obviously lacking volunteers with weeds growing everywhere.

FAVOURITE GROUND YOU'VE SEEN FC PLAY AT?

Berkhamsted FC, love that ground apart from the parking! I know it's only been friendlies but it's a nice club.

FUNNIEST MOMENT IN AN FC GAME?

Generally the banter with me and Jools talking nonsense during the match. Leaving little messages on his match note recordings everytime he pops off to the loo :-)

FAVOURITE ALL TIME FC PLAYER?

David King, superb right back went on to play for Hemel Hempstead Town and most recently Oxford City. (right)

BEST ALL TIME FC LINE UP?

Keeper: James Weatherill Defence: David King, Lee Grace, Kyle Anthony, Ben Stevens Midfield: Brad Wadkins, Kwasi Frempong, Gareth Price, Sonny French Strikers: Craig Henney, Ricky Miller.

BEST THING ABOUT AYLESBURY FC?

Kebab Meat and Chips at the Fishes Tea Bar.

PREDICTION FOR RUSHDEN

My prediction is 2-2. Rushden are a good team in this league and with their support and income streams should be fighting at least for a play off spot. They will be there or thereabouts along with Cambridge and Moneyfields but I think we raise our game against the top sides and they won't like the conditions at Haywood Way, especially if we have a wet week!
