Good Afternoon and welcome to the SRD Stadium for this afternoon's league game against Fleet Town.

To, Steve Dormer, Andy Hunt and their team, officials and fans of Fleet, I hope you had a pleasant journey over to Aylesbury.

We have not had a good start to 2018, infact I would go as far as to say its been a poor start. Today we face a strong Fleet side who sit close to us in the table so it is important that the team respond with a performance and get some points which will see us start moving in the right direction in the table.

This is the third first team game in seven days on our pitch which has taken a battering this winter thanks to the elements, I would like to acknowledge the ground staff who do their very best to ensure we get a game on, so thanks Dave and team! Home games have been a bit like London buses, none for ages and then three in a week which have added to the challenge!

As always I would like to thank the fans, volunteers and committee. All your support and efforts are appreciated by players and management team alike, today we hope you enjoy the game.

Alan Penman

Today I would like to welcome the fans, players and staff of Fleet Town. I hope the long journey over was a pleasant one, and thank you to the Fleet fans who have made the journey over to Aylesbury today.

Both teams go into today's game on level pegging, sitting at the wrong end of the table, this will no doubt be a tough game for both sides and I expect a close game, but I'm sure the boys can put a good performance and come away with the three points.

I have been trying to strengthen the management Committee recently and we are delighted to announce Tony Masella as our new Director of Football, many of you will know him and his history, he will be teaming up again with vice chairman Steve McDonald to make an impact on club affairs, so welcome Tony.

I am disappointed to see attendances dropping recently, I know it's cold and money is tight, but we want to see more fans coming through the gate, and also to bring in some more of the local youth to support their local team. If anyone has any ideas as to how we can help boost the crowds at Haywood Way, please do not hesitate to get in touch with me so we can work on this together.

So for today's game, I hope you all enjoy the spectacle on show and see you in the bar after for a drink.

Report by Jools Thomas

FC fell to a heavy defeat against leader leaders AFC Rushden & Diamonds on a bitter night at the SRD Stadium. There can be little doubt of FC's enthusiasm in giving their high flying visitors a game but a combination of overall quality and goal scoring efficiency was enough to give Rushden the win.

It was during the opening first 20 minutes of the game that the game was lost. Within the first minute AFC had forced two corners, the 2nd of which saw Luke Fairlamb hit an effort that FC keeper Ashley Jenkins did well to palm away. The first goal came on 12 minutes. A cross from the left hand side found Tom Lorraine unmarked in the box and his guided header beat Jenkins without too much effort.

That vulnerability from crosses was exposed just five minutes as Joel Farrell poked his sides' second after a lobbed cross, this time from the right. Inevitably, perhaps, Rushden's third goal followed on 25 minutes and yet again it was a high cross that caused the panic ending with Liam Dolman nodding home with a stooping header.

Ty Deacon then launched a shot from an angle which whistled just wide of the post. The final minutes of the game belonged to the visitors however. Ben Diamond pulled his shot wide on 88 minutes and as the game entered injury time, Derek Feyi brought his man down just within the penalty area with the referee having no option but to award a penalty. Rushden captain Liam Dolman hit the spot kick with some force to give his side their 4-0 lead and all three points.

Introducing Fleet Town

After a poor season start to the season, the Blues seem to have stabilised and improved results to move away from the relegation zone.

After being moved around several divisions in the past few years, Fleet were moved back into the Southern League Division One Central for the 2015/16 season where they finished 17th, and 14th the year after.

Fleet had a very poor start to the season, picking up just points until they played Uxbridge in September and in some style beat the Red Army 6-0. However further losses continued and it wasn't until they defeated Marlow and Aylesbury FC that their fortunes seemed to improve. An impressive performance against FC led to two victories over Barton Rovers and Egham, and a draw with Kempston to see them get some breathing space over Arlesey and move up the table. Further impressive draws in December against promotion contenders AFC Dunstable and Moneyfields was further testament to the Blues revived success.

Fleet also secured the signing of stiker Patrik Ruzicka from Farnborough who had been on a temporary loan from the club. The forward caused nothing but trouble for the FC defence so will be a valuable asset to the Blues.

LAST TIME WE MET

A look back to a cold and miserable November afternoon as the Moles lost out to Fleet in the league a few months back.

November 11th 2017

Fleet's Patrik Ruzicka guided in an effort as early as the 3rd minute which FC keeper Ash Jenkins gently shepherded out to safety. Shayne Almond responded in a moment of rare quality as he curled a terrific shot from the left, which just whizzed the wrong side of the Fleet post. Almond looked lively in the opening few minutes and soon afterwards, he again found himself in a decent position but he could slice his shot wide when composure was the name of the game.

Ryan Marklew beat Ash Jenkins hands up in the 21st minute and the midfielder must have been surprised to see his effort cannon off the post when a goal seemed a certainty. As the half ended, FC had their best chance of the game. Ty Deacon broke clear of his marker and as the keeper advanced, the striker poked the ball goalwards only to see it trickle past the far post.

Aston Goss had a half chance on 47 minutes in FC's first and more worryingly only chance of the half. This was followed by a smart Jenkins save from a Marklew stab. The home team then decided to turn the screw on FC. They frequently exploited FC's high defensive line and with rapid attacks, constantly exposing Ash Jenkins to danger. Town's Chris Dean tested Jenkins again before Fleet deservedly took the lead. FC had a number of opportunities to clear but failed to do so thereby allowing Ruzicka to fire the ball home from close range through a crowded penalty area.

The one goal lead turned into two on 70 minutes. The high line was again blown wide apart as Luke Haskell raced clear of the FC defence to dink a cheeky ball over Jenkins into an unguarded net. After this lesson, it should have been clear to FC that playing such a suicidal offside trap could see them easily be punished yet on 87 minutes the defence was breached once again and only a combination of Jenkins bravery and a rush of blood to the head from Bradley Wilson prevented an even more emphatic victory.

FULL TIME Fleet Town 2-0 Aylesbury FC

THE MANAGERS

Steve Dormer brings with him considerable experience as both a player and coach at a number of different clubs including AFC Wimbledon, Southall, Yeading, Wealdstone and Spelthorne Sports. Dormer was announced as the new manager for the season having left Guildford City, after Craig Davis left the role after six years to join Winchester City. Dormer brought in former Godalming Town manager Andy Hunt for the pair to work together as joint managers for the season.

WHO'S WHO

Who are the men from Fleet to watch out for this afternoon?
The Mole takes a look here.

A new signing this season from Walton and Hersham. Liam is only 19 years of age and has a very promising future ahead of him. A great shot stopper and a good handler of the ball.

Harrison Button

Harrison is this seasons back up keeper to Liam Beach, currently our under 18 keeper and given time we feel one for the future.

Liam Flanighan

Liam recently signed from Alton Town FC and an ex Walton Casuals defender. Liam is another lad popular around the dressing room and with a wand of a left foot. Very experienced for such a young lad.

James Haworth

James, an ex Tooting and Mitcham defender, has settled in nicely at left back. He has a lovely left foot and doesn't mind a tackle. One to watch for the future.

Dquame Copeland

Dquame has just recently left Faversham FC and has settled in well for ourselves. He is a big strong quick defender who will become an important member of the squad.

Chris Wales

Chris joined the club this season having previously played over 300 games at this level for Moseley, Godalming and Walton and Hersham. Centre back who likes to play the ball out of defence.

Chris Musgrove

Chris has come pre-season from Godalming Town. A lad with over 300 games under his belt at step 4. He is very strong and physical and attracted a lot of interest pre-season from other clubs at this level. A good addition to the squad.

Ross Ewen

Ross is a no nonsense, pacey fullback with plenty of quality going forward and defensively. His never give up attitude makes him a tough opponent for any winger to come up against.

Ashley Lloyd

Ashley is an experienced campaigner at this level with previous clubs Godalming Town and last season Camberley Town recently signed after coming back from missing last season with injury.

Chris Dean

Chris has recently chosen to sign for The Blues despite interest from a number of clubs in the same division. A left sided utility player who has been involved with Woking FC and Maidenhead FC.

Alex Hendrie

Alex is a tall hard working utility player who has an eye for goal. He links up very well through the middle of the park. He is an ex Abbey Rangers player who last season played with Patrik Ruzicka scoring a large volume of their goals.

Gilberto Abril

Gilberto is a lad signed from Aldershot Academy and travels from North London for games. He is a tricky winger and works very hard on the pitch. Although still learning his trade he is doing well at this level of football for such a young lad.

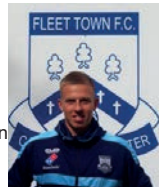

Ryan Marklew

Ryan has just recently signed from Westfield FC and made a quick impact on his debut. He has very quick feet, is a good reader of the game and will chip in with the odd goal.

Josh Baines

Josh has signed pre-season and recently played for Didcot, Thatcham and Aylesbury UTD. He brings a wealth of experience and is very vocal on the pitch. A great dead ball specialist and another lad with a presence in and around the dressing room.

Bradley Wilson

Bradley joined the club this season signing from MET POLICE. His previous clubs include Chelsea, Watford and Brentford as a young lad growing up. A skillful player with lots of pace and a popular player in and around the dressing room

Sam Pekun

Sam is a great acquisition for the club following his signing from Andover Town for whom he was a prolific goalscorer.

He plays wide or up top and offers a great goal celebration.

Danilo Cadete

Delighted to have re-signed Danilo for his third season with the Club. Danilo is a firm favourite with the supporters. Can play wide on either side and scored several crucial goals for the Club last season. Exciting to watch.

Matt Bunyan

Matt is an incredibly experienced striker recently signed from Farnborough Town, very quick for a big lad, has scored an average of 30 goals plus every season for his previous club Camberley Town.

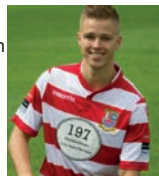

Luke Haskell

Luke is another young local lad who has recently signed for ourselves after a successful season scoring goals at under 18 and step 5 football. Up until the 10th November Luke has played two bit part games scoring 3 goals, this is a lad with a great future ahead in non league football.

Patrik Ruzicka

Patrik is currently on loan from Farnborough Town has a great eye for goal, a tremendous work ethic and one for the future. He has a great attitude in training.

George Pilbeam

George joined Fleet this season from under the noses of Molesey FC having spent last season at Tooting and Mitcham. His previous clubs were working with Steve Dormer at AFC Wimbledon. Other clubs being Brentford FC and Greenwich Borough.

Aylesbury FC 1 Chesham United 0

Stag Meadow, Windsor FC
Att: 470
B&B County Senior Cup final
Mon 2nd May 2016

Jools Thomas looks back at our Berks & Bucks County cup win of the 2015/16 season against a Chesham United side ending their own great season.

Each week an FC fan is profiled and quite a few mention the Berks and Bucks Cup final against Chesham as one of their favourite games. As a solid Southern League Division One side, our success has been built on consistency, survival and 'punching above our weight'. Cup highlights have been few and far between, so it may be worthwhile revisiting the day to see why it remains a highlight for so many.

FC had dragged themselves over the league line as they recorded three defeats and two draws in their final games and with this had gone the team's chance of a late run into the play offs. Still, the Moles finished the league in a very respectable 8th place.

Their opponents, Chesham, had finished 11th in the senior Premier Division but it was in the FA Cup that the team had made their mark. The club had reached the 2nd round beating Bristol Rovers 1-0 thanks to a Ryan Blake goal away before falling 4-0 to Bradford City.

The line ups made interesting reading as fans arrived at Stag Meadow, home of Windsor FC. FC fans were disappointed not to see old boy Brad Wadkins lining up for the Generals but the biggest shock was the absence of FC keeper James Weatherill who unfortunately suffered an injury in the warm up that we would later learn would keep him away from football for a while. His understudy, the unknown French teenager from the Under-18's side Mathieu Varnica filled in.

The game passed in a blur for FC fans, however, an abiding memory for FC fans was how well the team fought. It was one of those days where every member of the team was on top of their game and gave their all.

Brian Haule had a magic chance to give the Moles the lead after the Chesham keeper had fluffed a cross. The big man took his eye off the ball and blasted the ball wide. Still the FC faithful remained hopeful and cheered the team on regardless.

The winning goal came just after half time. Aston Goss delivered a cross from the right hand side and Danny Gordon jumped higher than his marker to head the ball home from just a matter of yards. The supporters behind the goal erupted into celebrations.

At the other end, Varnica was only really asked to make one real save from the dangerous Dave Pearce. As the game progressed, a penalty could have been awarded at either end but both sets of appeals were ignored.

As the referee blew the final whistle, supporters and players celebrated. Players hugged each other, fans cheered and then the photo opportunities as the celebrations continued into the clubhouse and on the coach on the way home.

Our successes at FC may be modest but for us this was a great day and one that is rightly regarded with fond memories.

Interview with

BEN STEVENS

Long serving club stalwart Ben Stevens has played over 500 games for Aylesbury FC, The Mole caught up with Ben ahead of the Fleet game at Haywood Way to find out more about his time at FC over the years.

You played for Aylesbury United from 2006 to 2009. What made you want to come over and join Aylesbury FC all those years ago?

At the time Mark Eaton was our manager and we had a good close team. When he said he was making the move to F.C to be manager and explained the vision the club had and how he wanted us to be a part of it we all decided that we would join him. However, for me personally my heart has always been at F.C since a young age so the decision was easy.

Growing up you were involved with the club before it's days as Aylesbury FC and played for Aylesbury Vale, how much of an influence was that on your development as a player in those early years around the club?

It had a huge influence and probably made me the man I am today. When I first played for the first team I was only a boy but was playing up against and alongside men which certainly made me grow up quickly.

"For me the fans and volunteers make the club"

How do you feel about Aylesbury FC's season so far at the halfway stage?

Our season so far has been a mixture of highs and lows but I believe that by sticking together, like we are right now, we will be seeing more highs than lows.

You've usually played in defence but a few games this season you've played in midfield, is that a position you'd like to play in more?

Yes of course I love midfield, it's where the action is. I feel I have more of an opportunity to influence the game, whether that is protecting the back four or creating opportunities further forward. I'm so glad I have done enough to convince the Gaffa to play me there!

You certainly seem to be popular with the fans of the club, how much do you find the support of all the fans and volunteers at the club an important factor on a Saturday afternoon?

For me the fans and volunteers make the club. Quite simply without them the club would not be where it is now. For that I thank each and every one of them. The way they stick by us through thick and thin is amazing, they make you want to play for the badge and I always try to give my all so as not to let them down.

"As captain I demand a lot from the team to keep us all on top form and on the same page"

Who would you say out of the current team would be most likely to go on to be a manager?

Apart from myself, maybe Garry Jones or Jordan Jenkins.

What's been your favourite goal as an FC player?

As I only really score between 2 and 5 a season they are all my favourite!

Who's the best player you've played with in your career?

As I want to play every week I'm going to say Davis Haule. The guys passion and attitude towards football alongside his ability puts him top of my list.

Who does the best goal celebrations in the team?

That's an easy one - Brian Haule! He always seems to know where the camera is to capture his celebrations!

Who spends the most time on their hair in the dressing room?

I would say Ty Deacon, although it still always looks a mess!

Who's the bossiest in the team?

The bossiest has to be me! As captain I demand a lot from the team to keep us all on top form and on the same page with the same attitude towards the game.

Who's got the best skills in the team?

The best skills on the team is the young Harry Scott. Some of the things he can do with the ball is unreal! But I guess after his paper round and catch up with Olly Murs he has plenty of time to practice!

What's been your favourite moment playing for Aylesbury FC?

My favourite moment of playing for Aylesbury F.C has to be the moment that we won the League and Cup double to cement our place in the Southern League.

League roundup

AFC Rushden & Diamonds moved back three points clear at the top of the Evo-Stik league South East table on Tuesday night following a comprehensive 4-0 win at Aylesbury FC.

On a bitterly cold night at the SRD Stadium, Diamonds took an 11th minute lead through Tom Lorraine and 5 minutes later were two-up through Ben Farrell.

Skipper Liam Dolman popped up to make it 3-0 to the league leaders after 25 minutes.

The lowly Moles gave a decent account of themselves in the second period before eventually conceding a fourth in the 2nd minute of time added on at the end of the game when Derek Feyi conceded a penalty which Dolman duly converted.

Dylan Kearney, Uxbridge

Cambridge City returned to fourth spot after beating ninth-placed Kempston Rovers by the same scoreline at Hillgrounds.

Jack Vasey opened the scoring after just 3 minutes when he got on the end of Ben Robinson's excellent cross to head home.

City doubled their lead in the 18th minute with another Robinson assist, this time finding Ryan Sharman's for his 25th goal of the season to date.

Then on 28 minutes it was 3-0 with Robinson this time finding the target himself.

And then in the 68th minute, Ryan Towner completed the scoring by netting City's fourth.

Former Portsmouth and Luton striker Rowan Vine proved to Hartley Wintney's hero as he bagged a brace to help them to a 2-1 home win over tenth-placed Ashford Town (Middx) and move into the top six.

The Hampshire hosts had to come back from being a Max Herbert goal down on the half-hour mark.

Vine grabbed the equaliser right on half-time and his second eventually arrived 2 minutes into stoppage time.

Aylesbury United moved up to fifth-from-bottom after a 1-0 win at inconsistent Marlow.

Ben Seaton scored the Ducks' winner in the 56th minute.

THE NON-LEAGUE PAPER

ESSENTIAL READING FOR FOLLOWERS OF THE NATIONAL GAME

By Adam Ellis

This week I will be discussing definition. Not the lack of it around my biceps or abdomen but around words and how, as sports fans, we all how our own interpretations.

In my work for The Non-League Paper's website I also control online content for our sister title The Rugby Paper, and last week shared a video to its social media channels.

The video came from last autumn's clash between Scotland and Australia in Edinburgh and featured a try straight from the training ground by the home side. A flash of flair trick-play involving two players which stretched a line of six Australian defenders expecting the Scots to kick a penalty to touch and sent the crowd doolally.

I won't go into further detail, you can head to twitter and facebook should you wish to watch the try. But in sharing the video I used the word 'genius', one gentleman replied to the post 'Genius???' in disagreement.

Admittedly, I use the word too much, maybe growing up in Essex has curbed the expanse of my vocabulary, yet to me it is the moments that catch you off guard in a split second that warrant its description.

Talk to others and they will say genius should be used for people who display brilliance over a long and sustained period of time. Like genius, the word legend is overused.

Moments like Paul Gascoigne's volley against Scotland at Wembley during Euro '96 and Joe Walton's control, twist and on-the-volley strike for Morpeth Town against Marske United last October give fans memories to last a lifetime.

With a memory as sieve-like as mine, if an individual can do that I will happily label them a genius and run the risk of people discrediting my opinion as prone to exaggeration.

Football is after all the one mainstream spectator sport which has not been adapted to suit the fast-paced life in this country. Cricket has grown its Twenty20 format and rugby looks set to further develop Sevens, the former some ago has become a beast created by the powers-that-be that could bring down the very traditions of the sport. Just look at how England fared in the Ashes compared to the first ODI last weekend.

For all the tedious 0-0 scorelines I have watched glumly there have been 0-0 games full of chances and drama to compensate. From that perspective, I am delighted the basics of football remain the same as multiple generations ago.

Deciding not to make drastic changes isn't genius, it's just good sense. And sometimes football requires that from those off the pitch in order to allow the genius to continue on it.

AYLESBURY FC 0 CHALFONT ST PETER 2

Beattie 38', Martin 71'

The SRD Stadium
Saturday 13th January 2018
Kick off: 3pm
Attendance: 79

Report by Jools Thomas

FC were soundly beaten by a visiting Chalfont who didn't really have to move out of first gear to register this win. A goal in either half was enough to leave manager Davis Haule wondering where his team's first home win since October will come from.

Jordan Jenkins might have had more luck on another day after making only a slight connection to a Garry Jones' free kick, which went behind for a corner. From the resultant corner, Jones was a little unlucky to see his low shot brush the outside of the post. Paine then blasted an effort over the bar after Maxwell Holland had cleverly played him in and this was followed by the opening goal. The ball fell to George Beattie and a slight deflection on his strike wrong footed Jenkins to give his side the lead.

Ben Stevens appeared then to grab the equaliser but the referee judged the FC captain had climbed on his man as he headed home. This was followed by FC's best chance of the match. Ty Deacon and Davis Haule combined well to give Brian Haule a clear sight of goal however; Brian could only hit the ball straight at CSP keeper Carl Dennison from a few yards.

Play continued unabated and the visitors increased their lead without too much effort. Mahlondo Martin cut in from the right and as Jenkins advanced, the striker slipped the ball into an empty net.

Ty Deacon might have done better with a sliced shot under pressure as the clock advanced towards full time but to be honest most FC fans were pleased to hear the referee's final whistle.
