Good Afternoon and welcome to the SRD Stadium for this afternoon's league game against Ashford.

To Ben Murray his team, officials and fans of Ashford, I hope you had a pleasant journey over to Aylesbury.

It was good to finally get back to playing at Haywood Way on Tuesday night even though it was a very cold one! On the night I thought we were unfortunate to not get all three points. We need to start being more clinical in front of goal and taking our chances.

As those in attendance on Tuesday night will agree, young Alfie had a night to remember grabbing his first (of many) senior goal. Alfie's all round performance was really pleasing to see, rightly receiving man of the match honours. His energy, vision and composure is something that continues to impress me. Today we face a strong Ashford side, which means we have to be at the top of our game if we want to get back to winning ways. Hopefully we can give you all something to cheer today and get all three points which will see us moving in the right direction up the table.

As always I would like to thank the fans, volunteers and committee. All your support and efforts are appreciated by players and management team alike, today we hope you enjoy the game.

Alan Penman

Today I would like to welcome the fans, players and staff of Ashford Town. I hope the journey over was a pleasant one, and thank you to the Ashford fans who have made the journey over to Aylesbury today.

First of all I would like to offer my congratulations to one of our former Under 18's, Alfie Touceda, who scored his first senior football goal on Tuesday night against Fleet, and also on winning Man of the Match in the process. It was a fine display in midfield as you looked settled and experienced in the role. It's great to see another fine member of the youth side progressing into the first team, well done and keep up the hard work.

We are certainly in our winter of discontent, bad weather means postponed games, which in turns means no income, our last attendance of 51 is the lowest I have witnessed, coupled with poor football performances which has seen us take one point from the last 6 games. However we remain optimistic about the future but we need to make some changes to reflect the current economic climate.

On this slightly gloomy note lets hope we see some good football today, encourage our younger players and get 3 points in the bag.

I hope you all enjoy the spectacle on show and see you in the bar after for a drink.

Report by Dan Legg

After what can only be described as a flawless 'Dry January', the Moles were looking for their first goal and first victory since Brian Haule's boxing day heroics. Much like FC, the visitors Fleet Town have struggled to find any sort of consistency all season and were yet to taste victory away from home coming into this fixture, making for an exciting match up.

Manager Davis Haule opted for a mix of youth and experience in his starting XI, with youngster Alfie Touceda getting an opportunity from the get go. His inclusion soon paid off, as just nine minutes into the contest the deadlock was broken. A fine right footed strike from outside of the Fleet box was too powerful and accurate for Liam Beach to have any chance with, and the ball was rifled into the bottom right hand corner.

For all of his great saves, it was to be a mistake from Ashley Jenkins that would gift the visitors a late equaliser. A Garry Jones back pass looked simple enough to deal with, however, Jenkins unwittingly hit a bobble with his attempted clearance, with the ball falling straight to Fleet striker Bradley Wilson, who composed himself, rounded Jenkins and slotted home into an empty net.

A rather vicious ball was played into Liam Beach by his full back, the spritely Davide Pobbe quickly closed down the angles on the goalkeeper, who panicked, and kicked the ball straight at Pobbe, however he was unable to contort his body to put the ball on target, with the ball travelling agonisingly wide of the far post with the goal gaping.

Introducing Ashford Town (Middx)

Ashford are having another good season under the tenure of manager Ben Murray, despite some poor results of late.

After relegation from the Southern League Division One Central in the 2013/14 season, Ashford Town (middlesex) toiled for promotion back to the Southern League, constantly contesting for the top spot. After finishing 3rd in their first season, their second season, 2015/16, saw them push Hartley Wintney all the way. Despite finishing second in the league, Hartley Wintney, topping the table, were refused promotion on the grounds of their ground not being up to the strict ground grading regulations to get promotion. And thus the Tangerines returned back to the Southern League.

seen them be a tough side for many teams over the years, with a great attacking and defensive unit throughout the side, with the likes of Mark Bitmead scoring goals for fun alongside Jack Beadle and Alex Fisher, their scoring power is enough to make any manager in this league cautious. Ashford started off the season in style dispatching team after team, however their inconsistent form of late may trouble Tangerines fans as they push for the playoffs, with losses to Aylesbury United, Hanwell Town and Bedford Town.

A strong squad of players has

LAST TIME WE MET

A look back to a to our early season trip to the Robert Parker Stadium dominated by The Tangerines.

September 23rd 2017

A spirited performance against the league leaders Dunstable a week prior was hoped to be replicated against the Tangerines, however, a lacklustre first half effectively put the game out of reach.

After a relatively cagey first five minutes, the game erupted into life, with Ashford looking the most lively of the two teams, it didn't take long for them to take the lead. Jack Beadle was given far too much space by the FC defenders on the edge of the box, and slotted a low driven shot to the right of James Weatherhill between the sticks. Ashford breaking the deadlock after only 7 minutes – this could prove to be a long afternoon.

Despite this early setback two minutes later FC almost found a quickfire equaliser. Aston Goss played an intelligent over the top through ball, picking out Jeanmal Prosper who had made a storming run from holding midfield – Prosper chipped the onrushing Ashford keeper Tyler Tobin, but agonisingly it was cleared off the line before it could trickle in.

Following this, Ashford bombarded the Aylesbury goal and the score line was only kept at 1-0 due to Weatherhill playing a blinder. However, the pressure finally took its toll and in the 27th minute Jeanmal Prosper unfortunately diverted an Alex Fisher corner into his own net at the back post – a thunderous finish – shame it was at the wrong end.

From then onwards, the final 30 minutes saw a lot of FC possession and territory but no creativity which would lead to a goal opportunity. A flurry of set pieces saw both Ty Deacon and Jeanmal Prosper have headers sail wide of the mark.

Hafid Bounyafe was introduced late on for his Aylesbury FC debut, playing with high tempo – and could be a reasonable prospect, however, was unable to get the Moles back into the game.

THE MANAGER

BEN MURRAY was handed the chance to manage Southern League Division One Central side Ashford Town in November 2013. Murray, who had previously been chief coach of the Middlesex side, took the reins following the departure of Paul Burgess. The Tangerines were sitting bottom of the league with just six points from 17 games. Though performances and results improved, and Murray brought in several new players to fight at the end of the season, Ashford finished bottom of the league on 21 points to drop down to the Combined Counties League. However the board recognised the talent of Murray and kept him on as manager and were rewarded for their trust as Ben Murray led the Tangerines to promotion from the Combined Counties league in the 2015/16 season.

WHO'S WHO

Who are the men from Fleet to watch out for this afternoon?

The Mole takes a look here.

Jake Taylor

Jake is a young goalkeeper who played in Ashford's youth sides. His father Glen played several hundred matches for Ashford in the 80's.

Just 22 years of age but Ashford's regular goalkeeper in recent seasons.

His consistency shown by him having 196 matches under his belt. 6 clean sheets this season.

Joe Green

Joe is the son of Assistant Manager Mark Green and has earned a regular spot this new season. 80 appearances so far, with a spell at CCL club Knaphill in between.

Alex Fisher

Alex is just 20 but another highly consistent player with 160 appearances already. He played for Middlesex County with distinction throughout his youth years and came through Ashford's junior ranks. 5 Goals to his name this season.

Jonas Romario

Giant central defender who came to Ashford for the start of 2016-2017, having previously played for Maidenhead United. Extremely popular with his team mates, 51 appearances to date and so far this season chipping in with 4 goals.

Tommy Brunton

Tommy came to Ashford from Egham Town and has now made 214 appearances. His strength is to pick out passes that would not be seen by some players and he has had a hand in an awful lot of Ashford goals in recent seasons, an this season.

Samad Kazi

Samad is another player from the junior ranks who can play anywhere and has lightning pace. He had a short period with Walton & Hersham but in two spells with Ashford he has now racked up 257 appearances.

Scott Weight

After Russell Canderton, Scott is the next senior player, now aged 30. He also had a spell with Egham Town but he has racked up 220 appearances for Ashford. Tough tackling midfield player who can also revert to central defender as and when needed.

Mark Bitmead

Ashford's mercurial striker who never loses the opportunity to shoot and his goals have got Ashford out of many a sticky spot over the seasons. Now 25 and at his peak, with 290 appearances for the club and 146 goals.

James Cottee

New to the club this season, having joined from Westfield where he scored 20 plus last season, and has quickly made himself a favourite with his determined running and early goals. 15 appearances and 8 goals so far this season. Player of the month for August.

Jabir Larada

Another new signing, fighting hard to force himself into the reckoning. Four goals in Ashford's recent ground breaking friendly against Chinese side Tianjin has certainly helped his case. Scored two goals after coming on as a substitute at the League game at Northwood.

Nathan Pooley

A young midfielder who has been added to the squad this season, Ashford Town youth team player of the year for 2016/17, a fine passer of the ball. 8 appearances so far this season.

Mitchal Gough

Mitchal has re-joined Ashford on loan from Kingstonian. A very popular player after his spell with Ashford in the Combined Counties League three seasons ago. Mitchal has already shown his pedigree in recent games as Ashford look to reinvigorate their efforts to make the play offs.

Max Herbert

Max is an accomplished player who plays in midfield but also deputised for Alex Fisher at left back when he was injured last season. Max scored a handful of goals last season and is a welcome addition to the squad for the remainder of the season.

Max Webb

Powerhouse midfield player and another nearing the 200 appearance mark, with 186 to date. Max is another player to come through the junior sides. Scorer of spectacular goals. So far with 4 to his name for this campaign.

Dan Fleming

Has formed a lethal partnership with Mark Bitmead over the last three seasons, after arriving at the club from Harefield United. He now has 161 appearances to his name and 93 goals.

Jack Beadle

Jack arrived from neighbours Bedfont Sports and his strong flank play, usually down the left flank from midfield but not always, has generally ensured a regular place. Still only 23 he looks stronger than ever this season and is often amongst the goals

Elliott Poley

A young central defender who has come to us this season from Staines Town. He has shown himself to be strong at the back and clearly has a goal or two in him, especially when the ball is in the air.

Leo Decabo

Leo is currently a member of the under 18's side who has been promoted to the senior squad. Made his full debut in the League Cup tie against Hayes & Yeading & making his first league start in recent fixture at Kempston Rovers.

Russell Canderton

Ashford's most senior player with no less than 659 appearances for the club. He first joined in 2001 from Staines Town and has been a regular ever since, often helping out on the coaching side in recent seasons.

Focus on Brad Wadkins

By Jools Thomas

Since becoming Aylesbury FC in 2009, there are a good number of players to wear the black and red strip. Some have gone onto league success, for example Ricky Miller, once of Luton Town and now of Peterborough. Some have remained incredibly loyal and it is hoped some of these players will be reviewed in future. One ex player that FC fans remember with great fondness is Brad Wadkins.

After a nomadic early career, Watford based Wadkins joined the club from Potters Bar Town aged just 21. Upon release from Chesham United as a teenager, he played for four clubs in just the one season before turning up at Potters Bar. The start of his season at Potters Bar convinced FC manager Steve Bateman, a man with a huge number of contacts, to sign the deep lying striker.

That first season in 2013/14, he made 22 appearances for the Moles, scoring just the one goal but it was his work off the ball that caught the eye as he helped the Moles move to a respectable mid table finish. What Bateman recognised was Wadkins overall contribution to the team. Wadkins collected no fewer than seven man of the match appearances in that first season. At times Brad's temperament was just inside the laws of the game and this made him a frightening prospect for defenders. Combined with the strength that belied his young age and here was a player who could win matches on his own. This consistency won Wadkins, the Manager's Player of the Year Award despite playing less than half the campaign.

It was the following season when Wadkins and FC really made their mark as the team finished in their highest ever league position of 3rd meaning a first appearance in the Southern League play offs. Brad showed his qualities in a battling performance in the first ever FA Cup El Quackico in August as the Moles just shaded the game 3-2. Coming from the bench against St Ives, he grabbed three goals in an 8-1 demolition of the Cambridgeshire team. His fine form continued throughout November and December as he collected six man of the match awards in consecutive games helping himself to two goals in the bargain as well as almost single handedly defeating Aylesbury United in the first league El Quackico of the season at Leighton.

The team couldn't keep up these heights all season and the campaign literally limped to its conclusion with a few games to spare; too far behind to catch champions Kettering, and safe enough not to be overtaken for the play off places. The play off semi-final against Bedworth at Haywood Way was a disappointing evening. Few of the team played to their strengths and Brad himself was below his usual self despite winning a penalty to give FC a glimmer of hope in the final minutes of the game.

Altogether, the striker made 43 league and cup appearances that season, scoring 13 goals and again collecting seven man of the match awards. Wadkins moved onto Chesham at the end of that season and FC fans were left with just memories. A couple of seasons of injury now appears to be behind him and he has made a good start to life at his new club Slough Town. Who would bet against Wadkins progressing even further in football?

THAME UNITED 2 West 43', Goss 83' AYLESBURY FC 0

The ASM Stadium
Saturday 27th January 2018
Kick off: 3pm
Attendance: 112

Report by Dan Legg

After a run of tricky matches at home, the Moles travelled the short distance to the Oxfordshire border to take on a free-scoring, yet heavily inconsistent Thame United side.

The corner resulted in some very early drama. With the ball stranded in the mud bath-like goalmouth, a melee ensued, bodies were everywhere. Jordan Jenkins through his neck on the line for the cause quite literally, and the referee adjudged that Thame United midfielder Liam Tack had stamped on the FC defender, with the midfielder given his marching orders just 14 minutes into his debut. Unbelievably Thame were awarded an indirect free kick 10 yards out following the fracas. With the entire FC starting XI on the line to block the free kick, Marvyn Watson took the ball where it hurt, and the ball was eventually cleared away.

The deadlock was soon to be broken, after a spell of possession for the Moles, Thame utilised their pace with a quick counter attack. Jamie Essex's cross field ball found the fleet footed Lynton Goss, who beat Derek Feyi for pace, before putting a deft cross into the back post, with the unmarked Dan West on hand to slot home from close range.

And then the sucker punch came. For all of the Aylesbury pressure, it was Thame who increased their lead on 82 minutes, making the Moles pay for their lack of clinical finishing ability. A rather innocuous free kick from Lynton Goss, from around 25 yards out appeared to slip through Ashley Jenkin's gloves, off of the underside of the crossbar and over the line.

The ten-man Thame side saw out the rest of the game rather comfortably, Young striker who has been scoring plenty of goals for the Under 18's. Made his senior debut in a 2-0 away loss at AFC Dunstable.

League roundup

With Evo-Stik League South East leaders AFC Rushden & Diamonds' Hayden Road pitch again proving unplayable, Beaconsfield Town had the opportunity to move level on points at the top of the table when they hosted mid-table Thame United at Holloways Park on Saturday. Thame hadn't read the script though, as they came away with a 1-0 win, thanks to Lynton Goss, who missed a 65th minute penalty, but was first to the rebound to tuck the ball home.

Hartley Wintney, Hayes & Yeading United and Chalfont St Peter were the day's other big movers. Hartley Wintney moved to within four points of third-placed AFC Dunstable, who were due to play Diamonds, after hammering Egham Town 7-1 at home. It was all over bar the shouting by half-time as the hosts led 4-1 with goals from Jake Baxter, Liam Eagle and a Steve Duff brace – Grieg Stewart replying. Baxter notched a second 7 minutes after the break and then Adam Everiss and Paul Hodges added two more to make the final score 7-1.

Moneyfields made it eight games without a win now after losing 5-2 at home to Hayes & Yeading in terrible conditions. Duncan Culley proved to be the visitors' hero with a hat-trick in the 2nd, 5th and 55th minutes. Manny Duku sandwiched a brace in the 44th and 58th minutes, with a Ryan Kinnane own goal and a last-gasp Sam Pearce effort all Moneys could respond with.

Lynton Goss, Thame Utd

Chalfont edged out third-bottom Hanwell Town 3-2 away from home, coming back from Nick Turner and Calum Duffy first half goals down to win, thanks to Jake Cass on the hour-mark, George Fenton on 78 minutes and Ryan Haugh 3 minutes from time.

Bottom side Arlesey Town look doomed after losing 2-0 at neighbours Bedford Town, leaving them eleven points from safety and twenty-four games since a victory. Goals from James Peters after 5 minutes and on-loan Paul Benson after 34 minutes gave the Eagles' new owners a good start in front of a bumper 438 crowd at the New Eyrle.

Kempston Rovers won 2-0 at the Meadow against Aylesbury United, thanks to Alex Collard after 37 minutes and Luke Heneghan a minute from time, while Uxbridge won by the odd goal in five at Honeycroft against Fleet Town. Graeme Purdy had the visitors ahead after 7 minutes but Kevin Warner levelled on 22 minutes. Brad Wilson restored the visitors' lead just after the break, only for Dylan Kearney on 62 minutes and then Dave Thomas 4 minutes from time to win it for the Reds.

Northwood twice came from behind to share a 2-2 draw at Ashford Town (Middx). Elliott Poley had the home side in front after 9 minutes which Wilson Chingoka cancelled out in the 23rd minute.

Alex Fisher restored the Ash Trees' lead from the spot after 64 minutes, only for Chingoka to notch his second to earn a point.

On Tuesday, Aylesbury FC scored their first goal of the year, and it was one of the youngsters, Alfie Touceda, who broke the deadlock. An error from Moles keeper Ash Jenkins gifted the ball to Fleets Bradley Wilson who gleefully slotted the ball into the net to earn the away side a 1-1 draw.

At Northwood, somehow the game remained goalless until the 87th minute – and that despite Northwood hitting the crossbar and their keeper Xavi Lomas making several fine saves.

It was Jake Cass who broke the deadlock for Chalfont St Peter and then 4 minutes into stoppage time, Rob Hastings made sure with a second for the visitors.

Ever met someone who seems to have it all go their own way in life?

No stress. All upside to their day from the moment they wake up. A happy wanderer walking down the street humming a jovial tune because life is just grand.

Then there are the rest of us – the people who drive Vauxhalls.

You can relate this to football with the Premier League and the FA. The Premier League in its goliath standing is only getting richer and extending its outreach across the seas.

The league's own community initiatives aided by mega-rich clubs who have their own programmes to help those disadvantaged, and I have no intention of making any negative suggestion towards that.

But the Premier League can do so much more for football in this country, we all know it. Yet there is no obligation.

All the obligation falls on the Football Association. Their workload is a juggernaut-sized headache with topics ranging from doping tests to investigating cases of ineligible players being played by clubs.

Premier League chief executive

Richard Scudamore has so much freedom to act under as a result of his and his team's own hard work, that there is a monopoly over what can be done next.

With a 2019-2022 domestic TV rights deal to be settled this year, the Premier League has announced it is seeking the introduction of a winter break.

Let's just see who wins the tug-of-war with the FA and the EFL almost certain to object given their Cup competitions.

A Premier League statement confirmed: "The Premier League has been in discussions with the FA and EFL for several months regarding the challenges of the increasingly congested English football calendar and ways in which we can work together to ease fixture congestion while also giving players a mid-season break."

So what for the Non-League pyramid as the Premier League sets its sights on an improved deal from Sky Sports and BT Sport?

Should a European-style winter break come from the deal, all Non-League clubs would have 21 days to attract fans through the turnstiles to watch our own brand of football.

Some people may not appreciate this notion but just because you support a Premier League or a Championship club does not mean you cannot appreciate watching a game along with 250 others rather than 25,000.

Being a Leyton Orient fan I frequently overhear regular supporters sat around me talking to a friend they have brought along who may follow Arsenal or Spurs and there is a genuine interest in talking about the O's.

I've heard plenty of talk about disgruntled Sunderland fans taking in the goal fests often served up by South Shields this season, so it's encouraging to see the club's stadium developments be utilised.

Let's not pretend that the role of the Non-League pyramid hasn't helped clubs develop their youngsters and give purpose to their academies. And furthermore the cases of Sam Clucas, Chris Smalling et al are success stories to be championed.

In recent years I've been to Sydney and Cape Town and I have seen enough replica shirts from England's top league to know Richard Scudamore doesn't have to worry about a loss in profit anytime within the next 20 years. So can't more be done to assist more clubs with the basic necessities of acquiring defibrillators and other essentials?

GARRY JONES

The Mole spoke to left back Garry Jones who has cemented himself into the first eleven this season with some decent performances, not to mention that goal line scissor kick clearance on tuesday night. Here's what we found out about Garry.

Where about's in South Africa are you from and tell us about your early experiences of playing football in the country?

I was born in Durban so I spent a lot of my childhood on the beach. As all South Africans will say, we love a number of different sports so I grew up watching and playing cricket, rugby and football. Football was always the main one for me though. My Mom still has my first football boots at home!

What's the difference between football in England and South Africa in your opinion?

I'd say the main difference is the pace of the game. In SA, it's all about entertaining the crowd by dribbling past as many players as possible however the passion for the game is incredible both in England and SA.

Who are the first team you played for in England?

When I moved to England I was 12 and I joined my

"I am really enjoying my football again with a great bunch of lads" local youth team called Harrow St Mary's.

Who do you support and how did you come about supporting them?

Sunderland, my Dad's side of the family are from Sunderland so it runs in the blood. It's safe to say I'm not really enjoying it at the moment though.

You played against us for Potters Bar in the 2015/16 season, what made you come over to FC to play under Davis?

I have known Davis for a long time now. When I first got into the 1st team at Wealdstone, Davis was an established player in the team and he looked out for me being a young player. We stumbled into each other a couple of years back and kept in touch ever since.

After things didn't work out at my old club, Cheshunt, I gave him a ring and he invited me down.

How have you found the move to the club so far?

It's been a good move for me. Even though the results have been inconsistent, I am really enjoying my football again with a great bunch of lads.

What's been your favourite moment so far playing for the club?

It's a close decision between two games. The away win at Cambridge, where we ground out a great away win or the boxing day derby win. I think I'll go with winning the El Quackico as I could see how much it meant to the club.

"We both like a bit of Afrobeats so keep your eyes peeled for a dance coming soon"

Who would you say has been the best player you've played with in your career?

Now this is a tough one! I'll have to pick three: I played with all of them at Harrow Borough. Rob Wollaston was incredible, he won the FA cup with Chelsea when he was younger but he controlled the midfield and his distribution was excellent. Another would be Simeon Akinola, he is now at Barnet. He was quick, strong and used to score the most ridiculous goals. The last one is Nick Pope who is playing for Burnley now. He came on loan from Charlton and although he was only 18 years old, he commanded his defence really well and was a great shot stopper.

Favourite ground you've played at?

I'd have to say Bath City's ground. I played there last season with Potters Bar in the FA Cup and we took them to extra time and penalties. Thankfully we won which took us into the final round before Round 1. The whole experience was what made it so special.

Favourite goal?

I haven't scored in a while, so this is a tough one. I mainly scored penalties but my favourite goal would probably be in the FA cup for Harrow Borough where I hit a free kick around the wall and into the top corner.

Best dancer in the team?

I'm going to go with Brian Haule. We both like a bit of afrobeats so keep your eyes peeled for a dance coming soon.

Biggest joker in the dressing room?

I'm normally the one joking about in the dressing room but Ben Stevens had to win this one. He stole Marv's hat and took pictures of it in random places around Aylesbury. That's probably the most child friendly story I could tell.

Best mate (s) at the club?

As I said before, they're a good bunch of lads here so I get on well with all of them but I'd say my travel buddy Anthony Ball.

NEXT UP FOR FC

Next up for the Moles we travel to the distant land of Uxbridge for another weekend of football.

On Saturday we make the tip over to Honeycroft, the home of Uxbridge FC. The reds have won their last two games and will be looking to continue their run of form, as the Moles look to get some more points on the board.
