Davis Haule

Good afternoon and welcome to the SRD Stadium for this afternoon's league game against Chalfont St Peter FC. To Danny Edwards, his team, officials and fans of Chalfont, I hope you had a pleasant journey over to Aylesbury. As these are my first notes of 2018, I would like to wish you and yours a very Happy New Year.

Over the Christmas period we had two differing results but similar battling performances. The first game we were narrowly beaten by Hayes and Yeading, the second was one of the most enjoyable games since I have been in charge, beating the other side with Aylesbury in their name 2-1. I think we all took a moment after the game to have a little look up to the sky to see if we could see 'Mr Chairman' smiling down on us, as we all know he would have enjoyed that one!

Last week we faced a strong AFC Dunstable side losing the game 2-0. I do not think there was much between the sides on the day, Dunstable were more clinical in front of goal but I was proud of how the lads dug in and battled.

Today we face another challenging game as Danny brings a strong squad to the SRD. Chalfont had a mixed time result wise over Christmas, so we know we have to be on our game to ensure we take some points from this one.

As always I would like to thank the fans, volunteers and committee. All your support and efforts are appreciated by players and management team alike, today we hope you enjoy the game.

Alan Penman

Welcome everyone today to The SRD Stadium for today's game, where we look to get back to winning ways after defeat last week in Bedfordshire.

I watched a competitive game with high flyers AFC Dunstable, where I thought there was little between the two sides, except for the talented players they have upfront which proved to be the difference in the end.

Some of our players have decided to leave the club and play at lower levels for probably more money, but let me make it clear the travelling expenses we pay are based on what the club can afford and we have a policy of bringing through the youth players who have a real desire to compete at this high level of football.

Today we welcome players, official and supporters of Chalfont St Peter. I have great admiration for this club, not in one of football's hot spots, they have made use of the facilities by opening a nursery to help finance the club which has now expanded into our Haywood Way ground. Also the chairman has erected an impressive new stand, the envy of most clubs in this league.

I have always maintained we should make fuller use of the facilities we have, I know it is difficult when we rely on volunteers, but we do have one of the best bars I have seen in the league.

The last time we met, there were not too many players left on the pitch, but let's hope today both sides can avoid those red cards! We are in the entertainment business, let's see if we can provide some for the supporters today.

Enjoy the game and see you in the bar afterwards.

Report by Mike Farquharson

On a very heavy Haywood Way pitch Aylesbury were quickly out of the blocks, Hafid Bouynafe picked up the ball on the right hand side, whipped in a good cross which Ty Deacon couldn't quite meet in the middle and the ball ran to safety. The difference between the two sides on the afternoon was then exposed a minute later, an almost identical move from the away side but down the left flank saw a ball crossed in met by striker Manny Duku and the ball flew in off the cross bar.

Aylesbury had an excellent chance to equalise midway through the half when Davide Pobbe on the left of midfield picked up the ball and played a fantastic ball between the centre half and left back for Ty Deacon to run onto but Deacon blasted the ball high and wide.

The home sides best chance came just before the break, a ball out of defence found the industrious Kerran Lataille and his reverse pass put Bouynafe in the clear but a first heavy touch saw the ball run slightly away from him and his resulting shot was well saved by the onrushing keeper.

FC again started the second half brightly a ball from Garry Jones found Hafid Bouynafe and his snap was again well saved by Mackenzie-Lyle in the Hayes goal. Yet again though, on fifty seven minutes, the away side made FC pay for the lack of cutting edge up front, Ismael Ehui picked the ball up on the right seemed to scuff a weak shot which just seemed to bobble past Jenkins for a 2-0 lead.

Aylesbury kept up the pressure but were unable to break through and the points went to Hayes & Yeading.

FC v Hayes & Yeading

FC continued to look for their first home win since October 21st against Hartley Wintney.

FC's attack led by Ty Deacon and Brian Haule (below) were unable to break through the Hayes defence.

Introducing Chalfont St Peter

After a poor season last year, Chalfont St Peter are once again on the up and gunning towards the play-off spots for a chance at promotion.

After joining the Southern League in the 2011/12 season, Chalfont St Peter have adjusted well to life at Step 4 under the guidance of manager Danny Edwards, finishing 12th in their first season and with respectable mid-table finishes for the next few seasons after. The 2015/16 season was their best to date as they challenged for the play-offs, finishing in sixth place just five points off AFC Rushden & Diamonds. Last season was their lowest to date, finishing in 18th, only one place above Aylesbury FC.

Chalfont haven't been so ruthless in front of goal having scored so few for a team at their position. However a miserly defence has meant that the goals they have scored have been enough to get them the points. With the likes of veteran Alan Headley, former Chesham player George Fenton and keeper Carl Dennison, the Saints have been able to keep their goals conceded count low so far, barring a 4-1 loss to Thame United in December.

Moles fans will be familiar with this from the August fixture as we were unable to break down them down after they had two men sent off in a 1-0 defeat.

Their form as of late has been inconsistent, beating play-off hopefuls Hayes and Yeading and Beaconsfield Town, and then losing to impressive Thame United, and a disappointing loss to Barton Rovers who are battling the drop. A 0-0 draw at home to Fleet on tuesday would also be seen as 2 points dropped. No matter the form, Chalfont have always been a tough game for FC and today will no doubt be another tough game.

LAST TIME WE MET

A look back to a sunny August Saturday afternoon as we took on Chalfont St Peter at Mill Meadow in a feisty affair.

August 26th 2017

It all started quite well for Aylesbury who got off to a fairly quick start, three minutes in and a free kick outside the box was played in by Aston Goss, it was headed away but met on the edge on the box by Ben Stevens, his angled header was met by the stretching Kieron Schmidt but he could only put the ball wide.

The game was at times marred by some questionable refereeing decisions for both sides, but the Aylesbury players were more affected in that the side seemed to spend more time worrying about what the referee was giving/not giving that being concerned with their own performance. Kieron was booked for dissent and Jeanmal Prosper was lucky not to get booked after complaining with bad language about another decision.

The home side did take the lead on 40 minutes with what eventually was to be the only goal of the game when right back Mark Goodman picked the ball up in the centre of the field and just ran at FC, beating players and finally finding himself with just Weatherill to beat which he did from the edge of the box with a scuffed shot.

The second half was to be a very strange affair with Chalfont eventually having three players sent off in a game with not one really bad challenge. Jake Cass was the first to go on 57 minutes for a second bookable offence and with Chalfont down to ten FC did have more of the ball but with absolutely no cutting edge, time and time again they would give the ball away on the edge of the box without ever troubling the home Keeper. Chalfont were down to nine after 88 minutes when Jake Cass was dismissed for another second yellow and then on 90 minutes were down to eight when substitute Zaid Alhussaini was dismissed for a high kick on Davis Haule.

FULL TIME Chalfont St Peter 1-0 Aylesbury FC

THE MANAGER

Danny Edwards is now in his 14th season at the helm at Mill Meadow and has built a reputation for playing good football and helping to develop players through to the higher levels of the game. Edwards managed the under 18's side to victory in the Berks & Bucks Under 18's Challenge Cup in 2004, and his reward was to take over from Martin Dean as the first team manager from the 2004/05 season and the fortunes of the club began to improve as they had top half league finishes, and won the Challenge trophy in 2008. The next season 08/09 was even better as they reached the FA Vase semi-final, only seconds away from reaching Wembley. But finally in the 2010/11 season Chalfont dominated the Spartan Premier league under Edwards and won the title. Over the years in the Southern League his side have always been contesting for the playoffs, testament to the great work from the manager.

Ryan Haugh

A talented defender who joined recently from Barton Rovers. Likes to get forward.

George Fenton

Signed early on in the 2016/2017 season from Chesham United. Part of the Chesham side which reached the FA Cup 2nd round in 2015/16. On George's first full season with the club won the Manager's Player of the Year award.

Mark Goodman

Joined recently from Enfield and already hitting the net. A clever, quick footed forward who will score goals.

DON'T HOLD EM', COUNT EM!

Me in my Belgrave Utd kit, blending in with the wallpaper.

By MARC KEINCH

The early days of football creeping into my life were an eye opening dip into the world of non-league football in the late 90's-early 2000's, back when Aylesbury United were the main team in the town. My dad has always been a big Arsenal fan, but from an early age and with the mantle of being the first born son, he began to take me to watch the local team in action. Apparently at the first game, my dad took me into the bar in the ground and made me swear not to tell my mum he'd brought me in there. The first thing I did when I got in was tell her about the pub, much to my dad's disbelief, luckily my mum let him take me to more football games in future. I remember that bar being dark and dingy with windows going along the top of the wall where you could see the tips of the chairs in the stand. The club shop stood out as you arrived for having a giant Aylesbury

Duck perched on top of the building with all sorts inside for the non-league fan to look at.

I don't remember much about the football played on the pitch but what I do remember is pure non-league gold. A Canvey Island defender making a diving save with his hands and only getting a yellow card for the act (United missed the penalty) and an away player falling down in front of us holding his crown jewels in agony as my dad shouted at him, "Don't hold em, count em!". There were a few players there though that do remain in the memory for their footballing skill. Jermaine Darlington was a fine player, Kieran Gallagher, Gary Crawshaw and of course Cliff Hercules. As I got older however the footballing quality on the pitch started to slowly deteriorate. I remember one weekend the club handed out loads of tickets to the local schools for the kids to come along, and cueing round the corner to get into the ground. We lost 4-0 to Oxford City that day and Cliff Hercules, who was manager at the time, left the club soon after. I remember my last time seeing United with my dad as we lost 7-0 and him proclaiming "Well I'm not going to see that again" or something to that degree.

My younger brother Tom chose Arsenal to give my dad some peace. Could have been worse, I could have picked Spurs.

Yet for me as a young lad, what I remember most fondly and clearly were the amusing and strange incidents in the crowd that occurred on a weekly basis, such as the home fans getting in a slanging match with the assistant manager of Carshalton in the away dugout, the guy in front of me with his cup of hot soup getting a whack in the chest with the ball from a wayward pass (could have been a shot for all we know), an injured Gary Crawshaw heading into the stands to put his maimed foot up on the chair next to me, much to my dad's delight and shaking hands with the manager Bob Dowie. I was captivated with the crowds, looking around in awe at the many faces in the crowd, young and old, and to this day I'm still fascinated by that.

Most boys don't get a chance to pick a team if their dad is a keen football fan. But I remember clearly being in my kitchen at Radcliffe Walk and picking my team out from the Premier League table, to my dad's dismay I picked out Newcastle United. "Are you sure you don't want Arsenal Marc?" "Leave him alone, let him choose!" said my mum. My grandad was a Newcastle fan so he was estatic and never let my Dad forget it. My bedroom wall had a full mural painted on it with Newcastle United players Peter Beardsley, Les Ferdinand and the smug smiling face of Kevin Keegan. Centre stage on the wall was me in my Newcastle kit with my mushroom bowl haircut, a pure work of art.

My younger brother Tom chose Arsenal as his team a few years later to give my dad some peace. Could have been worse, I could have picked Spurs. Still those were some painful years, despite being relatively successful compared to the Geordies current predicaments being saved by Rafa, as a kid you only remember the bad times. I remember being distraught when we lost in the FA Cup final to Arsenal and my dad came home from the pub in jubilant spirits as I hid behind the sofa crying. Thanks Dad.

My days on the pitch were short lived to say the least, with the athletic nature of a sloth and the passing skills of a toddler, my time at the under 11's was mostly spent on the subs bench with occasional appearances charging about after the ball in midfield. Belgrave United Under 11's second team 2000-01 season, which is now called, Aylesbury FC! Fond memories of training on the field that is now the hallowed turf of Haywood Way and playing our matches on what is now the training field next to the ground. My manager was Andy Stevens, who is current Aylesbury FC captain Ben's dad. Andy was a great manager, firm and disciplined with some of the more difficult kids in the team but fair and kind to all his players. He had a desire to win which I think is key for kids to learn in whatever sport they take part in, but never took it too far, and from what I remember his team was all the better for it. His son Ben also took part in training sessions at the tender age of 16 or 17, and after joining Aylesbury United a few years later, he returned to newly formed Aylesbury FC in 2009 and hasn't left since! I remember one training session near the end as the rain came pouring down, and Andy wouldn't let us leave until we'd done a slide tackle into the mud and through his legs, character building stuff!

Although I don't remember it, my dad tells me of how late chairman Danny

Martone would shout instructions at us from the touchline, "Get down the wing!" "Get stuck in lad!", even in those days it was evident of how much Danny loved the club that would in a few years time become Aylesbury FC. After winning the clubman of the year award at the end of the year awards in the clubhouse, I chose to end my career on a high (Wenger take the note) with my dignity intact, obviously not because I was hopeless with a football at my feet.

After that I completely lost all interest in football for several years except for England games. Who can say they didn't scream the house down when Beckham scored that free kick against Greece to get us to the World Cup, Beckhams penalty against Argentina in 2002, Rooney going mental at Portugal in 2004 and losing out on penalties, a time honoured tradition for any young English football fan growing up. With the greatest irony and in my naivety, my interest in football was rekindled by a trip to watch MK Dons v Bury at The National Hockey Stadium on the first day of the season in 2006 after Enland went out on penalties at yet another world cup. A 2-1 win with a late goal coming from Izale McLeod, some angry Bury fans threatening to beat up all 300 of us in the cowed stand, my football fix had returned and I started to come regularly to home games with my Dad. A few years and managers went by, Martin Allen, Paul Ince and Roberto Di Matteo and a move to the new Stadium:MK but alas, MK Dons were no Barcelona so I once more lost interest in football before one fateful tuesday night in February 2014. Wycombe Wanderers vs Fleetwood was the game, and I came along this time with a camera whilst studying photography at Amersham & Wycombe College. With my Canon 60d in hand, I fell in love with football photography right there, but that's a long story for another programme!

League roundup

The gap at the top of the Evo-Stik League South East table was cut to three points after leaders AFC Rushden & Diamonds were held at home by lower mid-table Marlow and second-placed AFC Dunstable's 2-0 home win over Aylesbury FC on Saturday.

In front of a crowd of 453, Diamonds kept a seventh home clean sheet but were unable to score against hardworking Marlow at Hayden Road.

AFC Dunstable attracted considerably fewer to Creasey Park – just a paltry 72 – but beat the Moles with a brace from Jermaine Hall after 32 and 62 minutes.

Beaconsfield Town are third, but only on goal difference and with a game in hand on AFC Dunstable, after winning 3-1 at Honeycroft against Uxbridge. And they had to come from being a 19th minute Harry Tucker goal behind to win, courtesy of Alex Cathline after 42 minutes, Goldy Capela on 51 minutes and new signing Tre Mitford, who came off the bench to make it 3-1 in the 68th minute.

Just a point separates Cambridge City, Moneyfields and Hayes & Yeading United in the remainder of the top six.

Both City and the Moneys were inactive due to waterlogged pitches, but Hayes & Yeading were 3-0 home winners over Kempston Rovers, who have dropped out of contention and are now eleventh, seven points behind the play-off places.

Manny Duku bagged a brace for Hayes & Yeading in the 42nd minute and then 2 minutes into stoppage time at the end of the game after Ismael Ehui had scored the second on 53 minutes.

Seventh-placed Ashford Town (Middx) dropped to six points behind the top six after losing 2-1 at Thame to second-bottom Aylesbury United. Ollie Hogg broke the deadlock to give the Ducks the lead 7 minutes into the second half from the penalty spot, only for Max Webb to equalise within 2 minutes. But Jack Wood popped up 5 minutes from time to earn the Ducks a crucial win.

Hartley Wintney are eighth, but have games in hand and won 2-0 at home to Bedford Town on Saturday. Rowan Vine broke the deadlock 2 minutes after the break and Paul Hodges made sure for the Hampshire side 20 minutes from time.

Bottom-markers Arlesey Town picked up only their eighth point from twenty-four matches in a 0-0 home draw with Fleet Town, while there was an important win for Barton Rovers, who moved up to fourth-bottom after beating Chalfont St Peter 2-1 at Mill Meadow. Charlie Jones gave last season's play-off finalists a 16th minute lead that Jimmy Hartley quickly doubled 3 minutes later. All the Saints could muster in response was a last-minute Ben Ward-Cochrane effort.

The day's other game saw Egham Town and Northwood share a 2-2 draw at the Runnymede Stadium. Wilson Chingoka gave Woods a 22nd minute lead that Matt Woods eventually cancelled out 5 minutes after half-time. Brendan Matthew then put the Sarnies ahead in the 74th minute, but an 89th minute Mahlondo Martin effort salvaged a point for the visitors.

On Tuesday night Chalfont St Peter and Fleet Town played out a 0-0 stalemate at Mill Meadow.

Northwood were at home to AFC Dunstable and held the 2nd placed team in the league to an exciting 2-2 draw. Drew Roberts opened the scoring in the sixth minute to give Dunstable the lead after neat interplay between Christie and Hall. Terry Griffiths made it 2-0 in the 41st minute, heading home from a corner kick. Northwood came out guns blazing in the second half and scored in the 48th minute, Jermaine Osei with a turn and shot from a Lewis Hobbs cross. Nine minutes from time they equalised thanks to a wonder free kick from Mahlondo Martins.

On Wednesday, the Ducks of Aylesbury United went down 3-0 to Bedford Town. Goals from David Manu, David Moli and a late goal for Ashton Grant.

AFC DUNSTABLE 2

Hall 32', 62'

AYLESBURY FC 0

Creasey Park
Saturday 6th January 2018
Kick off: 3pm
Attendance: 72

Report by Marc Keinch

FC fans could have previously been forgiven for expecting the worst coming to play a team in such fine form and second in the table, however with the fine away form of the moles side thus far this season, the fans made the trip along to Dunstable with hopes of nicking something special once again. Despite a resolute and battling performance from Aylesbury in the January cold, it wasn't to be as FC went down 2-0 to a promotion chasing AFC Dunstable side.

Early on the tone for the game was set with pressure from both sides and plenty of meaty tackles to test the ref. An attack down the right wing by Hafid Bounyafe supported by Garry Jones was whipped into the box and the resulting header from Brian Haule was blocked, leading to raucous calls for handball from the men in red and black as Davis Haule missed the follow up.

Then on the 32nd minute AFC Dunstable broke the deadlock, as leading goalscorer Jermaine Hall broke through FC's defence to slot the ball past Ashley Jenkins. 1-0.

Soon into the second half it was the home side who were pushing for that second goal, and it was that man again, Jermaine Hall. A slip up in the FC defence left the ball to the ruthless striker to slot home and make FC's afternoon even harder. FC pushed forward once more but didn't look like breaking down AFC Dunstable, who intercepted and dealt with the long ball well. Late on, keeper Jamie Head rushed out to the byline to clear the ball, only to be met by Jordan Jenkins who dived in for the ball, managing with the reflection to send it only inches wide of the goal.

A run of 4 away wins in a row came to an end for the Moles, as second placed AFC Dunstable proved one step too far.

Under 18's forward Cian Banert made his senior debut, coming on for Brian Haule late in the game.

Report by Jools Thomas

The footballing cliché 'Smash and Grab' was an ideal description of this heavily one sided El Quackico derby played at a wet Meadows stadium. A somewhat disappointing turnout of spectators were treated to three goals, one gift to the Ducks which could only be described as comical and two which provided great quality from an otherwise out of sorts FC team.

This chance wasn't taken and the Moles were then punished in almost farcical fashion. A simple kick out down field by Jenkins was blocked. The ball fell to Connor Furlong who had just to stroke it home into an empty net to give the Ducks the lead.

In the 10th minute, questions were raised as Ty Deacon appeared to be bundled over by home keeper

Jack Sillitoe when facing off on a one on one. Loud appeals were made however, the referee was disinterested and play continued uninterrupted. Ty did not make any mistake with his next opportunity. A ball over the top was chested down perfectly and in one movement, the target man struck a perfect shot into the bottom corner of the goal past the outstretched fingers of Sillitoe.

FC had their first real chance of the second half as Brian Haule whipped in a curling shot that only just cleared Sillitoe's bar. In the 88th minute Moles' stalwart Aston Goss had other ideas, he found space down that left hand side and lifted a delicate cross into the path of the advancing Brian Haule whose deft header from just a matter of yards fired past the helpless keeper to give his side the winner and three vital points.

FC v Aylesbury United

Ty Deacon scored in the 20th minute our first goal against the ducks since the ducks since April 2016 when we drew 2-2 at home, with goals coming from Gareth Price and Ben Bateman.

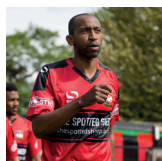

Brian Haules header in the 88th minute from an Aston Goss cross was his third goal of the season as the Moles took all 3 points, something all the boys were extremely happy about!

And so ended the short period of Aylesbury United's domination of the El Quakico as FC held onto the victory. Our last win in the derby was on August 31st 2015 with the goalscorer then also being Brian Haule as the game ended 1-0 to the Moles at the ASM Stadium in Thame.
