

SPECTATORS Codes of Conduct

SPECTATORS' Codes of Conduct

- Stay off the pitch
- Don't abuse anyone (especially the referee)
- If you have brought children to the club and you want to watch the match make sure your children are supervised at all times.
- Remember that although young people play organised rugby they are not "miniature internationals".
- Be on your best behaviour and lead by example. Do not use profane language or harass referees, players or coaches.
- Applaud good play by the visiting team as well as your own.
- Show respect for your team's opponents. Without them there would not be a match.
- Condemn the use of violence in all forms at every opportunity.
- Verbal abuse of players or referees cannot be accepted in any shape of form.
- Players or referees are not fair targets for ignorant behaviour.
- Encourage young players to play by the Laws of the Game.
- Do not allow any dog(s) on the pitches or training areas, at anytime.
- During a fire follow the club officials and go straight to Training area 1 – the Evacuation place. Do not re-enter the building until done so by an official fire officer.
- Spectators can contribute to the enjoyment of the event and all involved.
- Be proud of your club and the Game of Rugby.

The codes of conduct above set out the values and behaviours all of us at Trowbridge RFC aspire to.
